Facility Use Restrictions

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access, use or photograph the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who upon admission to a facility records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Information Policies | Broadcasting Information

The 2004 Nebraska Media Guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of Husker volleyball. Additional information, including releases, photographs and videotapes may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Sports Information Office at (402) 472-2263.

Media Credentials

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska volleyball home matches should be directed to Shamus McKnight, Nebraska Volleyball SID, P.O. Box 880123, 116 South Stadium, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123. Requests must be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week before the match. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below).

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper and wire-service writers covering for next-day publication; (2) radio and television personnel for broadcast origination; (3) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers.

Media Will Call

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up with identification at the media entrance at the southwest corner of the Nebraska Coliseum. The media entrance opens 90 minutes before first serve.

Media Parking

Media outlets will be issued parking credentials for the horseshoe-shaped parking lot south of the Nebraska Coliseum. To request a parking pass please call Assistant SID Shamus McKnight at (402) 472-7772 or SID Office Supervisor Vicki Cartwright in the sports information office at (402) 472-2263.

Nebraska Coliseum Directions

- From Lincoln's Municipal Airport: Exit the airport on W. Adams Street, the main road leading out to Cornhusker Highway. Follow W. Adams Street to the first stoplight and turn right on Cornhusker Highway. Follow Cornhusker Highway and take a right on 14th Street. Go south until you reach Vine Street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersection.

- From Omaha's Eppley Airport: Exit the airport to the stoplight. Turn right onto Abbott Drive. Go approximately one mile to Storz Expressway (Abbott Drive turns into Storz Expressway). Proceed approximately three miles to I-480 South. Follow the signs and get onto I-80 West to Lincoln. Follow I-80 for about 60 miles and take the 27th Street Exit. Follow 27th Street south to Vine Street and turn right. Go west on Vine until you reach 14th Street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersection.

Player Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska volleyball players should be directed to Assistant SID Shamus McKnight (office phone: 402-472-7772), preferably 24 hours in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practice at the Nebraska Coliseum. Nebraska is tentatively scheduled to practice from 3 to 5:30 p.m. during the season. With advance notice, interviews can be arranged for other hours.

Cook Interviews

The best time to reach Coach John Cook for an interview is weekdays after practice. Interviews with Coach Cook should be scheduled through the Sports Information Office by calling (402) 472-2263. During the season, Cook will have weekly press conferences preceding Bill Callahan's football press conferences on Tuesdays on the sixth floor of the Don Bryant Media Facility at Memorial Stadium.

Postgame Interviews

The Nebraska postgame locker room is closed to the media at home games. For home games, NU's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the press room, located on the second floor to the right of the volleyball offices. The visiting team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located in the hallway off the southeast corner of the playing floor. Opposing coaches and players may be brought to the Nebraska interview room. On the road, Cook will conduct a brief press conference immediately following his postgame radio show. Following Cook's press conference, Husker players will be available to the media.

Press Row Location

Press row for Nebraska volleyball games is located on the upper level of the Coliseum behind the east serving line of the playing floor. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either end or side on the floor level in designated areas only. The press room is located off the upstairs hallway at the southwest corner of the Coliseum.

Media Services

Pregame notes, programs and media guides will be provided before each game. Play-by-play sheets and final statistics will be distributed. Starting approximately 90 minutes before first serve, refreshments will be served in the press room and a light meal will also be available to the media.

Radio/Television Broadcast Space

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space and credentials should be made to Shamus McKnight, Nebraska Sports Information, 116 South Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123, telephone 402-472-7772. If statisticians are needed, please contact the SID Office at least five days in advance.

Broadcast Rights

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Pinnacle Sports Productions own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University of Nebraska volleyball matches. Other than the Pinnacle Sports Network and the University of Nebraska student station (KRNU), the only stations or networks that will be allowed to broadcast Nebraska matches from the Nebraska Coliseum are those which have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team. All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Nebraska Coliseum must have permission from the University and are subject to a rights fee. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live match action or description of any match while it is in progress. Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephones on press row, or use telephones on press row for reporting on matches. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to the above stipulations.

Telephones

Nebraska provides two telephones in the Nebraska Coliseum Press Room. All long distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media source wishing to place a telephone on press row should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks before the game.

Broadcast Telephone Lines

Visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed on press row and may do so by contacting University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000). However, Pinnacle Sports Productions installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts and charges a fee for the use of those lines for non-conference games (Big 12 official stations receive the use of the lines free of charge as part of a cooperative). Stations interested in using the lines should contact Mike Elliott of Pinnacle Sports Productions at (402) 430-7312.

Sports Information Office

The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office is located in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located at the south end of Memorial Stadium at Stadium Drive and T streets. The South Stadium Office Building is approximately three blocks from the Nebraska Coliseum.

Fax and E-mail Access

The Nebraska Sports Information Office has an automatic facsimile machine that can transmit or receive documents. The phone number for the fax is (402) 472-2005. A facsimile machine is available in the Nebraska Coliseum Press Room following the match, and Sports Information Office personnel will send box scores free of charge as time permits. Match recaps will be E-mailed to media outlets following every match. Contact Assistant SID Shamus McKnight (402) 472-7772 to add your name to the post-match E-mail list.

Huskers.com/HuskersNside

For the most up-to-the minute coverage of Nebraska women's volleyball on the Internet, click on Huskers.com, the official website of the University of Nebraska Athletic Department.

In addition to updated results, statistics and game stories, you can find photos, player and coach biographies, schedule and roster information and weekly releases on the Husker volleyball program.

Husker fans have the opportunity to gain even greater access to the NU volleyball program through HuskersNside, the premium site of the Nebraska Athletic Department. HuskersNside provides live video streaming of NU athletic events and daily video content to its subscribers not available anywhere else. In 2004, HuskersNside will stream every regular-season volleyball match, both home and away, as well as Coach Cook's weekly press conferences.

To join, just log on to Huskers.com and click on HuskersNside. Because this is quality video streaming, subscribers to the site must have broadband Internet access.

The Pinnacle Sports Productions Radio Network

Pinnacle Sports Productions begins its ninth year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of the University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games. Pinnacle was first awarded the broadcast rights on Feb. 9, 1996. The University renewed the Pinnacle Contract on Aug. 9, 2003, for an additional five-year term that runs until July 31, 2011.

John Baylor

Pinnacle Sports Productions is owned by Paul Aaron of Elkhorn, Neb., and Dale Jensen of Phoenix, Ariz. Pinnacle heads up a large network of state affiliates, which allows Husker games to be heard statewide and in various areas of the United States. As of press time, Pinnacle Sports had a 16-station network for Husker volleyball, including 107.3 FM in Lincoln and Omaha. The games can also be heard live on the Internet by accessing Nebraska's home page at Huskers.com. In addition to broadcasting Husker games, Pinnacle Sports also provides a daily, live call-in show focusing on NU athletics and other area sports.

Criteria used in evaluating bids included guaranteed annual fees; confidence in the bidder's ability to realize such fees; ability to put together a network; additional proposed programming; availability of a viable radio production facility and personnel; coverage of women's sports; other sports coverage committed; airwave coverage of the state of Nebraska and key out-of-state locations; and willingness and ability to promote the University of Nebraska in all areas, including non-athletic concerns.

The Pinnacle Sports Productions staff includes Paul Aaron, President; Johnny Andrews, General Manager; Rob Hasson, Sales Manager; Randy Lee, Marketing and Men's Basketball Play-by-Play Announcer; Matt Davison, Sales and Men's Basketball Color Announcer; Jim Rose, Marketing and Football/Baseball Play-by-Play Announcer; Patty Aaron, Michael Beelman, Colleen Hitz, Gary Kasper, Jamie Linn, Joni Woodruff, Marketing; Melissa Klopfenstein, Billing and Traffic Director and Deb Kerns, Receptionist.

John Baylor, a veteran sportscaster, enters his 10th year as the voice of the Nebraska volleyball team. Baylor will continue to handle the play-by-play duties during the 2004 season as well as host John Cook's weekly radio show. Cook's radio show can be heard statewide on the network. The show will air on Thursday nights throughout the season and will begin on the first week of the season. The show runs from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

History | Administration

As the Big 12 Conference approaches the end of its first decade of intercollegiate activity, dedication to several tenets of the finer points of athletics helps in the continued establishment of a strong tradition.

The Big 12 reached the 10-year mark of its founding – Feb. 25, 1994 – in 2004 and celebrates student-athletes, top-flight competition, academic reform measures, scholarship, sportsmanship, and competitive success with equity as it comes closer to the 10th anniversary of intraconference activity on Aug. 31, 2006.

Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M, and Texas Tech combined forces in 1994 and formed the Big 12 Conference – a league covering seven states and encompassing over 40 million people.

The conference pays particular attention to sportsmanship and a level field of play for the 4,500-plus student-athletes in 21 sports. Those competing and coaching in the Big 12 seek maximum training on the fields and courts as well as in the classroom and community.

Along with this competitive excellence, scholarship has been and continues to be a point of emphasis with the Big 12. There are 19 academic honor teams (first and second units), and the semi-annual Commissioner's Honor Roll salutes student-athletes who have achieved 3.0 averages (4.0 grading scale) in the semester previous to the announcement. Annually, nearly 100 student-athletes from the league make these teams with perfect 4.0 grade-point averages.

Each member institution also nominates a male or female student-athlete for one of the prestigious Big 12 Conference postgraduate scholarships at the end of the academic year. A total of 100-plus aspiring scholars have received more than $500,000 in postgraduate financial aid during the first eight years of the program.

Sportsmanship has been an item high on the Big 12 agenda since Commissioner Kevin L. Weiberg became the league's third chief executive in December of 1998. The conference developed and has maintained a Sportsmanship Statement that applies to all student-athletes, coaches and administrators throughout the league. The Big 12 also honors one male and female student-athlete each year as Big 12 Sportspersons of the Year.

The level playing field for participants in all Big 12 sports also figures into competitive equity. This does not deny the potential for national team or individual champions in any sport but seeks to provide an avenue in which up-and-coming student-athletes can display their top individual talents within the framework of conference and NCAA sports' guidelines.

Big 12 schools and the conference office seek to provide national-class facilities for all levels of league championships, postseason tournaments and NCAA venues. They utilize Big 12 campus sites as well as buildings such as Kansas City's Kemper Arena, Arrowhead Stadium and Municipal Auditorium, Houston's Reliant Stadium, San Antonio's Alamodome, St. Louis' Edward Jones Dome, Irving's Texas Stadium, Oklahoma City's SBC Bricktown Ballpark, The Ballpark in Arlington, Dallas' American Airlines Center and Reunion Arena, among others. The Conference also has agreements with eight bowl entities for 2004 – the Bowl Championship Series, SBC Cotton, Pacific Life Holiday, MasterCard Alamo, MainStay Independence, EV1.net

Not only has the Big 12 fostered a spirit of conviviality and excitement with newfound rivalries, but the conference organization has given rise to several related, cooperative ventures – Big 12 cities, libraries, campus security organizations, Chambers of Commerce, tourism/visitors bureaus, information exchanges, sports medicine associations, and campus public information offices, among others.

The solid athletic traditions at the 12 schools are evident as student-athletes/alumni have claimed more than 900 NCAA crowns and over 170 national team championships through July of 2004. Commissioner Weiberg, acting in accord with the Big 12 Board of Directors, first contracted most major championship sites and dates through the 2004-05 academic year in 1999. The Big 12 also continued the process of determining future championships' dates and sites through the 2006-07 term during the 2003-04 academic year.

The league office also has negotiated critical media (television/radio/print) contracts and ongoing bowl agreements in recent months. Added in 2002-03 were agreements with TBS Superstation to carry Big 12 football games in prime time slots, with College Sports Television (CSTV) for more regional and national telecasts, and expanded video streaming opportunities for several Olympic sports within the league with Fox Sports Net and FoxSports.com.

Almost six million fans who attended championships or tournaments in Big 12 postseason activity since 1996 can attest that they are viewing some of the nation's finest student-athletes, coaches and officials.

Nebraska's Big 12 Titles | 2003-04 Champions | All-Time Team Titles

Nebraska's Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the Big 12 Conference began its inaugural athletic season in 1996, Nebraska has achieved substantial championship success. The Huskers have finished at the top of the league in nearly every sport, claiming 40 regular-season championships in seven years.

NU has won 19 conference championships in the past four years along with five Big 12 Tournament titles (two soccer, one baseball and two softball).

"Winston Churchill said 'in the beginning, we build buildings. In the end, we are shaped by the buildings we live in.' I think the Coliseum shapes Nebraska volleyball," Pettit said. "It's an environment that creates intimacy. It's a classic structure and in a lot of ways reflects what the Nebraska program is all about."

The Coliseum, which sits nestled on the University campus, is a beautiful display of architecture highlighted by its powerful Roman columns gracing the front steps. But while its beauty is appreciated by Husker players, coaches and fans, it is one of the most-dreaded places for opponents to play in the sport of volleyball, and arguably one of the toughest places to play in college athletics.

Nebraska volleyball has had unmatched success in the confines of the cozy Coliseum, posting 12 undefeated seasons and compiling an all-time record of 405-29 (.933) under its roof. During the 1990s, Nebraska posted a record of 142-6 in the Coliseum.

While these numbers are impressive, the Big 12 and former Big Eight members managed even fewer wins. That's because Nebraska doesn't lose to conference opponents in the Coliseum.

Only three times in 28 years of regular-season Big Eight/Big 12 play has a conference opponent ever won on the Coliseum floor. In fact, during that time, only three conference opponents have managed to win in Lincoln. Nebraska suffered its first-ever regular-season loss to a conference foe in 1999, falling to Kansas State, 15-9, 16-14, 16-18, 7-15, 15-17, on Sept. 22, snapping a streak of 101 consecutive wins against regular-season conference opponents. Nebraska then won 44 straight Big 12 matches at home before suffering a loss to Kansas State in 2003. The Huskers have lost only two Big 12 matches at home under John Cook.

Pettit said the home-court advantage is most valuable during its long, hard-fought battles.

"The home crowd was a big advantage when we were fatigued or drained in the middle of a four- or five-game match," Pettit said. "The players used the energy and electricity from the fans to pull them through difficult stretches. I don't think that it's as big an advantage against the elite teams, but it definitely makes a difference."

Nebraska has used that success at home to propel it through the NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers have hosted an NCAA Tournament match every season since 1984 and have capitalized on each opportunity by compiling a 37-3 playoff record in the stoic building. And Nebraska fans have been rewarded by seeing all of the Huskers' NCAA regional championships won on their home court.

Nebraska carried a 65-match Coliseum win streak into the 1999 season, but suffered a loss to No. 6 Pacific in the State Farm/NACWAA Classic semifinal. In 2002, the Huskers carried a 63-match home winning streak into its NCAA regional final match against Hawaii, but fell, 3-1.

The win streaks are a direct result of Nebraska's frenzied crowds that routinely jam the building's bleachers. The Huskers finished third nationally in attendance in 2003 with an average of 4,239, a total that is 105 percent of the Coliseum's capacity.

Fans have been known to line up as much as four to five hours in advance to see their Husker volleyball team in action. During the 2000 season, fans set an NCAA regular-season attendance mark of 12,504 for a match against Colorado in the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Nebraska has averaged more than 3,000 fans for 11 of the past 13 seasons.

The Coliseum's roots go back to the 1920s when it was the home for the Husker basketball team. NU's cagers played on its hardwood floors from 1926 to 1977, when the construction on the Bob Devaney Sports Center was completed.

Since then, the volleyball team has been its lone tenant. In 1991, the Huskers had a one-year hiatus from the Coliseum while the building was being renovated and tailored for volleyball. The renovation provided a more comfortable atmosphere for players, coaches and fans. Among the additions were a new sound system, scoreboard, overhead lights and a new floor. Offices for coaches and administrators, as well as a conference/media room, were constructed for a better working environment. In 1997, the Husker locker room and ready room underwent a complete facelift. Then, before the 2001 season, HuskerVision replay screens and Daktronics statistics boards were added at both ends of the court. The most recent additions to the Coliseum were completed in 2003, when the floor was resurfaced and murals of the four Husker retired jerseys were placed in the rafters. In 2004, the newest addition to the NU Coliseum will be a ring of honor displaying all of the All-Americans in school history.

2004 SCHEDULE

2004 Schedule Notes

- Fifteen of Nebraska's matches will be against teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2003, including three teams that reached the Sweet 16 (Kansas State, Texas A&M and Colorado State).

- Five of Nebraska's 2004 opponents were ranked in the final 2003 AVCA Coaches poll (Kansas State, Colorado State, Texas A&M, Notre Dame and Maryland), while two other opponents (Kansas and Florida A&M) received multiple votes in the final poll.

- The Sept. 3 season opener at Notre Dame marks the latest that Nebraska has opened a season since 1992. In fact, the only other season that Nebraska opened up this late was in 1985.

- The match-up with Notre Dame will mark the first time that Nebraska has faced the same opponent in consecutive matches since 1996 when the Huskers hosted Michigan State in the Arby's Classic in Lincoln.

- In the last nine years, Nebraska is 138-9 (.939) in the NU Coliseum.

- Florida A&M is the only first-time opponent on the Huskers' 2004 schedule.

- Nebraska will host a match in North Platte against Creighton on Oct. 10, marking the first time since 1992 that Nebraska has hosted a regular-season match outside of Lincoln. The meeting with Creighton will be the first contest between the state's two NCAA Division I programs since 2002.

- The Huskers have won 25 of 28 Big Eight/Big 12 titles. NU has won six of the eight possible Big 12 regular-season titles — all but the 1997 and 2003 crowns — and claimed 17 Big Eight Tournament titles from 1976 to 1995. The Big 12 does not play a conference tournament.

- The 2004 campaign marks the ninth season of Big 12 volleyball. Last season, six conference teams earned NCAA Tournament bids, including Colorado, Kansas State, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Texas A&M.

- Since Nebraska began playing volleyball in 1975, the Huskers have lost only five home matches to conference opponents and only four regular-season league matches. Nebraska's all-time conference home record (Big Eight and Big 12 combined) is 204-4 (.981).

- For the second straight year, NCAA Regional sites have been predetermined with locations in Green Bay, Wis., Louisville, Ky., Minneapolis, Minn., and Seattle, Wash. It marks the first time that Nebraska could travel for an NCAA Regional since the 1999 season.

- All of Nebraska's 2004 games will be carried on the Pinnacle Sports Network, including 107.3 FM in Lincoln.

The Cornhusker Legend

Before 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes, Rattlesnake Boys and the Bugeaters. In its first two seasons (1890-91), Nebraska competed as the Old Gold Knights, but beginning in 1892, Nebraska adopted Scarlet and Cream as its colors and accepted the Bugeaters as its most popular nickname until the turn of the century. Named after the insect-devouring bull bats that hovered over the plains, the Bugeaters also found their prey in the Midwest, enjoying winning campaigns in every year of the 1890s until a disappointing season in 1899.

After its first losing season in a decade, it must have seemed only fitting that Nebraska move in a new direction, and Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and helped to originate the Associated Press poll, provided the nickname that has gained fame for more than a century. Sherman tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers, and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker, and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker," evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of former Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon, and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character that served as a mascot for all Husker athletic teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In 2003, "Herbie" enjoyed a resurgence in the spotlight as he underwent a makeover, helping him better portray Nebraska's "image of strength and power," according to Athletic Director Steve Pederson. A new and improved "Herbie" was unveiled Aug. 30, 2003.

Along with Herbie, the athletic department unveiled Lil' Red, the Cornhuskers' contemporary mascot, in 1994. Lil' Red has been commonly seen on the sideline of all Nebraska athletic teams in recent years and remains NU's official mascot along with "Herbie."

NCAA RULES FOR BOOSTERS

Compliance Guidelines for Nebraska Boosters

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big 12 Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA Principles

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

NCAA Definitions

Athletic Representative/Booster

You are considered to be a University of Nebraska athletic representative if you:

- Are a present or past member of a University of Nebraska booster club or agency that promotes the Huskers' intercollegiate athletic program;
- Have made financial contributions to the athletic department or to an athletic booster organization of the University of Nebraska;
- Are, or have been, providing benefits (e.g., summer jobs, meals etc.) to enrolled student-athletes, their family members or friends;
- Are, or have been involved in any manner of promoting the University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic program.

Please note: Once an individual is identified as an athletic representative, that person retains that identity indefinitely. The University of Nebraska is ultimately responsible for the acts of all "representatives of athletic interests" in relation to NCAA rules and regulations.

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Student-Athlete

A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Contact

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Recruiting

Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in the institution's intercollegiate athletic program.

Guidelines and Reminders for Boosters

- A booster may not contact the prospect, prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospective student-athlete, family members or friends.
- A booster may not become directly or indirectly involved in making arrangements for a prospect, or the prospect's relative or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.
- A booster may not contact a prospective student-athlete through letter writing, telephone calling or other forms of communication.

However, here are a few ways that a Husker booster may be involved:

- Do discuss summer employment opportunities with a prospect after he/she has signed a National Letter of Intent with the University of Nebraska.
- Do attend high school athletic events without contacting prospective student-athletes.
- Do continue existing friendships with families and friends of prospective student-athletes.
- Do send recommendation letters, newspaper clippings or similar information about prospective student-athletes to Husker coaches.

Extra Benefit Guidelines and Reminders for Boosters

Extra Benefit

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or an athletic representative to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation.

Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit by NCAA definition. Examples of extra benefits include but are not limited to:

- Providing cash or loans of any amount;
- Signing or co-signing for a loan or other forms of financial assistance;
- Providing the use of a telephone to make local or long distance calls;
- Transporting a student-athlete or providing the use of a vehicle;
- Providing free or reduced rent housing;
- Giving gifts of any kind (i.e. birthday, Christmas, Valentine's Day);
- Promising a student-athlete postgraduate education or employment;
- Offering free services (i.e. clothing, airline tickets, laundry, car repair, haircuts, restaurant meals);
- Providing payment to a student-athlete for a booster club speaking engagement;
- Providing employment for relatives or friends.

Here are a few ways that a Husker booster may help:

- Do invite a student-athlete to participate in non-profit, charitable or educational events.
- Do invite a student-athlete into your home for an occasional meal.
- Do contact the NU Athletic Compliance Office for approval prior to a student-athlete engaging in outside speaking or promotional activities.
- Do pay a student-athlete the commensurate rate for actual and legitimate employment.

Jennifer Saleaumua

Melissa Elmer

Dani Mancuso

Ally Rebholz

For Nebraska volleyball coach John Cook, there is a sense of excitement as the 2004 season nears.

After entering last season looking to replace a trio of All-Americans, the Huskers relied on a relatively inexperienced lineup — using as many as five freshmen in the lineup — to go 28-5 and reach the NCAA Regional semifinals for the 10th consecutive year.

The result of the youth movement is that nine letterwinners — including five starters — return from a team that closed 2003 by winning 13 of its last 15 matches. Add into that mix a recruiting class that is considered by many to be the nation's best, and Nebraska is primed to reclaim its Big 12 title after a one-year absence.

"There is a lot of excitement and anticipation heading into the fall," Cook said. "We know we are going to have enough talent to play with anyone in the country."

While the Huskers used a 6-2 offense last year, Cook said that it may take the early part of fall drills to figure out what lineup and offensive system to use, as he looks for the best combination of players.

According to the fifth-year Husker mentor, the fierce battles for playing time will make fall camp very interesting as players will have to be physically and mentally ready at the onset.

"The anxiety going in (to fall practice) is that we really don't know what our lineup is and what system we'll run, so I am anxious in that regard," Cook said. "It is also exciting because we are going to have such great competition for spots. Anytime you have great competition, it brings out the best in people. I think that will pay off for us down the road."

With nearly every starting spot open, Cook believes the key to the success of the 2004 Huskers is how they gel together, especially facing a difficult early-season slate.

Middle Blockers

Traditionally, one of Nebraska's strengths has been the play of the middle blockers, and the return of All-American Melissa Elmer makes the Huskers' attack formidable.

"We think that Melissa may be the best middle blocker in the country," Cook said.

Elmer led the Big 12 and ranked sixth nationally with a 1.59 blocks per game, while her .352 hitting percentage also ranked among the Big 12 leaders. Elmer's 169 block assists last fall ranked as the third-highest single-season total in school history. The 6-foot-2 junior trained with the U.S. National training team in the spring, helping the team win the USA Volleyball Adult Open Championships. Cook said Elmer's hard work to improve her back row play will make her a more versatile player this fall.

"She can help us win matches in many ways, and we are going to give her the opportunity to do that."

Freshmen Tracy Stalls and Meghan Smith both bring impressive credentials into the Husker program and will challenge for playing time in 2004.

Stalls trained with the USA Volleyball National Developmental Program for two years following her graduation from high school in 2003. She has competed in several international competitions, including the 2003 Pan American Games, and her national team experience will help her make the transition to the collegiate ranks.

"She is someone who can play all the way around and hit from a variety of sets, so we will have different ways to use her," Cook said. "She's going to give us a chance to have a very creative offense."

Smith was a first-team All-Nebraska selection and was chosen to Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50 after leading Class B in kills, aces and blocks in 2003. She set an all-class state record with 604 blocks, including 191 as a senior.

"Meghan may be the quickest middle that we have had in a while," Cook said. "She is someone who we think will blossom in our program."

Outside Hitters

The outside hitter positions are the deepest spots in the Husker lineup, as four of the top five hitters return from a year ago, including Jennifer Saleaumua, a first-team AVCA All-Region honoree.

Saleaumua made the transition from right to left side look effortless in 2003, earning first-team All-Big 12 honors. An excellent all-around player, she led the Huskers in kills per game (3.27), digs per game (3.90) and double-doubles (17), was tied for third in service aces (33) and ranked fifth in total blocks (71). According to Cook, Saleaumua's statistics only show a small portion of her true value on the court.

"Jen is the heart of our team," Cook said. "When we are on the court, a lot of the emotional energy and communication revolves around her because she is so gifted in that area."

Dani Mancuso took over the second spot on the right side down the stretch and is on the verge of a breakout 2004 season. The 6-2 sophomore from Omaha started the Huskers' final 12 matches and averaged 2.24 kills and 2.29 digs per game. Cook credits the Huskers' strong play down the stretch last season to Mancuso's insertion into the lineup.

"One of the reasons we made the change was we felt that we needed some emotion out there," Cook said. "Dani has a gift for that and a great passion when she plays. That enthusiasm and energy rubs off on the other players. She is a good all-around player and has a great opportunity to be a starter this year."

Senior Ally Rebholz found her way into the rotation on the right side in 2003. The 6-1 outside hitter started 21 matches and was fourth on the team with 2.33 kills per game and third with 93 total blocks. The lone senior on the roster, Rebholz was slowed by a shoulder injury last fall, but is healthy and will be counted on for her leadership.

"Ally was playing at an All-Big 12 level before injuring her shoulder," Cook said. "She is healthy after shoulder surgery and is coming into camp in the best shape of her career. We know she can play at a high level and make a major contribution for us."

Sophomore Kelsey Fautsch gained valuable experience teaming with Rebholz and Anna Schrad at the right-side hitter positions. Fautsch, a 6-foot-1 left-hander averaged 2.17 kills per game and had six double-figure kill efforts, including a season-high 13 against Missouri. Cook, who raves about Fautsch's work ethic and said that she could see time at either outside position.

"She has trained to play both sides for us and has really worked hard so she can play all the way around, which will be important with the position she plays," Cook said.

Sophomore Christina Houghtelling will also move to outside hitter after playing middle blocker as a freshman. According to Cook, the move will utilize Houghtelling's skills and help her remain healthy. She posted eight or more kills on three occasions, including a season-high nine against Georgia Tech, before she was sidelined with a knee injury.

"We are going to pace ourselves with Christina and bring her along slowly so she is healthy," Cook said. "We saw last year that Christina is a great competitor who plays her best in the biggest matches."

Emily Schroeder will provide depth on the outside after redshirting in 2003. The former all-state selection walked on to the Husker program and made strides in her redshirt year.

"Emily is a great athlete and knows what it takes to contribute at the outside hitter spot," Cook said. "She has worked hard and is developing the all-around skills to be a contributor for us."

Sarah Pavan is the cornerstone of a recruiting class that is ranked No. 1 nationally by prepvolleyball.com. The 6-5 outside hitter has been a member of the Canadian National Team since she was 16 - the youngest player in the program's history. She won MVP honors at the 2002 NORCECA Championships, including a 24-kill performance against the U.S. Junior National Team.

"Sarah has the experience to come right in and have an immediate impact in our program," Cook said. "She's played against the best players in the world and has experience way beyond her years. She is a very focused and determined player who wants to come here and help Nebraska win national championships."

Setter

While the position was considered the least experienced entering last season, junior Michelle Lynch and sophomore Dani Busboom combine to make the position a strength entering 2004. Both saw significant time in the Huskers' 6-2 offense and possess different strengths. Cook expects this battle to be hotly contested through the fall.

"We want competition and someone is going to earn the spot in the first two weeks of the fall because we have such a short window to be ready for the season."

Lynch played in all of NU's 117 games a year ago and averaged a team-high 7.21 assists per game in her first season as a starter. She had at least 30 assists eight times, including a career-high 40 assists against Georgia Tech. Lynch also paced the Huskers with 47 service aces, including five in a win at Texas. She battled a back injury last season, but looks to be fully healthy after off-season surgery.

"Michelle's strengths are that she has the most experience of our setters, and her ability to attack from the front row if we go to a 5-1 offense," Cook said. "That is what sets her apart. She has worked hard to get back to 100 percent, and we would like to see her stay healthy for the entire season."

Busboom, who was an outside hitter in high school, quickly made the transition to setter, and averaged 5.98 assists per game while appearing in all 117 games. She came on strong at the end of the season, averaging 7.40 assists in three NCAA Tournament matches. Cook says that Busboom's competitive nature and her experience as a freshman will help her challenge for a starting role.

"Dani potentially could be the most physical setter in the country with her size and athleticism," Cook said. "She gained a lot of experience last year, and we'll see in the fall if she can take what she learned from last year and transfer that into becoming a starter."

Libero

fortunate to have one of the league's best at that position.

McCormick overcame an early elbow injury to become a vital cog in the Husker rotation. She shattered the NU freshman record with 3.72 digs per game, including a career-high 31 digs - the highest total in the Big 12 last season - in her second career start. She continued to raise her game during the postseason, averaging 5.67 digs per game, including a postseason school mark of 20 against Dayton.

"We felt there were matches last year where she was as good as any libero in the Big 12," Cook said. "As our only libero, she is the only player who doesn't have much competition, but she has embraced that situation and has an understanding what it takes to be successful at that position."

2004 Schedule

Nebraska faces a daunting schedule this fall, as 15 of the Huskers' matches come against teams that made the 2003 NCAA Tournament. The Huskers open the season with a pair of matches at Notre Dame on Sept. 3-4, before concluding the three-match swing with a match at Western Michigan on Sept. 6. Nebraska opens the home portion of the schedule the following weekend when it hosts the First National Bank/Arby's Classic. The tournament features matches against NCAA Tournament qualifiers Florida A&M (Sept. 10) and Maryland (Sept. 12) along with a contest against Ball State.

Nebraska begins its trek through the Big 12 on Sept. 15, against Missouri - one of six conference teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament last season. In fact, the Huskers play four of their first five league matches against NCAA Tournament qualifiers.

"I think the Big 12 will be as competitive as it has ever been," Cook said. "We had six teams make the tournament last year, and Texas was very young last year and has as much talent as anyone in the conference."

"To win the Big 12, you have to be good for 11 weeks," Cook said. "You can't afford a slip-up, and it takes a lot of mental toughness. It is a great challenge, and if you can do that, you'll be in a great position to compete for a national championship."

In addition to the 14 matches in Lincoln, the Huskers will travel west on Oct. 10 to take on Creighton in North Platte. The Huskers played one spring match in the western part of the state in each of the past two seasons, selling out matches in Ogallala and Scottbluff, and Cook believes bringing a regular-season matchup will generate more excitement.

"We have traveled to the western part of the state twice in the spring and have had a great response," Cook said. "By playing Creighton, it not only promotes the in-state rivalry, but also allows us to showcase the level of volleyball played in the state. It should be a great experience for our student-athletes."

2004 SEASON NOTES

Cook's Winning Ways

Nebraska Coach John Cook has been amazingly successful during his four seasons at the helm, posting a 124-9 record (.932 winning percentage). All nine losses have come against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament, including the eventual NCAA champion in both 2001 (Stanford) and 2002 (USC). The Huskers have played 439 games during Cook's tenure, winning 378 and losing just 61 (.861).

In the Big 12, Cook has enjoyed even greater success, going 77-3 in his four seasons. Nebraska swept through the Big 12 in 2000, 2001 and 2002 before seeing its 77-match Big 12 winning streak end in a loss to Kansas State on Oct. 11, 2003. NU has dropped just 28 of the 264 conference games it has played over the past four seasons, good for an .894 winning percentage.

Cook was the AVCA Coach of the Year in 2000 after leading Nebraska to a 34-0 season and a national title. He was also named the 2001 Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Rank and File

Nebraska is one of two teams to be ranked in the USA Today/AVCA Coaches poll for all 303 weeks of its existence. The Huskers have been ranked in the top 10 for 269 of the 303 weeks, which ranks second behind Stanford's 284. NU has spent 38 weeks in the top spot, and its most recent No. 1 ranking was Sept. 24, 2001.

Sellout Streak Extends to 41

Nebraska will carry a streak of 41 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum into the 2004 season. The Huskers sold out all 14 matches they played at the Coliseum last season (NU played one match at the 13,595 Bob Devaney Sports Center). The streak began with a 10-game stretch to close the 2001 season and extended through the 2002 and 2003 campaigns. The last non-sellout came on Sept. 25, 2001, against Creighton. Nebraska ranked third nationally in total attendance, averaging 4,239 fans per match.

All-America U

Middle blocker Melissa Elmer continued Nebraska's remarkable streak of AVCA All-Americans by earning second-team accolades in 2003. Nebraska has had at least one All-American every season since 1983, a total of 22 straight seasons, including 11 in Coach John Cook's four seasons at Nebraska. A total of 23 players have combined to earn 46 AVCA All-America certificates. Nebraska leads the nation in both categories.

Kruse to have Jersey Retired during 2004 Season

Janet Kruse will become the fifth Husker volleyball player to earn the program's highest honor, as her No. 17 jersey will be retired at the Red/White Scrimmage on Aug. 28. Kruse is one of the most decorated student-athletes to ever play in the Husker program. The Fort Calhoun, Neb., native was the Huskers' first three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in 1989 and 1990 and second-team accolades in 1991. A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, Kruse was also an NCAA Top Eight Award winner and NCAA Woman of the Year Finalist. She joins Allison Weston, Lori Endicott, Cathy Noth and Karen Dahlgren in the NU Coliseum display.

Red, White and Blue

Nebraska continued its Olympic tradition in 2004 with Nancy (Meendering) Metcalf's selection to the U.S. Olympic team in July. Metcalf, a three-time All-American at Nebraska, became the third Husker to make an Olympic team, joining Lori Endicott, who competed in the 1992 and 1996 Olympics, and Allison Weston, who was the captain of the U.S. Team in the 2000 Olympics.

Success in the Classroom

Nebraska continued its successful legacy in the classroom in 2003, as Anna Schrad garnered second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Overall, NU has produced an NCAA-leading 17 academic All-Americans, who have earned a nation-best 26 academic All-America certificates. NU has had at least one CoSIDA Academic All-American in 17 of the last 20 seasons.

Foreign Invasion

While Nebraska has traditionally excelled in recruiting the Midwest, freshman outside hitter Sarah Pavan joins an exclusive club among Husker volleyball players. The Kitchener, Ontario, product is only the fourth player from outside the United States in the program's 30-year history, joining Greichaly Cepero (Dorado, Puerto Rico; 1999-2002), Maria Hedbeck (Sollentuna, Sweden; 1993-96) and Debbie Brand (Adelaide, Australia; 1989-92).

COACHES

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL

Head Coach John Cook

N

Head Coach | Fifth Year | University of San Diego (1979)

John Cook faced a daunting task when he was hired in 2000 to succeed Terry Pettit as the head coach of the Nebraska volleyball team. After all, the legendary Pettit spent 23 seasons at the helm of the Huskers, producing a 694-148-11 overall record and guiding NU to 21 conference championships and six NCAA semifinal appearances.

But in just four seasons as Pettit's successor, Cook has already begun to create a legend of his own. Since he was named the Nebraska head coach on Dec. 15, 1999, Cook has led the Huskers to the 2000 national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and three Big 12 Conference titles. Cook has guided NU to a 124-9 overall record and a 77-3 league mark.

Of NU's nine losses under Cook, eight were to top-15 teams, and three were to NCAA champion or runner-up teams (2001 NCAA champion Stanford, 2001 NCAA runner-up Long Beach State, 2002 NCAA champion USC).

Overall, Cook is 37-8 against ranked teams at Nebraska, and the Huskers have seven wins against top-five teams during the last four years.

With Cook at the helm, Nebraska has produced one Olympian, one AVCA Division I National Player of the Year, one NCAA Top Eight award winner, one Honda Award winner, 11 AVCA All-Americans, one CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, seven CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, two Big 12 Players of the Year and three Big 12 Co-Players of the Year. The Huskers have also combined for 12 All-Big 12 Conference awards and 20 academic All-Big 12 certificates.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unnoticed, as he was named the 2000 AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the 2001 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

Cook faced perhaps his greatest coaching challenge at Nebraska during the 2003 season, when the Huskers had to replace three All-Americans and their first-ever libero.

With so much young talent, Cook opted to run a 6-2 (two-setter) offense to utilize as many players as possible. NU went on to finish the season with a 28-5 record, an 11-4 mark against NCAA Tournament teams, and an appearance in its 10th straight Sweet 16. The Huskers closed 2003 by winning 13 of their final 15 matches, setting the stage for a highly anticipated 2004 campaign.

Three Straight 30-Win Seasons

Cook didn't waste any time creating his own legacy after taking over for Pettit. In 2000, his first season at the helm, Cook was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the national championship. The Huskers, who became just the second team in NCAA history to cap an undefeated season with a national title, were ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Top 25 poll for a record 14 straight weeks. Nebraska also broke single-season school records for wins and winning percentage.

The Nebraska players flourished under Cook, whose responsibilities included working directly with the setters during his first two seasons. Sophomore setter Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA National Player-of-the-Year honors. Three Huskers won AVCA All-America certificates, and five Nebraska players were named to the All-Big 12 teams. Laura Pilakowski earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, and a conference-best seven Huskers earned academic All-Big 12 recognition.

"It was the perfect season," Cook said. "Coming into my first year, I couldn't have imagined anything better than what our coaching staff and this team experienced."

In 2001, Cook's second season, Nebraska fell just two wins short of capturing another NCAA title. The Huskers, who were ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 in the AVCA poll all season, went 20-0 in the Big 12 en route to capturing their fifth consecutive conference championship, and Cook was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year. NU finished the season with a 31-2 record after falling to eventual national champion Stanford in the NCAA semifinals.

Nebraska broke the school record for opponent hitting percentage and placed four players on the AVCA All-America teams, the most in a single-season in school history. Right side hitter Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was selected as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner and was also named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year.

Pilakowski and Cepero joined Metcalf on the CoSIDA Academic All-America teams, as Pilakowski earned second-team honors and Cepero received third-team recognition. A conference-best nine Nebraska players were awarded academic All-Big 12 honors.

In Cook's third season, the Huskers found continued success. NU finished the season ranked fifth in the AVCA poll with a 31-2 record to secure its third straight 30-win season. Nebraska produced the most dominant conference season in school history, going 20-0 and losing just two games en route to winning the league championship for the third straight year. Cepero and Amber Holmquist again earned first-team AVCA All-America honors, and Pilakowski was recognized on the second team. Pilakowski was named a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, and Holmquist was a second-team pick. Cepero, Holmquist and Pilakowski shared Big 12 Player-of-the-Year accolades.

Nebraska was the NCAA blocks per game champion for the third consecutive season and ranked second nationally with a .326 hitting percentage.

Cook credited Husker seniors Cepero, Holmquist, Pilakowski and Lindsay Wischmeier for much of Nebraska's success.

Building the Badgers

Cook, who served as an assistant under Pettit for three seasons from 1988 to 1991, took over the Nebraska head coaching job after serving as associate head coach during the 1999 season. Before returning to Nebraska in 1999, Cook led Wisconsin to six straight postseason appearances in seven seasons as the Badgers' head coach.

John Cook has led Nebraska to Big 12 titles in three of his four years as head coach.

Cook's accomplishments at Wisconsin earned him praise as one of the game's top young coaches. Cook built the Badgers into a top-10 program during his seven-year career in Madison, which included back-to-back trips to the NCAA regional finals in 1997 and 1998.

In his final match at Wisconsin, Cook's Badgers fell to the Huskers in a three-hour, five-game battle in the 1998 Pacific Regional Championship in the Nebraska Coliseum. Wisconsin ended the season ranked seventh in the final USA Today/AVCA Coaches Poll after compiling a 30-5 overall record.

Cook, 46, compiled a 161-73 record at the helm of the Badgers, including an 89-51 league mark in one of the nation's toughest conferences. He was named the Big Ten Co-Coach and AVCA District 2 Coach of the Year in 1997 after leading the Badgers to a share of the Big Ten title with a 19-1 mark and school-best 30-3 overall record.

In his seven years as head coach, the Badgers advanced to six straight postseason tournaments, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament in 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997 and 1998. In 1995, Wisconsin won the National Invitational Volleyball Championship with a perfect 6-0 record.

During his tenure at UW, he coached four All-Americans, nine AVCA All-District award winners, 11 All-Big Ten honorees and two Big Ten Freshmen of the Year. He also coached 21 academic All-Big 10 selections during his seven seasons.

Other Coaching Experiences

Cook also brings Olympic and championship experience to the Husker staff. As the first assistant coach with the U.S. Men's National Volleyball team, Cook aided the United States to a bronze medal in the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. The team's defensive coordinator, he was also in charge of scouting and supervising the team's flexibility, strength and conditioning programs.

For his Olympic coaching experience, Cook was honored in June of 1993 at the NACDA/USOC Collegiate Coaches Recognition Awards Luncheon.

In the summer of 2004, Cook served as head coach of the Women's National Volleyball Training Team, guiding his squad to the title in the Women's Open Division of the USA Volleyball Adult Open Championships in Atlanta, Ga. He will continue his service to the U.S. National program next summer, coaching the United States in the World University Games in Izmir, Turkey.

During his first tenure at Nebraska (1989-91), the Huskers advanced to the NCAA semifinals two of the three seasons, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Nebraska also went 36-0 in conference play, capturing three Big Eight Conference championships each of those three seasons. During that time, he served as Pettit's recruiting coordinator, chief scout and strength and conditioning coordinator. Cook was also the liaison with the academic advising center.

In the U.S. Olympic Festival competition,

Cook served as head coach of the bronze medal-winning North team in 1989 and was an assistant coach with the third-place West team in 1987.

A co-founder of the San Diego Volleyball Club, Cook served as a coach with the club from 1986 to 1988. The club won two Southern California Regional Championships and finished among the final four teams twice in the USVBA Junior Olympics for girls 18 and under.

Cook also served as the head assistant coach at the University of California-San Diego from 1983 to 1984, where he aided the Tritons to an NCAA Division III national championship in 1984 and a second-place national finish in 1983. Cook's coaching credentials include leading Francis Park High School in San Diego to two California state championships. During his six-year coaching stint from 1981 to 1988, he had a .900 winning percentage with an overall record of 162-18, including a 90-match winning streak.

A well-known speaker on volleyball skills, Cook travels around the nation participating in clinics. During his stay at Wisconsin, he served as the host of the Badger Coaching Symposium every spring.

A graduate of the University of San Diego, Cook earned his bachelor's degree in history in 1979. He completed his master's degree in teaching and coaching effectiveness from San Diego State in 1991.

Cook and his wife Wendy, a former two-time All-America setter at San Diego State, are the parents of two children, Lauren, 13, and Taylor, 10.

Q&A WITH COACH JOHN COOK

Q: What do you enjoy most about coaching at Nebraska?

A: I get the opportunity to work with exceptional athletes and exceptional people every day. I have a wonderful staff to work with in Craig, Charlene and Tina, and the four of us are surrounded by an excellent support staff.

The second thing is that our fans are as passionate as you will find anywhere in the country. Nebraska volleyball really means something to this community and to the young girls across this state. Players have an opportunity to be role models, and to have an impact on people's lives.

Q: What is your coaching philosophy?

A: There are four things that come to mind. No. 1, I see myself as a teacher. It was always my dream to be a teacher, and coaching is teaching. No. 2, next to my family and my faith, the people involved with Nebraska volleyball are the most important thing in my life.

Third, at Nebraska, we like to recruit great athletes. Then we will figure out what those athletes are the most exceptional at and design our system to best take advantage of those qualities. How can we make each athlete the best volleyball player they can be? That's the question we try to answer.

And finally, our players are committed to academic excellence and becoming complete student-athletes.

Q: What do you look for in a recruit?

A: Academically we have a tradition of great student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, the program attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students. Overall, we're looking for good citizens. I've never seen a Nebraska volleyball player treat the opponent or their teammates without respect.

Q: When you are recruiting a potential student-athlete, what are Nebraska's selling points?

A: I think the best thing for a recruit to do is see our team play. We play at a high level, but what may be most important, is how we play. It's a very exciting brand of volleyball based on great athletes moving very quickly and transitioning very fast. We've always had a reputation of taking great athletes and training them to become exceptional volleyball players.

We have a great academic tradition with our academic support staff and the Hewitt Center. We lead the nation in academic

All-America honors and the majority of our players go on to graduate school.

I think another important factor is the exposure our program receives. Our goal is to be on the cutting edge. We are the only program in the country that has its own radio network with a flagship station that is one of the strongest in the state, a state-wide weekly television program and all of our matches shown live on the internet.

Our school's rich volleyball tradition over the years also plays an important role in recruiting. In many cases, people know they were meant to be here.

Q: How important is the Nebraska Coliseum to Husker volleyball?

A: I have coached at Nebraska in some capacity for nine seasons, and time and time again, I've seen the Coliseum will the Huskers to wins in close matches. I don't know if it's the ghosts or spirits of the building, or maybe just the intense energy of the fans, but playing in the Coliseum has become pivotal to our success.

It's exciting for the players to know that no matter who the opponent may be, the Huskers will play in front of a sold out crowd. We annually rank among the national attendance leaders and have 41 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum. Our fans give us an unmatched home court advantage.

Q: Why is this coaching staff among the elite staffs in the country?

A: One of the most important points to make is that we have had winning experiences. Between Craig and myself, we've made seven Final Four appearances. Charlene competed on the U.S. National Team in the Olympics and had many successes as their starting setter.

I also think that as a whole, we are a young, enthusiastic, energetic staff that never stops trying to challenge and motivate the players to become the best they can be.

Individually, Craig does an outstanding job coordinating our blocking and defense. He has to be considered one of the elite trainers in the country and has coached five All-Americans over the last four years. Charlene has been a wonderful addition to our staff. She is one of the best setters this country has ever produced.

Q: In your first four seasons, the Huskers have posted a 124-9 record and have advanced to the NCAA semifinals twice. What have been the keys to your success?

A: There are so many different things that have factored into our success over the past few seasons, but I guess I would point to four things. No. 1, we've had players who have been committed to Nebraska volleyball, were disciplined, worked hard, and trusted the coaches and each other.

No. 2, the staff has been able to maintain a great chemistry and balance in running this team.

The third thing is our fans. We have honestly had our fans will us to win a handful of matches over the past four seasons that have allowed us to play for national championships. These teams have been fun to watch, and our fans have responded.

The fourth factor is the Nebraska athletic department administration. Their support has been remarkable, and for that I am very thankful. Our athletic director, Steve Pederson, is very excited about the Nebraska athletic department and the future of Husker volleyball.

John Cook earned AVCA National Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the first undefeated season in school history.

CRAIG SKINNER

Head Assistant Coach | Fifth Year | Ball State University (1993)

Entering his fifth season at Nebraska, Craig Skinner has built a reputation as one of the top assistant coaches in the country.

Skinner's impact on the Huskers' success during the past four seasons is most evident in the accomplishments of NU's middle blockers, whom he has the responsibility of training and teaching. Three Nebraska middle blockers have combined for five AVCA All-America awards during Skinner's tenure, including Melissa Elmer (2003, second team), Amber Holmquist (2001 and 2002 first team, 2000 second team) and Jenny Kropp (2001, second team).

The Huskers have led the nation in blocks per game in three of the past four seasons. They averaged 4.15 in 2000, when Holmquist led the nation with 1.98 per game, and a school-record 4.18 in 2001, when Holmquist ranked second (1.81) and Jenny Kropp was third (1.73) nationally.

In 2002, the Huskers produced a national-best 3.79 blocks-per-game average. Under Skinner's direction, Holmquist ranked second in the country with 2.01 blocks per game.

In 2003, despite losing two of their top three blockers from the previous year, the Huskers finished sixth in the country with 3.17 blocks per game. Elmer ranked sixth nationally in blocks per game (1.59) with the help of Skinner, who was promoted to head assistant coach in 2003.

"Craig continues to set a new standard for training middle blockers, and I believe he is the best teacher for that position in the country," NU head coach John Cook said. "He has gained a great deal of respect nationally after helping our middle blockers produce five All-America awards in the last four years. I don't think there is another program out there that comes close to that."

A dynamic recruiter, Skinner coordinates all of the Huskers' recruiting efforts. He also serves as the director of Nebraska's prestigious summer camps.

Before Nebraska

Skinner, 34, is a native of Muncie, Ind. He teamed with Cook at Wisconsin from 1994 to 1996, aiding the Badgers to a 68-35 record and three postseason appearances, including the 1996 NCAA regional semifinals.

Before arriving at Nebraska, Skinner, a graduate of Ball State, helped lead his alma mater's men's team to wins over three nationally ranked teams and an 8-4 record at midseason before leaving for Nebraska. BSU finished the season ranked 13th in the USA Today/AVCA Top 25.

Skinner joined the staff of Asics Munciana Volleyball Club in 1990. The highlight of his four-year stint came in 1992, when he helped guide the 18-and-under squad to a U.S. Volleyball Association national runner-up finish. Skinner's coaching resume also includes working with the U.S. Junior Men's National Team.

Playing Experience

A 1993 graduate of Ball State, Skinner was an outside attacker for the Cardinals from 1990 to 1993, helping BSU to a 28-11 record and a third-place finish at the 1990 NCAA Championships. The 1990 squad tied for first in the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association before winning the league tournament to advance to the national tournament. He was a team captain his final two seasons.

A two-time recipient of the Mid-American Conference Commissioner's Award for Academic Excellence, Skinner ended his career with 414 digs, which ranked 13th in Ball State history at the time. He also ranked 13th with 54 career service aces, while his average of 2.14 kills per game is 16th on the school's all-time list.

Skinner married Nebraska assistant soccer coach Megan Skinner (formerly Bechtold) on May 18, 2002. They have one daughter, Sophie Jane, who was born in November of 2003.

CHARLENE TAGALOA

Assistant Coach | Second Year | Brigham Young University (1999)

Charlene Tagaloa begins her second season as an assistant coach with the Nebraska program. A former U.S. National Team setter, Tagaloa (pronounced shar-LEEN Ton-ga-LOE-uh) coaches the Husker setters and provides a supportive role in recruiting. Her additional duties include serving as the team video coordinator and as a liaison for academics and community involvement. She also assists with summer camps.

In 2003, her first year at Nebraska, Tagaloa was essential to the development of two young setters in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. With the help of Tagaloa, freshman Dani Busboom and sophomore Michelle Lynch led NU to a .249 hitting percentage, which ranked fourth in the Big 12 Conference.

"Charlene is one of the best setters this country has ever produced," NU Coach John Cook said. "She understands what it takes to make it to the top of her sport, and she has worked with USA Volleyball's future setters. Charlene is a great role model for our players who have their own Olympic dreams."

Tagaloa remains heavily involved with USA Volleyball, serving as a coach for the High Performance Camps in each of the past two years. In 2002, she was elected to the USA Volleyball Board of Directors to serve a three-year term as an international female player representative.

Before Nebraska

Tagaloa previously served one season as an assistant coach with the U.S. Junior National Team, helping to guide the squad to a silver medal at the 2002 NORCECA Women's Continental Championship. Tagaloa's other previous coaching experiences include a stint as BYU's undergraduate assistant coach in 1995. She also runs Tagaloa's Setting/All Skills Clinics with her husband.

Playing Experience

Tagaloa made a Nebraska connection during her time with the U.S. National Team when she competed alongside former U.S. National Team captain Allison Weston (1992-95). Tagaloa and Weston were roommates during the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

A member of the U.S. National Team from 1997 to 2001, she was the starting setter for the squad from January of 1999 to August of 2000. In her first season directing the U.S. National Team's offense, Tagaloa earned the best setter award at the 1999 NORCECA Championships after leading her team to a second-place finish. She also guided the squad to a bronze medal at the 1999 Pan American Games. In 2000, Tagaloa helped Team USA qualify for the Sydney Olympics as the starting setter at the NIKE Americas Volleyball Challenge. She also earned the best setter award at the four-team event.

However, Tagaloa sprained her wrist during a tour of Germany just prior to leaving for the Grand Prix, Team USA's final tune-up before the Olympics, and was relegated to a supporting role in Sydney.

Tagaloa has played professionally overseas, competing in Italy for Barrese Volley Napoli and in Switzerland for Adliswil. She also competed professionally in Salt Lake City in the National Volleyball Association (1994-95) and the Professional Volleyball League (1995-96).

Before her international career, Tagaloa played collegiately at Brigham Young from 1991 to 1994. A two-time AVCA All-American, Tagaloa guided BYU to the school's first-ever NCAA semifinal appearance in 1994 after earning Western Athletic Conference Player-of-the-Year honors. During her four-year career at Brigham Young, the Cougars produced three WAC championships and a 109-16 record. Tagaloa, the 1991 WAC Freshman of the Year, ended her career as the Cougars' all-time assist leader with 5,321. A native of Phoenix, Ariz., Tagaloa attended Clark High School in Las Vegas, Nev., where she was named a Volleyball Magazine Feb 50 recruit and a Mizuno First-Team Prep All-American.

Tagaloa earned a bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation from Brigham Young in 1999. The former Charlene Johnson, Tagaloa is married to Ropeti (Inga) Saofaiga Tagaloa. They have three children, an 11-year-old son Kaipō (Fresh) and two daughters, VaiLin-Gabby, 2 and Sydney, who was born in April of 2004.

TINA WESTERHOLD

Director of Operations | First Year

Tina Westerhold is in her first year as Director of Operations for the Husker volleyball program. Westerhold was hired in January of 2003 to replace Diane Mendenhall, who was named NU's Associate Director of Athletic Development on Dec. 18 after spending four years in the volleyball office.

Westerhold, who had spent the previous two years working as an academic counselor at Nebraska, handles a variety of duties for the Husker volleyball team, including team travel, budgeting, coordinating tournaments and camps and assisting visiting teams. She also serves as a liaison for volleyball support units, including facilities and events, sports information, marketing, compliance, HuskerVision, the ticket office, alumni and The Match Club.

Westerhold served briefly as an NU assistant academic counselor during the summer of 2001 before returning to Lincoln in May of 2002. She was promoted to interim academic counselor in August of 2003, serving as the counselor for men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis, women's basketball and swimming and diving.

Before arriving at Nebraska, Westerhold worked in games and event management at Wisconsin-La Crosse, where she oversaw home event operations, including marketing and promotions, and was the event manager for the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference softball championship. Westerhold previously worked as an intern for the Lincoln Lightning and was an intern in the Nebraska Wesleyan sports information office.

While at Nebraska Wesleyan, Westerhold was a four-year letterwinner for the Prairie Wolves' volleyball team. She was a first-team All-NIAC selection in 1997 and 1998 and was a second-team pick in 1999. A standout in the classroom, Westerhold received the scholar-athlete award for volleyball in 1999 and 2000, and was a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa health and human performance honorary at Wesleyan.

A native of Pender, Neb., Westerhold graduated with high distinction from Nebraska Wesleyan in May of 2000 with a degree in sports management. She received a master of exercise and sport science with an emphasis in sports administration from Wisconsin-La Crosse in May of 2002.

LAURA PILAKOWSKI

Volleyball Strength Coach | First Year

Laura Pilakowski is in her first year as the strength coach for the volleyball team and her second year as a member of the Nebraska Athletic Department staff. She also serves as the strength coach for the Husker soccer and softball programs.

A two-time AVCA All-American, Pilakowski helped Nebraska to four Big 12 titles and the 2000 NCAA crown during her Husker career from 1999 to 2002. She finished her collegiate career ranked in Nebraska's top-10 list in kills, attacks and hitting percentage, as her .318 mark was the highest ever by an outside hitter. A three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection, she shared conference player-of-the-year honors as a senior in 2002. Pilakowski also excelled in the weight room, where she was a two-time Husker Power Volleyball Lifter of the Year and the 2001 Husker Power Female Athlete of the Year.

In the classroom, she was a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and earned an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship in 2002. She was Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year in 2002-03 and the Big 12 Sportswoman of the Year in 2003 for her athletic and academic success and her extensive involvement in the community.

A native of Columbus, Neb., Pilakowski graduated with highest distinction from Nebraska in December of 2003, earning a bachelor's degree in marketing.

JOLENE EMRICSON

Volleyball Athletic Trainer | Third Year

Jolene Emricson is in her third season as the athletic trainer for the Nebraska volleyball team.

Before arriving in Lincoln, Emricson spent one year as the men's lacrosse athletic trainer at the University of Denver. Emricson, who is from Colorado Springs, Colo., earned a bachelor of arts degree from the Metropolitan State College of Denver in human performance and sport with a concentration in athletic training. She received her master's degree in education from the University of Nebraska in May of 2004.

MICHELLE GLOVER

HuskerVision Production Coordinator | Fifth Year

Michelle Glover enters her fifth year as a video production specialist, and sixth on the HuskerVision staff.

She works directly with the nationally prominent volleyball team, and she produces and hosts John Cook's weekly state-wide television show. Glover also serves as the producer of the HuskerVision screens at Memorial Stadium on gamedays and on the Bill Callahan Show. She also directs the HuskerVision screens for men's basketball games.

Glover, a native of Neosho, Mo., came to NU after nearly four years as a director at KOLN/KGIN-TV and three years at KTVO-TV in Kirksville, Mo.

She earned her bachelor's degree from Truman State. Glover and her husband, Jason, have a 3-year-old son, Gage.

SHAMUS MCKNIGHT

Assistant Sports Information Director | Eighth Year

Shamus McKnight is in his first year working with the Husker volleyball program and eighth year with the Nebraska Athletic Department. McKnight, who has been a member of the NU Athletic Department staff since 1997, handles all media relations for Nebraska's baseball and volleyball programs.

At Nebraska, he has been responsible for five media guides that have earned "Best in the Nation" Awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), while also serving as the content manager for the athletic department website, Huskers.com, for five years.

McKnight served as the NU sports information office intern for two years (1997-99) and handled media relations for men's and women's gymnastics and assisted with football duties. A 1996 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, he also served stints at Central Connecticut State University and the U.S. Senior Golf Open.

KEITH ZIMMER

Assistant A.D. for Student Life | 14th Year

Keith Zimmer is in his first year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life and has been with the athletic department since 1988. Before being promoted to the position in April of 2004, Zimmer most recently served as the associate director of academic programs and director of life skills.

Zimmer directs the career counseling program for student-athletes and community outreach program. He is in charge of academic awards for student-athletes and contributes to the development of academic-related videos, brochures and newsletters.

Regarded as a national leader in the Life Skills area, Zimmer was selected as a trainer for the NCAA Life Skills program in 1997. In 1998-99, Nebraska's Life Skills program received the prestigious Program of Excellence Award. Zimmer also helps facilitate "Husker CHOICES," the NCAA Choices Alcohol Education program.

Zimmer serves as the sport counselor for softball, soccer and volleyball and assists the director with football. He also oversees the athletic department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Zimmer is a board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports and is a two-time recipient of the Award of Excellence for his leadership and commitment to the Lincoln Public Schools and Ventures in Partnership program. With assistance from the Lincoln Public Schools Special Education Department and Golden Key National Honor Society, Zimmer directed the "School is Cool" Jam, which reached more than 100,000 elementary students in its 10-year existence. He is an honorary member of the Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar Board and has received the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree from Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College. Zimmer and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Logan, 5, and Caden, 1.

N STEVE PEDERSON

Athletic Director | Second Year

TRADITION, TEAMWORK, INTEGRITY.

These are the principals of the Husker Nation, and these are the ideals that Nebraska native Steve Pederson brought to the University of Nebraska when he was named his alma mater's 12th Athletic Director on Dec. 20, 2002.

An award-winning athletic director with administrative experience at four Division I schools, each featuring prominent athletic programs, Pederson has built a nationally known reputation for his ability to quickly and efficiently implement his vision for the future.

A tireless worker, Pederson's vision includes three vital components to success; a staff that will outwork the competition; enhancing facilities in order to attract the nation's best; and a unified approach that enables student-athletes to succeed in all facets of life.

In short, whether in Lincoln, Pittsburgh, Pa., Knoxville, Tenn., or Columbus, Ohio, Pederson has always done things the Nebraska Way. Whether he is luring a Super Bowl coach to Lincoln, or building the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, Pederson goes about his work with a passion, setting high expectations not only for himself, but for those who represent the University of Nebraska.

"Every day our coaches, staff, and student-athletes will operate with the three established Nebraska principals in mind," Pederson said. "We will strive for the success that our TRADITION has established; we will maximize TEAMWORK on every level to establish our goals; and we will operate with utmost INTEGRITY."

Since Pederson was named athletic director, he has not only been relentless in his pursuit to keep Nebraska at the pinnacle of college athletics, but also to remain true to the core values that make Nebraska such a special place.

While Nebraska's championship tradition has been built by outstanding student-athletes and coaches over the years, Pederson believes that the foundation of Nebraska's success is its fans – not only the 1.7 million people who call the state home, but also the fans who support the Big Red from around the nation. Over the last 18 months, Pederson has worked hard to integrate Husker fans into the NU athletic program.

He declared the 2003-04 season as the "Year of the Fan" and conceptualized the first Husker Nation Tour, where football coaches, players and staff blanketed the state. The event was an instant success, and was expanded from 15 to 26 cities in its second year. Pederson developed the Husker Nation Pavilion for football fans to enjoy a family-friendly, fan-fest atmosphere before home football games. He also worked to keep ticket prices down, as tickets have increased just $1.25 over the past two seasons, ranking sixth among Big 12 schools. Pederson also made single-game football tickets available in an on-line pool, allowing more than 7,000 fans an opportunity to see a Husker home football game.

Another hallmark of Husker athletics is the innovation to stay one step ahead of the competition. From creating the first comprehensive strength program to its nationally renowned academic support system, NU has always been at the forefront in providing unmatched resources for its student-athletes. Throughout his time at both Pittsburgh and at NU, Pederson has shown the foresight and vision needed to ensure long-term success for athletic programs.

In November of 2003, Pederson announced the Husker Nation Championship Drive, a $50 million project that features the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex. The state-of-the-art building will house athletic medicine, weight room and locker room facilities along with football and administrative offices. The comprehensive project, which began construction earlier this spring, also includes a new indoor facility and practice fields that will benefit each of Nebraska's 23 programs, along with an additional 6,460 seats for Memorial Stadium, pushing capacity to 80,000. When completed in 2006, the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will feature the most innovative facilities in the country. The Performance Center will have everything a student-athlete will need to obtain optimal performance – all on one level.

Pederson understands that first-class facilities play only a part in creating a successful environment. His philosophy for running a successful athletic department comes from an unyielding belief that members of a group will enjoy their greatest success when they are working toward a common purpose and goal. For Nebraska, that means the success of the student-athlete is paramount – whether in the arena, the classroom or the workplace after graduation.

"What really matters most is the emotional support and commitment from Steve, everyone with the athletic department whose involved with our program and from the Husker Nation," Nebraska Volleyball Coach John Cook said. "That support outweighs contracts, salary and everything else."

Nebraska athletes enjoyed their share of accolades during the 2003-04 season. Thirteen of the University's 23 sports earned top-25 national finishes at the NCAA Championships or in the national polls. The Huskers led the Big 12 with 146 academic all-conference selections and 547 student athletes on the conference academic honor roll. The men's and women's track and field teams combined to win three Big 12 Conference titles, while the softball team added a sweep of both the regular season and tournament titles. The Husker bowling team brought home the first-ever NCAA title in the sport, while the women's indoor and outdoor track and field and the wrestling team each added top-five finishes at the NCAA Championships. In the classroom, nine Huskers earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, raising Nebraska's NCAA-leading total to 217.

In order to assist student-athletes with their postgraduation pursuits, Pederson worked with Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life Keith Zimmer to enhance Nebraska's nationally recognized Life Skills program. They created the Life Skills Award for the team that demonstrated the strongest commitment to all phases of the life skills program, including outreach, education and leadership.

According to Pederson, one crucial area in building an athletic department is to have coaches who not only possess strong leadership skills and the vision to run a program, but also the integrity to follow Big 12 and NCAA rules.

"The first thing that catches your eye with Steve Pederson is his professional touch, but the lasting impression is his personal touch, and the relationships he develops with coaches and staff," Baseball Coach Mike Anderson said. "He's created a great environment for success at the University of Nebraska for all of our athletic programs."

In January of 2004, Pederson made a bold step to return Nebraska to the nation's elite when he hired Bill Callahan to guide the Husker football program. Recognized nationally as one of the brightest minds in football, Callahan came from the NFL's Oakland Raiders, where he led the franchise to an AFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII in his first season as head coach. Callahan's imprint on the Husker program has been evident, as a school-record crowd of 61,417 witnessed the debut of the West Coast Offense during the spring game.

"I am confident in the direction that Steve is leading us," Callahan said. "Steve has great vision, leadership and passion for this University. That is one of the many things that attracted me to this position, and I look forward to working with him in the years ahead."

A firm believer in the philosophy that hard work pays off, Pederson was given his first chance at leading a Division I program when he was selected as athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh in 1996. A young and relatively unknown commodity, in just six years, Pederson put the Panthers back on the map.

Pederson is credited with turning around the University of Pittsburgh athletic program and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette dubbed Pittsburgh "Comeback U." As a result of his hard work and contagious leadership style, Pederson was named the recipient of the 2002 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award, annually presented by the All-American Football Foundation for outstanding administrative achievement.

In addition to establishing a contagious winning attitude, he helped construct several new facilities at Pittsburgh. Pederson helped shape the vision of the Petersen Events Center, a state-of-the-art convocation center that provided Pittsburgh with one of the finest college basketball arenas in the country as well as new recreational facilities for students. Because of Pederson's efforts, the Panther football team was blessed with the Durtz Athletic Complex and UPMC Sports Performance Complex, a practice venue that opened in 2000. In 2001, the Panthers debuted Heinz Field, a new facility the football team shares with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Additionally, Pederson oversaw a major renovation of Fitzgerald Field House, giving Pittsburgh's Olympic sports programs updated locker and training facilities. Trees Field also underwent major upgrades to assist the Panthers' baseball and softball programs and a new softball field made its debut in 2003.

While Pittsburgh's athletic infrastructure grew stronger under Pederson, so too did his staff. During his tenure at Pittsburgh, he hired five coaches who earned Big East Coach-of-the-Year honors in five sports: Walt Harris (football); Ben Howland (men's basketball); Traci Waites (women's basketball); Chris Beerman (volleyball) and Joe Jordano (baseball).

Pederson's administrative philosophy is to surround himself with good people.

"The thing I am most proud of is that I hire great people and let them do their jobs. That is the only thing I would ever take credit for."

Harris led the football team to three straight bowl appearances, including two victories, while Howland led the men's basketball team to back-to-back Sweet 16 berths. Swimming and diving continued its Big East dominance. Baseball won 36 games, the program's most victories in nearly a decade and other programs made strides up the competitive ladder.

Pederson's efforts always have the interests of the student-athletes in mind. He has implemented support programs aimed at a student-athlete's academic, athletic, personal and professional development.

At Nebraska, Pederson helped negotiate the first football contract with adidas in 1995. In 2001, he negotiated a comprehensive apparel partnership for Pittsburgh with Aeropostale.

Additionally, Pederson knows what it takes to be successful in the competitive athletic marketing realm. At Pittsburgh, he enlisted the talents of Peter Moore, one of the world's top figures in sports marketing and image, to create the Pittsburgh Panther logo and color schemes. He is also responsible for creating the Husker Nation logo and theme to commemorate the Year of the Fan.

If it seems that Pederson has a passion for the Huskers, he does. In fact, although Pederson lived outside the state for 13 years while gaining valuable experience at three major Division I institutions, Pederson said his love of Nebraska has never wavered.

"There are a few very special places in the world of college athletics. The University of Nebraska is at the top of that list. Nebraskans want and expect to be the very best."

Pederson and his wife Tami, both earned degrees from the University of Nebraska. Steve earned his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in business administration in 1980 and began his career at Nebraska, first as a sports information assistant (1980-81) and then as football recruiting coordinator (1982 to 1986). He later returned as the associate athletic director for football operations (1994 to 1996).

As the Husker Associate A.D. for football, Pederson oversaw the refurbishment of the football administrative offices, and construction of a new halftime meeting room, postgame interview room and players and coaches locker rooms. He reorganized the program's administrative wing and played a definitive role in Nebraska's three national championships in the 1990s (1994, 1995 and 1997) under Head Coach Tom Osborne.

Pederson left the state of Nebraska in 1988 to serve as Ohio State's recruiting coordinator until 1991, then moved on to the University of Tennessee to devote three years as the athletic administrator for football from 1991 to 1994. In his three seasons at Tennessee, the Volunteers' recruiting classes were regarded among the nation's top three nationally by several publications. He was promoted from recruiting coordinator to assistant athletic director for recruiting in 1992, and then was elevated to associate athletic director for football operations in 1993.

Pederson has been active on several committees. He is currently a member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame District Screening Committee.

A native of North Platte, Neb., Pederson has experience in the non-athletic business sector, spending one year as Ak-Sar-Ben's Public Relations Director (1981-82), and two years in private business in Nebraska (1986 to 1988), before returning to college football in 1988 at Ohio State.

Pederson and his wife Tami Osborne have three children: Mark (21), Kari (18) and Kristin (15). Tami earned a bachelor's of music education degree and a master's of music degree from the University of Nebraska. She is a violinist with the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra and teaches violin at Nebraska Wesleyan University. She has performed with professional orchestras and string quartets in Nebraska, Ohio, Tennessee and Pennsylvania and has taught at Capital University and the University of Tennessee. She was the founder and director of the Fox Chapel Suzuki Violinists.

MARC BOEHM

Executive Associate A.D. | Second Year

Marc Boehm (pronounced BAME) is in his second year with the Nebraska athletic department after being hired in May of 2003 to serve as Executive Associate Athletic Director. Boehm serves as the top assistant to the athletic director and fulfills the director's responsibilities in his absence.

Boehm has administrative oversight of the Husker men's and women's basketball programs and oversees the efforts of the development, athletic medicine and ticket offices. He also provides guidance to HuskerVision and NU's internet presence, Huskers.com, and assists the athletic director on special projects, including television and radio contracts.

In his role as primary administrator for the basketball programs, Boehm has worked tirelessly to create a fan-friendly atmosphere at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. From adding court-side seats to bring fans closer to the action to developing affordable season-ticket packages, he has been instrumental in making the Devaney Center one of the best home-court atmospheres in the Big 12 Conference. The men's and women's basketball programs enjoyed success during the 2003-04 campaign, as both Husker teams qualified for postseason play in the same year for the first time since the 1999 season. Coach Barry Collier and the men's program closed the season with five consecutive crowds of over 10,000, including an NIT home game against Niagara in the program's first postseason appearance in five years. Under women's coach Connie Yori, attendance at women's basketball grew nearly 20 percent from the previous season, as NU enjoyed one of the nation's top turnarounds against a schedule that featured 19 postseason teams.

Boehm's efforts to enhance the gameday atmosphere were not restricted to the basketball programs. He was instrumental in the concept and development of the Husker Nation Pavilion, which quickly became the premier pregame event around home football games. The area, which is free to the public, includes a video board, interactive games, autograph sessions with current and former athletes, musical bands and vendors and served as the location for the Pinnacle Sports Network pregame show, giving fans a family-friendly venue.

Boehm also took the lead role in obtaining First National Bank as a premier sponsor for the Nebraska Athletic Department for nearly $3 million over a three-year period. First National Bank joins ALLTEL, Pepsi and adidas as premier corporate sponsors for Husker athletics.

The 42-year old Boehm held the same position under Steve Pederson at Pittsburgh from 1997 to 2003. With the Panthers, Boehm assisted in the rise of the basketball program, with the men's team posting back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Boehm also played a central role in the development of the Panthers' new athletic facilities. He was a principal planner for the football team's move into the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and Heinz Field, and played a key role in various aspects of the Petersen Events Center, the university's new basketball arena.

Boehm served as interim athletic director at Pittsburgh for nearly five months before coming to Nebraska. During that time, he hired new men's (Jamie Dixon) and women's basketball (Agnus Berenato) and soccer (Sue-Moy Chin) head coaches for the Panther program. Under Dixon's direction, the Panthers won a school-record 31 games in his first season and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third consecutive season.

Boehm spent five years as associate executive director of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he was instrumental in building community and marketing programs. He helped pioneer the Fiesta Bowl's move into what eventually evolved into the Bowl Championship Series and worked with the collegiate community in the operation of the game and its 40 other community events. In addition, Boehm directed and managed a 125-member fund-raising committee of Arizona business leaders that was responsible for generating more than $4.5 million in cash and in-kind partnerships.

Before joining the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl staff, Boehm spent four years as associate executive director and public relations director of the Sun Bowl from 1987 to 1991. He went to the Sun Bowl after one year as a sports information intern at the University of Florida.

Born in Grand Island, Boehm earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Kansas State University in 1984 and added a master's degree in sports management from St. Thomas (Fla.) University in 1985. Married to Janelle Broderick of Minot, N.D., the couple has three boys, Broderick (12), Christian (10) and Lukas John (4).

DR. BARBARA HIBNER

Associate A.D./SWA | 27th Year

Beginning her 27th year at Nebraska, Dr. Barbara A. Hibner serves as associate athletic director and senior woman administrator.

In addition to her responsibilities with compliance for the entire athletic program, Hibner has also coordinated and directed special events, including conference and NCAA events in basketball, gymnastics, softball, volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving and men's and women's tennis. Most recently, she served as the tournament director for the 2004 NCAA softball regional at Bowlin Stadium in Lincoln.

Hibner supervises the publication of the student-athlete handbook and was the senior editor of the letterwinners directory, "107 Years of Letterwinners at Nebraska," in 1997. Hibner was also the driving force in the creation of the University of Nebraska's mascot, "Lil' Red," in 1994.

Hibner was an active member of the NCAA Committee on Athletics Certification and served a five-year term as a peer reviewer. She also completed service as chairwoman of the Big 12 Conference Board of Senior Woman Administrators in September of 1999, and currently is a member of the Big 12's Administrative and Television Committees.

Hibner was selected to receive the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award from the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2003. She was chosen as the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators District VII Administrator of the Year in 1997. The National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women named Hibner the 1998-99 Region Three Administrator of the Year. Hibner, who received the YWCA Tribute to Women award in 1994, was honored in 2000 with the Nebraska Athletic Department's first Trailblazer Award.

Hibner joined the NU staff in 1978 as the assistant women's athletic director with responsibility for day-to-day operations, compliance and development of the first staff policy and procedures manual for the women's athletic department. She became the women's athletic director in 1985. Her position changed from women's athletic director to associate athletic director and senior woman administrator in 1994.

Hibner is a supporter of the progress and advancement of women's athletics at Nebraska and throughout the nation. In the past nine years, soccer (1994), bowling (1997) and rifle (1998) have been added, making Nebraska the Big 12 leader with 13 athletic programs providing women 117 scholarship opportunities. She established events in Lincoln for women's gymnastics, basketball and volleyball. Hibner was responsible for the partnership between the women's athletic department and DARE in 1989 that encouraged student-athlete involvement in community service projects. She received a lifetime achievement award from the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office in May of 2004.

A native of Gettysburg, Pa., Hibner earned her bachelor of science degree from Penn State University in 1964. She continued her education at the State University of New York at Cortland, receiving her master of science degree in 1970. She earned a Ph.D. from Texas Woman's University in 1977.

Hibner came to Nebraska after serving as a successful teacher, coach and athletic administrator at both the high school and collegiate levels.

She is a member of the National Association for Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators. Hibner previously was a member of the National Association of Athletic Marketing and Development and the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators.

Hibner is also a member of the American Association of University Women, and the softball, women's basketball and volleyball coaches associations. She was also a member of the NCAA Women's Committee on Committees from 1989 to 1991. She was chairperson of the NCAA Division I Midwest Softball Advisory Committee and a member of the NCAA Division I Softball Committee from 1999 to 2003. She also served as director of the Women's College World Series in 1991.

Hibner also served on the Board of Directors of the University of Nebraska Federal Credit Union for six years, and is a past president of the University of Nebraska Association for Administrative Development.

HARVEY PERLMAN, J.D.

University of Nebraska Chancellor

Harvey Perlman was named the 19th Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on April 1, 2001. He had served as Interim Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since July 16, 2000.

A former dean of the University of Nebraska College of Law (1983-98), Perlman has also served as interim senior vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNL (1995-96).

Perlman, a Nebraska native, was raised in York, Neb., and earned a bachelor of arts in history and a juris doctorate from the University of Nebraska. During his law school years, he was editor in chief of the Nebraska Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, a law honors society.

He joined the NU law faculty in 1967 after spending a year as a Bigelow Teaching Fellow at the University of Chicago Law School. He served on the Nebraska law faculty until 1974 when he joined the faculty at the University of Virginia Law School. He returned to Nebraska in 1983 when he accepted the deanship of the Nebraska Law College, a post he held until 1998 when he returned to the professoriate. He has also served as a visiting professor at Florida State University College of Law, the University of Puget Sound School of Law and the University of Iowa College of Law.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska

State and American Bar Associations. He is a member of the Council of the American Law Institute. He is a commissioner of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. He is co-author of 'Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition' (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the 'Restatement of Unfair Competition' (1994). In February 2002, Perlman was named a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. Fellow status denotes an individual who has demonstrated outstanding dedication to the welfare of his or her community and is committed to the highest principles of the legal profession. Only the top one-third of one percent of the legal profession are eligible for nomination as a Fellow.

At the University of Nebraska, he was chair of the search advisory committee for chancellor in 1991, chairs the Nebraska Bioethics Advisory Panel, and is a member of the Nebraska State Fair Board and the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln. Amie, who graduated from UNL in May 2002, attends law school at Nebraska. He and Susan enjoy the company of two grandchildren, Will and Ava.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO, J.D.

University of Nebraska Faculty Representative

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative to the NCAA and Big 12 Conference since May 15, 1997.

Potuto was appointed in January 2003, to hold one of the Big 12 Conference's three seats on the NCAA Division I Management Council, the chief administrative and legislative body of Division I. She is in her sixth year as a member of the Division I Committee on Infractions (COI) and her second as committee vice chair. Potuto also serves on a committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association that reviews NCAA legislation and tracks the NCAA governance structure.

Among her Big 12 Conference committee responsibilities, Potuto served on the Big 12 Conference Commissioner Search Committee and on the conference strategic planning committee. She is the conference liaison to the Faculty Athletics Representatives Association (FARA), where she also served as the Division I representative on the executive committee. In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. Potuto is an expert on issues related to gender equity in collegiate sports. With regard to other current issues in sports, Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, and she also drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission.

At Nebraska, Potuto is an ex officio member of the academic senate's intercollegiate athletics committee and of the subcommittee to evaluate academic support services. She was vice chairwoman of the rules governance committee of Nebraska's NCAA site certification committee, and she chairs the athletic department's NCAA Legislation Committee.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books and numerous articles.

Potuto teaches constitutional, procedural and criminal law as well as a course in sports law. She joined the Nebraska law faculty as an assistant professor in 1974 and was named to the Larson professorship in 1988. Potuto has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. While on sabbatical during the 1983-84 academic year, Potuto was an assistant prosecutor in the Essex County (Newark, N.J.) prosecutor's office. She also spent five summers working in the prosecutor's office in Morris County, N.J.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall in 1971. She received her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College in 1974. She is a member of the bar of the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL CAMPS

Each summer, Nebraska conducts four different camps for young players ranging from the beginner to the high school level. Head Coach John Cook directs the campers, along with instruction from a staff of outstanding college and high school coaches from across the country and members of the Nebraska volleyball squad.

Team Camp

Team camp is a training and teaching camp for the athlete and coach. Each team should have a minimum of 10 players and may be accompanied by one coach with no charge. Each team will be provided with a camp staff coach or assistant, depending on your team's needs. Coaches, please contact the volleyball office to reserve a place for your team.

Individual Camps

The individual day camp is designed to teach players (eighth grade through graduated seniors) the fundamentals of power volleyball. The camp's goal is to meet the needs of each individual camper.

Setters Camp

Setters camp is designed to teach players the fundamentals of setting and is recommended for grades 8-12. This one-day camp covers all aspects of setting and will provide campers with many drills and exercises that they can take home. The camp caters to both beginning setters and the most experienced setters at the high school level.

Lil' Red Spikers Camp

This one-day camp emphasizes proper techniques in serving, passing, setting, attacking and movement. Campers will also be introduced to basic team systems that will help them prepare for scholastics teams and recreational programs. Campers must be entering the fourth grade.

Questions

Camp brochures are available Feb. 1, 2005. For a brochure, write to: Husker Volleyball Camp, PO Box 880146, 206 Coliseum, UNL, Lincoln, NE 68588-0146. Phone: (402) 472-2399. For more camp information and brochures, go to Huskers.com.

ALLY REBHOLZ

6-2 | Senior | Outside Hitter | Indianapolis, Ind. (Cathedral)

2004: Outlook

As the only senior on the 2004 roster, senior Ally Rebholz (pronounced REB-holz) is being counted on as one of the leaders for a talented, yet youthful Husker squad.

The 6-foot-2 outside hitter saw her most extensive action in 2003, appearing in 29 matches and ranking fourth on the team with 2.33 kills per game and third with 93 total blocks, as she split time with sophomore Kelsey Fautsch at the right outside hitter spot.

According to Coach John Cook, Rebholz was playing at an all-conference level before a shoulder injury slowed her down the stretch. The injury eventually required off-season surgery and forced Rebholz to miss the spring season. Rebholz enters the fall healthy and could contend for All-Big 12 accolades this season.

"We know she can play at a high level and make a major contribution for us," Cook said.

2003: Junior Season

Rebholz played in 29 of Nebraska's 33 matches, earning the starting nod 21 times while sharing time on the right side with Kelsey Fautsch in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. Rebholz finished fourth on the team with 2.33 kills per game, fifth with a .244 hitting percentage and third with 93 total blocks (0.92 per game).

Rebholz was often at her best in the Huskers' biggest matches. She had at least 10 kills eight times, and five of those were against ranked teams, including No. 17 Michigan State (10) Sept. 13, No. 10 Georgia Tech (11) Sept. 14, No. 12 Kansas State (12) Oct. 11, No. 12 Northern Iowa (12) Nov. 2 and No. 25 Missouri (10) Nov. 8. On Sept. 17, she posted a career-best 15 kills against Texas A&M, which ended the 2003 season in the AVCA Top 25.

Rebholz swung for at least a .300 hitting percentage in 12 matches and hit a career-best .615 (9-1-13) against Iowa State Sept. 24.

A gifted blocker, Rebholz opened the 2003 season with 22 blocks in 10 games at the Illinois State/Barker GMC Classic. She recorded a career-best 11 blocks (including three solo stops) against Illinois, before tallying 10 against Illinois State. Rebholz was the only player on the 2003 squad to produce back-to-back matches with 10 or more blocks.

2002: Sophomore Season

After playing in just 11 of NU's first 21 matches, Rebholz saw action in 10 of Nebraska's 12 contests in November and provided NU with a spark off the bench. Rebholz averaged 2.15 kills per game on a .510 hitting percentage with 1.08 blocks per game in November, up from her averages of 1.25 kills per game, a .081 hitting percentage and 0.56 blocks per game entering the month. She earned her first career start Nov. 23 at Baylor and responded with 10 kills (.529 hitting percentage) and five blocks, both season-best totals.

On the season, Rebholz averaged 1.55 kills per

Remember When ...

Rebholz showed her ability to be a dominant offensive player in the Huskers' five-game win over Texas A&M on Sept. 17, 2003. With Nebraska down two games to one, Rebholz and the Huskers took their offensive game to another level. In game four, A&M tied the score at 20 before Rebholz provided a key kill. The Huskers would never trail again in game four, winning 30-26.

NU went on to win game five, 15-9, with the help of early back-to-back kills from Rebholz. She finished the night with 15 kills on 36 attempts, which were both career-high marks.

game on a .236 hitting percentage to go along with 1.33 digs per game.

Against Iowa State Nov. 13, Rebholz recorded a then-career-high seven kills on a .583 hitting percentage. On Nov. 20 against Kansas, she served 11 straight points to give NU a commanding lead in game three.

Expected to compete for a spot in the starting lineup on either the left or the right side heading into the 2002 season, Rebholz battled nagging injuries and missed three weeks in September with a sprained left ankle. She returned to action Sept. 29 against Creighton and totaled a then-career-best six kills on a .500 hitting percentage while adding a season-high eight digs. Rebholz tied her season high with eight digs vs. Texas Tech Nov. 2, and posted the first solo block of her career against Tech.

2001: Freshman Season

Looking to develop a third left side hitter, Cook moved Rebholz from middle blocker to outside hitter and pulled her out of a potential redshirt season Sept. 26 against Iowa State. Rebholz played in 16 matches and 24 games, averaging 0.71 kills per game and 1.12 digs per game. She posted a season-best four kills and nine digs in two games at Oklahoma Nov. 14, and she recorded a season-high two service aces at Iowa State Nov. 24.

High School

A product of Indianapolis Cathedral High School, Rebholz was a two-time Indiana Metro Player of the Year, a two-time first-team all-state selection and a three-time Indianapolis Star First-Team All-City squad member. She was also named the Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year. Volleyball recruiting analyst Bill Feldman said that Rebholz "may be the best-skilled middle hitter and blocker in the country out of everyone in the class of 2001."

Rebholz played on two Indiana Class 4A state title teams in her four years at Cathedral. One of the top prep middle blockers in the country, she totaled 353 kills on a .484 hitting efficiency, 102 block assists and 53 solo blocks in leading Cathedral to a state runner-up finish in 2000. Rebholz, who earned most-valuable-player honors at the Mishiwaukee Tournament, was also named the MVP of the Cathedral varsity squad.

Rebholz trained with the USA Youth and Junior National Team for two years, spending some time competing alongside former Husker Anna Schrad. Rebholz played a starting role on the 2001 team that helped the squad finish third out of six at the World Championship Qualifier in Monterey, Mexico, in June 2001. During the summer of 2000, Rebholz competed at the NORCECA Championships in Cuba for the Junior National team, which finished runner-up to Cuba in the All-World Tournament in Salt Lake City. Rebholz's club team, Circle City, finished third at the 2001 USA Junior Olympics. Rebholz joined NU teammate Melissa Elmer on the all-tournament team.

Rebholz was a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Team at Cathedral for four years. She also served as the manager of the Cathedral girls' basketball team.

MELISSA ELMER

2004: Outlook

Junior Melissa Elmer continues Nebraska's tradition of excellence at the middle blocker position and will contend once again for conference and national honors in 2004.

As a sophomore, Elmer garnered second-team AVCA All-America honors and first-team All-Big 12 honors, leading the Big 12 with 1.59 blocks per game, a total that ranked sixth nationally. She totaled 169 block assists – the third-highest single-season total in school history – highlighted by a 15-block performance in a win at Kansas on Oct. 8. She spent part of the spring working with the U.S. National training team, helping the team win the USA Volleyball Adult Open Championships in May.

While Elmer's physical talents overwhelm many opponents, Coach John Cook believes her biggest strength is her mental approach to the sport and detecting tendencies in opposing middle hitters. Elmer has also made strides in becoming a better back row player, as she continues to polish her all-around game.

2003: Sophomore Season

Elmer earned second-team AVCA All-America honors and first-team All-Big 12 honors after producing the best numbers by a middle blocker in the conference. She led the Big 12 with 1.64 blocks per game and a .379 hitting percentage in conference matches.

Elmer finished the season averaging 3.09 kills per game on a .352 hitting percentage and a 1.59 blocks-per-game average, which ranked sixth nationally. She also totaled 36 service aces, which ranked second on the team.

In just her second season, Elmer began to emerge as one of the best blockers in school history. Her 169 block assists were the third-highest single-season total ever at NU. Elmer recorded seven or more blocks 11 times, including a career-best 15 blocks at Kansas on Oct. 8, the third-highest total in school history. The total was the highest ever by an NU player during the rally-scoring era, and the most blocks by any player in the Big 12 Conference in 2003.

Offensively, Elmer hit .300 20 times, including eight of NU's nine matches in November when she averaged 3.28 kills per game on .401 hitting. Elmer had back-to-back .500-plus matches against Kansas Oct. 8 (.577) and KSU Oct. 11 (.548). She produced 15 kills on a .737 hitting percentage against Dayton Dec. 6 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to break the NU postseason record for hitting percentage in a single match.

Elmer averaged 3.50 kills per game on .316 hitting in three NCAA Tournament matches. She totaled double-figure kill totals in two postseason matches (Dec. 6 vs. Dayton and Dec. 12 vs. UCLA) and accomplished the feat 18 times overall in 2003.

One of the team's top servers, Elmer had at least two service aces in 10 matches and recorded a career-best five aces against Clemson Aug. 29.

Elmer earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Week honors Oct. 13 after averaging 2.33 blocks per game and

Remember When ...

One of the top blockers in school history, Elmer had posted four or fewer blocks in six of the previous eight matches heading into an Oct. 8, 2003, date at Kansas. However, Elmer emerged from her slump and produced a career-high 15 blocks (two solo, 13 assists) to lead the Huskers to a tough four-game win over the Jayhawks.

Elmer's 15 blocks ranked third all-time on the NU single-season performance charts and was the highest total ever by an NU player in the rally-scoring era and the highest total by a Big 12 player in 2003.

3.89 kills per game on an incredible .561 hitting percentage against Kansas and Kansas State. She was named to three all-tournament teams in Nebraska's first three weeks of the season. Elmer earned MVP honors at the Illinois State/Barker GMC Classic Aug. 29-30 and at the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic Sept. 5-6. She also was named to the US Bank/Arby's Classis All-Tournament team after averaging 3.17 kills per game on a .317 hitting percentage and 1.25 blocks against three ranked teams.

2002: Freshman Season

In her first season of collegiate volleyball, Elmer made a major impact. Elmer ranked second in the league in hitting percentage (.381) and blocks per game (1.30). She also averaged 2.31 kills per game and ranked second on the team with 28 service aces.

Elmer, who was generally considered Nebraska's fifth option on offense during the regular season, emerged as NU's most effective offensive weapon in the NCAA Tournament. She tied for the team lead with 3.50 kills per game against Tennessee-Martin and Arizona State in the first and second rounds, hitting a team-best .606. Elmer recorded a season-high 11 kills against Tennessee-Martin in the first round, and she totaled 10 against the Sun Devils the following night, marking the first time in her career that she produced double figures in kills in back-to-back matches.

In Nebraska's four NCAA Tournament matches, she averaged 3.00 kills per game while swinging at a team-best .413 clip.

During the regular season, Elmer hit over .300 22 times, and over .500 13 times. She got off to a fast start in September. She was the only Husker who hit over .250 against No. 1 USC Sept. 2, as she posted six kills on 11 attempts for a .545 mark, and she went on to hit .500 or better in six of Nebraska's 12 matches that month. She hit a team-best .346 collectively against the Huskers' seven ranked opponents.

Defensively, Elmer produced at least five blocks 11 times. She recorded a season-high nine stops against Miami Dec. 13 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Throughout much of September, NU Coach John Cook substituted Michelle Lynch or Jenae Dowling to serve for Elmer. But with Lynch sidelined for the entire month of October, Elmer emerged as one of NU's best servers, and finished the season ranked second on the team with 28 service aces. She had a season-high four service aces against Pittsburgh in NU's season opener Aug. 31.

High School

Nebraska's final recruit of the early signing period, Elmer committed to the Huskers in late September of 2000.

A first-team all-state and All-Summit Athletic Conference selection in 2000, Elmer led Northrop High School to the Indiana Class 4A finals in 1997 and 1999. As a senior, she totaled 330 kills, 101 blocks and 149 digs on the season and ended her career as the school record holder with 267 career blocks. Elmer was named the Fort Wayne Prepsports/News Sentinel Volleyball Player of the Year and the Fort Wayne Journal Gazette Volleyball Player of the Year. A two-time Prepsports Volleyball Player of the Week, Elmer was selected to the North Senior All-Star Team after the 2000 season. She also competed for the Munciana Ravens volleyball club, leading the team to the 2001 USA Junior Olympic Gold Championship in the 18 Open division. Elmer earned a spot on the all-tournament team.

A three-year letterwinner in three sports, Elmer was a standout on the Northrop High basketball and track teams. She averaged 18 points and eight rebounds per game on the basketball court as a junior, earning first-team all-state honors and first-team All-Summit Athletic Conference recognition. A high jumper on the track team, Elmer set a school record with a leap of 5-6 in 1999.

MICHELLE LYNCH

5-11 | Junior | Setter | Jacksonville, Ill. (Jacksonville)

Setter Michelle Lynch is one of the most experienced players on the 2004 Husker roster. The two-year letterwinner has appeared in 54 matches over the past two seasons, giving Coach John Cook the luxury of a battle-tested setter.

Lynch, who served as a backup to three-time All-American Greichaly Cepero as a freshman, was one of only three Huskers to play in all 117 games a year ago, as she shared setting duties with Dani Busboom in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. In her first year as a starter, Lynch led the Huskers with 7.21 assists per game, helping Nebraska to 28 wins while replacing a trio of All-Americans from 2002.

Lynch showed her toughness throughout the year, as she battled a back injury that required off-season surgery. She saw limited duty in the spring, but is close to 100 percent entering fall camp.

According to Cook, Lynch's strengths are her extensive experience and her ability to attack from the front row, as the left-handed swinging Lynch provides a tough look for opposing defenses.

She enters the fall competing with Busboom for the starting role, a battle that will likely continue throughout fall camp, as the Huskers return to a 5-1 system in 2004. She also excels in the classroom, where she is a seven-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll member.

2003: Sophomore Season

Lynch played in all of Nebraska's 117 games, sharing the setting duties with Dani Busboom in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. Lynch averaged 7.21 assists per game and helped lead the Huskers to a .249 hitting percentage, which ranked fourth in the conference. Lynch had a career-high 40 assists against Georgia Tech Sept. 14. She produced at least 30 assists eight times.

A left-handed jump-server, Lynch ranked second in the Big 12 with 0.47 service aces per game against league teams. She led Nebraska with 47 service aces on the year and was just two aces shy of breaking into the NU all-time top 10 chart, a feat that has not been accomplished since Kelly Aspegren in 1993. Lynch had five aces at Texas Sept. 20, when Nebraska tied a 13-year-old school record with 16 aces in a three-game match.

2002: Freshman Season

Lynch saw time at setter behind All-American Greichaly Cepero, but found a way onto the court with her serve, playing in 60 games as a serving specialist. Lynch was Nebraska's most effective server in the NCAA Tournament. She posted two aces against Tennessee-Martin Dec. 6, two against Arizona State Dec. 7, and three against Miami Dec. 13 in the regional semifinal. She finished the season with 21 service aces and 20 digs. Lynch's 0.35 service aces-per-game average tied for seventh in the Big 12 Conference.

Lynch emerged as one of the best servers on the team in September. She made her collegiate debut against No. 1 USC Sept. 2 and was the Huskers' top threat at the service line with two aces in the loss

Remember When ...

In the first Big 12 Conference road test for a young Nebraska team, Lynch helped the Huskers take over early with two service aces in game one at Texas Sept. 20, 2003. She would go on to post a career-high five aces to lead NU to a season-high 16 service aces in the three-game win. The mark tied the school record for service aces in a three-game match. The total was the Huskers' highest in 13 years.

to the eventual national champions

Lynch went on to notch a service ace in six of her next nine matches and tallied two each against Pepperdine, Alabama and Michigan. However, during the last week of September, Lynch broke the third metatarsal in her right hand while diving for a dig off a ball hit by Amber Holmquist. Lynch underwent surgery and was sidelined until the Texas Tech match Nov. 2. She dressed for the Colorado match Oct. 30, but did not play.

Before the injury, Lynch saw action in 28 games and nine matches, averaging a then-team best 0.36 service aces per game.

High School

A Volleyball Magazine Feb 50 prep star, Lynch became Cook's first nationally ranked recruit at Nebraska, when she committed to the Huskers in late August of 2000. Lynch, who was listed as one of the top-five prep setters in the nation by volleyball recruiting analyst Bill Feldman, helped Jacksonville High School to tournament titles at the Jacksonville Invitational and the Glenbrook North Discover Tournament in 2000, earning all-tournament honors in both events. Lynch led her team to the Illinois Class 2A IHSA Sweet 16 in 2000. A two-time first-team all-state selection by both the Chicago Tribune and the Champaign News Gazette, Lynch posted a team-best 772 assists, 142 kills, a .484 hitting percentage, 94 service aces, 126 total blocks and 86 digs. Lynch was also named the Springfield State Journal Register Central State 8 Volleyball Player of the Year.

As a junior, Lynch was one of just five underclassmen in the country to be named one of the 31 Volleyball Magazine honorable-mention All-Americans in 1999, after leading Jacksonville to the Class 2A IHSA Sweet 16.

Lynch also competed for the Illini Elite volleyball club under Coach Andy Erins. The squad finished 10th in the 18 Open division at the USVBA Midwest Qualifier in July of 2000.

Lynch has also achieved impressive feats off the court. She carried a 4.167 grade-point average on a 4.0 scale into her senior year at Jacksonville High School. Lynch is a three-time academic all-conference selection and a member of the National Honor Society and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Lynch also served as the Student Alliance Vice President.

JENNIFER SALEAUMUA

Junior Jennifer Saleaumua (pronounced Salee-ah-MOO-uh) is one of two first-team All-Big 12 selections returning to anchor the Husker lineup. The 5-foot-11 outside hitter earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in each of her first two seasons, and has the potential to become the first four-time first-team all-conference honoree in program history.

As a sophomore, Saleaumua added AVCA All-Region honors, by leading the Huskers with 3.27 kills per game, 3.90 digs per game and 17 double-doubles. Saleaumua, who moved from the left to the right side before the season, was also tied for third in service aces (33) and ranked fifth in total blocks (71), putting up all-around numbers that compare favorably to some of the nation's top outside hitters.

According to Coach John Cook, Saleaumua's impressive all-around statistics only show a part of her importance to the Husker lineup.

"Jen is the heart of our team," Cook said. "When we are on the court, a lot of the emotional energy and communication revolves around her because she is so gifted in those areas."

One of the team's best passers, Saleaumua has become a fan favorite at the NU Coliseum because of her energy and ability to make jaw-dropping defensive plays. She is also one of the Huskers' most vocal leaders on the court.

2003: Sophomore Season

Saleaumua earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and first-team AVCA All-Region honors after producing some of the conference's top all-around numbers. She led the Huskers in kills per game (3.27), digs per game (3.90) and double-doubles (17), while tying for third in service aces (33) and ranking fifth in total blocks (71).

Saleaumua shattered the NU single-season record for digs with 441, surpassing Kate Crnich's mark of 390 set in 1996. Saleaumua's 3.90 digs-per-game average was also a single-season record, and she ranked second in the Big 12 in that category.

Saleaumua recorded a career-high 27 digs against Missouri Oct. 15, which is tied for seventh on the all-time NU charts and was the second-highest total by a Big 12 player in 2003.

Saleaumua was at her defensive best in matches against ranked teams, as she averaged 4.40 digs per game in 12 matches against ranked opponents. Overall, she led NU in digs 15 times and posted double-figure dig totals 23 times, including a 15 match streak from Oct. 1 to Nov. 19.

Offensively, Saleaumua led NU in kills 12 times. On Oct. 8 at Kansas, Saleaumua recorded a career-best 19 kills on a .340 hitting percentage. She had 18 kills and hit a season-best .500 (18-1-34) against No. 12 Northern Iowa on Nov. 2. Saleaumua, who led all conference left-side hitters in hitting percentage, swung at a .300 or better clip 14 times and hit .400 or better eight times.

Remember When ...

Saleaumua was at her best in one of the Huskers' toughest matches of the year, as she drilled 18 kills on a spectacular .500 hitting percentage to lead No. 11 Nebraska to a three-game win over No. 12 Northern Iowa on Nov. 2, 2003, at the NU Coliseum.

The crucial win was NU's first over a ranked team in nearly six weeks, and it sparked a 7-1 run during November in which the Huskers defeated two more ranked opponents. Saleaumua averaged 3.86 kills per game during the eight-match stretch.

2002: Freshman Season

Saleaumua contributed to the Huskers' success in all areas of the game in 2002. She led the team with 30 service aces and ranked third on the team with 2.89 kills per game. She also ranked second on the squad and 10th in the Big 12 with 3.02 digs per game in league contests.

Offensively, Saleaumua posted at least 10 kills on 13 occasions. She was particularly effective during a four-match stretch in October, when she tied or bettered her career high in kills in four straight matches. Saleaumua averaged 3.69 kills per game during that stretch, with 11 kills at Texas A&M Oct. 6, 12 against Missouri Oct. 9, 12 at Iowa State Oct. 12 and 13 at Oklahoma Oct. 16.

Saleaumua finished the season with a .295 hitting percentage. She swung for at least a .400 hitting percentage 10 times, including Nov. 30 against Kansas State when she posted 10 kills on 19 swings (.421). Saleaumua hit a season-best .562 against Pepperdine Sept. 6, producing 10 kills and erring just once on 16 attacks.

Saleaumua also emerged as one of the Huskers' top defensive players. She notched at least 10 digs in 14 matches. She posted a season-high 20 against Santa Clara Sept. 13, which was the highest dig total by a Nebraska player in 2002. She averaged 3.24 digs per game against ranked teams.

Saleaumua finished the season ranked third on the team behind All-Americans Laura Pilakowski and Greichaly Cepero with seven double-doubles, which she produced against Pittsburgh (11 kills, 11 digs), Oct. 6 at Texas A&M (11 kills, 13 digs), Oct. 23 at Kansas (11 kills, 12 digs), Nov. 2 vs. Texas Tech (11 kills, 11 digs), Nov. 9 at Texas (13 kills, 14 digs), Nov. 16 against Oklahoma (10 kills, 13 digs) and Nov. 30 against Kansas State (10 kills, 10 digs).

High School

Volleyball Magazine's National High School Player of the Year, Saleaumua was also the San Diego Union Tribune Co-Female Athlete of the Year, the California Interscholastic Federation Player of the Year, the California Gatorade Player of the Year, the Paul Mitchell All-American Player of the Year and the Metro League MVP as a senior at Bonita Vista High School in 2000.

Saleaumua played for Coach Carolyn Taeatafa-Hudson and led Bonita Vista High School in San Diego, Calif., to a 43-0 record, the 2000 CIF state championships and a No. 1 national ranking. She set a CIF record for single-match kills with 57 in the state championship match. Saleaumua, a three-year letterwinner for the Bonita Vista basketball team, also competed for Taeatafa-Hudson as an outside hitter on the Coast Volleyball Club. Saleaumua's 1999 squad won the USVBA silver medal in the 17-and-under division, and the 2000 team took the bronze medal in the 17 open division.

Saleaumua signed a letter of intent with Hawaii for the 2001 season, but never enrolled in school. She contacted the NU coaches during the fall of 2001 about the possibility of joining the Huskers and enrolled in school for the 2002 spring semester.

Saleaumua's uncle is former Kansas City Chiefs defensive lineman Dan Saleaumua.

DANI BUSBOOM

5-11 | Sophomore | Setter | Cortland, Neb. (Adams Freeman)

One of the primary benefits of Nebraska's 6-2 offense in 2003 was the emergence of Dani Busboom as the Huskers' No. 2 setter. The Cortland, Neb., native totaled 700 assists - a number that ranked second on the Huskers' all-time freshman list. Busboom, an outside hitter for most of her high school career, led Nebraska in assists in the Huskers' final five matches, including all three NCAA Tournament matches.

This season, a potential shift to a 5-1 offense makes the setter battle between Busboom and fellow starter Michelle Lynch one of the most intense during the fall. Coach John Cook said that Busboom's size and athleticism make her an intriguing candidate in that role, while the battle should make both players better over the long haul. She could also contend for Academic All-Big 12 honors this fall.

2003: Freshman Season

Busboom played in all 117 of Nebraska's games, sharing the setting duties with Lynch in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. Busboom averaged 5.98 assists per game, but really came on at the end of the season, averaging 6.62 assists per game in November and 7.40 assists in the NCAA Tournament. She finished the season with 700 assists, which ranks second all-time on the Husker freshman charts. Busboom's top mark was a season-high 36 assists against Baylor on Nov. 22, as she led NU in assists in the Huskers' final five matches.

A lethal jump server, Busboom finished the season tied for third on the team with 33 service aces, which ranks second on the Nebraska freshman chart. She was on pace to break Maria Hedbeck's (1993) and Kim Tonniges (1991) shared record of 36 before shoulder problems forced her to stop jump serving at the beginning of November. In the Huskers' first 21 matches, Busboom tallied 31 service aces. In her last 12 matches, she had two.

Defensively, she averaged 1.84 digs per game, including a career-high 18 against UCLA on Dec. 12.

High School

A three-sport standout at Adams Freeman High School, Busboom was widely recognized as one of the best athletes in the state in 2002-03. Busboom shared the Lincoln Journal Star Girls High School Athlete-of-the-Year Award with NU teammate Christina Houghtelling, and she was the only Omaha World-Herald First-Team All-Nebraska selection in both volleyball and basketball.

Busboom committed to the Huskers in 2001, her junior year of high school, and switched positions from outside hitter to setter for her senior season. She led the 29-2 Falcons to the 2002 Class D-1 state tournament semifinals with impressive all-around effort, producing 272 kills, 227 assists, 69 blocks and a state-record 104 aces. Busboom also holds the state record for career service aces (388) and service aces in a single match (11). She was a four-time first-team all-state selection and a three-time first-team Lincoln Journal Star Super-State pick.

In basketball, Busboom averaged 18 points per game as a senior while leading 28-0 Freeman to its second straight Class D-1 state title. Busboom posted 27 points against Falls City Sacred Heart in the state title game, and she finished her career with 1,712 points. She was a four-time Lincoln Journal Star All-State selection and earned Super-State honors her junior and senior seasons. Busboom also earned three letters in track and won the Class D 100-meter high hurdles at the 2003 Nebraska state track and field meet.

An excellent student, Busboom finished her high school career with a 3.98 grade-point average.

KELSEY FAUTSCH

6-1 | Sophomore | Outside Hitter | Chisago Lakes, Minn. (Chisago Lakes)

2004: Outlook

Kelsey Fautsch (pronounced FOUCH) was one of five freshmen to see extensive time on the court in 2003, something that Coach John Cook hopes will pay off in 2004. The 6-foot-1 outside hitter played primarily on the right side last fall, averaging 2.17 kills per game in 28 matches. She combined with Ally Rebholz and Anna Schrad at the position in the 6-2 offense.

In hopes of getting Fautsch more time on the court this fall, she spent the entire off-season training at both outside hitter positions. Considered one of the Huskers' best blockers, Fautsch has made strides in improving her all-around game, something which could be important if the Huskers shift to a 5-1 attack. According to Cook, Fautsch is one of the team's hardest workers and is willing to do what it takes to become a better player.

2003: Redshirt Freshman Season

A first-team academic All-Big 12 honoree, Fautsch played in 90 of NU's 117 games while sharing time at two right-side hitter positions with Ally Rebholz and Anna Schrad in the 6-2 offense. Fautsch finished the season ranked sixth on the team in kills per game (2.17) and sixth in hitting percentage (.235) and total blocks (54).

After spending the first two months of the season as a regular in the 6-2 rotation, Fautsch played little during the first half of November when Cook moved Dani Mancuso to the left side and Schrad to the right to share time with Rebholz. However, Fautsch came off the bench Nov. 15 at Kansas State and pounded 10 kills. She was part of the regular 6-2 rotation against Kansas Nov. 19 for the first time since late October and hammered 10 kills for the first back-to-back double-figure kill efforts of her career.

Fautsch had 10 or more kills in six matches, including a career-high 13 kills against Missouri on Oct. 15, and 10 kills against Louisiana State, Santa Clara, Iowa State, Kansas State and Kansas. She hit over .300 10 times and over .400 six times, including a career-best .889 (8-0-9) against Clemson Aug. 29 in the first match of her collegiate career.

Defensively, Fautsch averaged 0.60 blocks per game. She recorded a career-best six blocks at Kansas Oct. 8, then matched the total against Kansas State Oct. 11.

the first nationally ranked recruit of the 2002 class, giving an oral commitment to the Huskers in May of 2001. The left-handed Fautsch was a four-year starter under Coach Brenda Schulte for Chisago Lakes High School, where she set single-season school records for kills (369) in 2001 and solo blocks (156) in 2000. Selected as Baden's 2001 Miss Minnesota Volleyball, Fautsch produced 660 total blocks during her career en route to earning 2001 Class 3A All-State honors. She was a two-time All-Rum River Conference selection, a two-time Chisago Lakes Most Valuable Player and a two-time Chisago Lakes Best Offensive Player.

Fautsch also played right side hitter for Mizuno Minnesota One volleyball club and led her team to a second-place finish at the 2000 USVBA Junior National Championships, where she was named to the 16 club division All-America team. Fautsch also played on the USA Youth National Team in May of 2001.

A standout in the classroom as well, Fautsch carried a 3.99 cumulative grade-point average on a 4.0 scale and won Chisago Lakes Academic Achievement awards in each of her four years at the school. Fautsch chose Nebraska over Michigan State, Minnesota and Indiana.

CHRISTINA HOUGHTELLING

One of the few question marks surrounding the 2004 Husker volleyball team is the health of sophomore outside hitter Christina Houghtelling.

An assortment of injuries curtailed a promising freshman campaign after she had quickly earned a starting position at middle blocker. She underwent arthroscopic knee surgery, and the Husker coaches are optimistic she would be cleared for the start of fall drills. If healthy, Houghtelling will contend for a spot at outside hitter, a position the coaches believe she could excel at with her natural abilities.

Despite seeing limited duty, Houghtelling impressed the staff with her athleticism and competitive nature. She also possesses one of the best serves on the squad.

2003: Freshman Season

Houghtelling showed tremendous potential early in 2003, securing a spot in the starting lineup nine matches into the season. However, Houghtelling was sidelined with knee problems for six weeks. After going to the bench Oct. 15 against Missouri, she did not play again until NU's first-round NCAA Tournament match against Valparaiso on Dec. 5. She saw limited duty in all three NCAA Tournament matches.

In her first 14 matches before Oct. 15, Houghtelling averaged 1.80 kills per game on a .260 hitting percentage to go along with 29 blocks (0.83 per game). She was named to the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic All-Tournament Team despite playing in just five of NU's nine games in New Orleans. One week later, she secured a starting role after coming off the bench to post a season-best nine kills and seven digs in the final four games of a five-game loss to Georgia Tech Sept. 14.

Houghtelling tallied at least eight kills three times. She hit .462 (8-2-13) against Texas Tech on Sept. 27. She ended the season averaging 1.67 kills per game on .257 hitting.

One of NU's top servers, Houghtelling ranked first in the Big 12 in service aces per game with 0.57 in league contests before her injuries. She had four aces at Texas Sept. 20, when Nebraska tied a 13-year-old school record with 16 aces in a three-game match.

An excellent student, Houghtelling also was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters.

High School

Houghtelling was a four-year letterwinner in three sports at Cambridge and earned the Omaha World-Herald Nebraska Girls High School Athlete-of-the-Year Award. Houghtelling also shared the Lincoln Journal Star Girls High School Athlete-of-the-Year Award with NU teammate Dani Busboom.

The Huskers' first scholarship recruit from Cambridge, Houghtelling recorded 434 kills on an impressive .539 hitting percentage to go along with 72 ace blocks, 62 service aces and 198 digs while leading Cambridge to a 20-9 record and a state tournament appearance in 2002. Houghtelling had 30 kills against Class C-2 state tournament qualifier Alma. Houghtelling was a two-time Lincoln Journal Star all-state selection, and she earned Super-State honors in 2002.

Houghtelling also led Cambridge to the semifinals of the Class D-1 girls basketball state tournament. Houghtelling averaged 27.1 points and 13.5 rebounds per game, and she shot 73 percent from the field. She was a Lincoln Journal Star Super-State pick in 2001 and 2002 and was also offered a basketball scholarship by Nebraska.

Houghtelling continued to display her athleticism during the spring at the Nebraska state track and field meet, as she won the all-class gold medals in the high jump (5-8) and the triple jump (37-1 1/2). Houghtelling also won all-class gold medals in both events as a junior in 2001. An excellent student, Houghtelling finished high school with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

DANI MANCUSO

6-2 | Sophomore | Outside Hitter | Omaha, Neb. (Omaha Gross)

2004: Outlook

One of five newcomers who saw extensive action in 2003, sophomore Dani Mancuso (MancUE-so) will look to pick up where she left off last season. Coach John Cook said that Mancuso's insertion into the lineup late last season jump-started the Huskers down the stretch. Cook said Mancuso brings emotion to the floor that rubs off on her teammates.

A very good all-around player, the 6-foot-2 outside hitter is versatile enough to play either side and will be a strong contender for a spot in the starting lineup, according to Cook.

Mancuso will contend for academic all-conference and national honors in 2004, as she carries a 3.517 grade-point average.

2003: Freshman Season

Mancuso emerged as one of the Huskers' top performers during the second half of the year. The Omaha native played in 29 matches as a freshman, averaging 2.01 kills and 1.72 digs per game. Mancuso recorded 10-or-more kills on six occasions, including a career-high 16 in a three-game sweep of New Orleans on Sept. 5, while she totaled a season high of 16 digs in a win at Colorado on Nov. 26.

Mancuso played sparingly early in the season, but showed continuous improvement in practice while training on both the left and right sides. She eventually earned a spot in the starting lineup on Nov. 1 and started on the left side in the Huskers' last 12 matches. During that stretch, Mancuso averaged 2.24 kills per game, 2.29 digs per game, 0.52 blocks per game and 0.40 service aces per game, which ranked second on the team, as the Huskers went 10-2 during that stretch.

Mancuso's greatest impact as a starter came from behind the service line. She posted 17 of her 23 aces in the Husker's final 12 matches and produced an ace for match point at No. 21 Texas A&M on Nov. 5 and at No. 25 Missouri on Nov. 8. She posted a career-high five aces against Kansas Nov. 19, tying the highest mark by a Husker in 2003. She ended the season ranked eighth in the Big 12 with 0.36 aces per game in league play.

Mancuso earned her first career start against New Orleans, replacing the injured Jennifer Saleaumua, and pounded a match-high 16 kills while swinging at a .429 clip. Mancuso posted double-figure kill totals six times, including 14 against Valparaiso in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Mancuso averaged 3.67 kills per game on .459 hitting and 0.83 service aces per game in NU's first and second round NCAA Tournament matches.

Mancuso was generally considered the best prep volleyball player in the state in 2002 and was named the honorary captain of both the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State team and the Omaha World-Herald All-Metro squad. She tallied a Nebraska state-record 621 kills as a senior in 2002 – which broke her own Class B single-season record by almost 200 kills – and posted 150 blocks and 108 service aces, which led Class B. Mancuso finished her career with 1,336 kills, crushing the Class B record of 1,052 set by former NU outside hitter Anna Schrad (Lincoln Pius X) in 1999.

Mancuso led Omaha Gross to three state tournament appearances in her career, including a state title in 1999 and a runner-up finish in 2001. As a senior, Mancuso led Omaha Gross to a 29-10 record, and the Cougars were ranked No. 1 in the state most of the season before falling in the state semifinals.

A three-time Nebraska Class B academic all-state selection, she was a four-year member of the dean's list at Omaha Gross. Mancuso, who also lettered twice in track, drew recruiting interest from Stanford, Kansas, South Carolina, Pacific, Tennessee and Florida State before choosing NU.

AMANDA McCORMICK

5-8 | Sophomore | Libero | Muncie, Ind. (Burris Laboratory)

2004: Outlook

One of the keys to the Huskers' success during the second half of 2003 was the play of libero Amanda McCormick. After battling an elbow injury the first month of the year, she played her best volleyball down the stretch. McCormick had two of her 20-dig matches in the NCAA Tournament, including a 26-dig effort against UCLA.

"We felt there were matches last year where she was as good as any libero in the Big 12," Coach John Cook said.

The only libero on the 2004 roster, McCormick has embraced the position and is poised to make a "major impact" this fall, according to Cook.

2003: Freshman Season

McCormick produced a record-breaking season despite playing in just 64 of Nebraska's 117 games after battling an elbow injury. She shattered the NU freshman record with 3.72 digs per game, surpassing Maria Hedbeck's 3.45 digs per game set in 1993. McCormick's digs-per-game average was also the second-highest single-season average in school history.

McCormick broke the NU postseason record for digs in a three-game match when she had 20 against Dayton Dec. 6 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. She totaled 51 digs in nine postseason games for an impressive 5.67 digs-per-game average.

McCormick showed promise early in the season, starting at libero against Illinois State Aug. 30 and totaling 13 digs. However, she suffered an injury to her left elbow two days later in practice and was sidelined most of September.

After brief appearances against Iowa State Sept. 24 and Texas Tech Sept. 29, McCormick returned in mid-October and secured a spot in the starting lineup. Against Missouri on Oct. 15, McCormick tallied 31 digs, the third-highest total in school history in her second career start. Her 31 digs were the most by any Big 12 player in 2003. She averaged 3.67 digs per game in Big 12 play, which ranked third in the conference.

McCormick produced three 20-plus dig matches including a pair during Nebraska's NCAA Tournament run. She totaled 26 digs in the loss to UCLA, which tied for eighth on NU's single-match performance list.

High School

McCormick competed on four Indiana Class 2A state championship teams for Coach Steve Shondell at Burris Laboratory High School. She earned first-team all-state and first-team all-conference honors while leading her team to the 2002 state championship. For her efforts, she was named the 2002 Indiana Gatorade Player of the Year.

During her career, McCormick was a two-time all-state selection, and she earned first-team Mid-Eastern Conference honors her junior and senior seasons and honorable-mention recognition as a sophomore. Through 316 games, McCormick recorded 904 kills, 1,107 digs and 170 service aces.

McCormick also won a letter in basketball at Burris Laboratory.

Off the court, McCormick was chosen for the Indiana Class 2A Mental Attitude Award, an honor given to a senior who displayed a positive mental attitude, athletic ability, dedication to academics and leadership qualities for four years.

McCormick played club ball for the Munciana Juniors. Her team won the 2002 17-and-under open division and the 2000 15-and-under division at the USA Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships. She chose Nebraska over Southern Illinois.

SARAH PAVAN

2004: Outlook

Considered the nation's top recruit in the class of 2004, outside hitter Sarah Pavan (pronounced PAV-in) is the key of the Huskers' recruiting class. According to Coach John Cook, the 6-foot-5 outside hitter has the potential to be one of the finest players in Nebraska's illustrious history.

While Pavan's immense talent and experience at national and international competition made her one of the nation's most sought-after players, it is her maturity - especially for a player who will have just turned 18 at the start of the season - that sets her apart, according to the Husker head coach.

"Her greatest strength is her focus and determination," Cook said. "You can just tell by watching her that she's really focused. She's very competitive and she wants to win. That's one of the qualities we appreciate the most about her, and then you add her talent to that and it makes her potentially a very special player in our program."

High School

One of the most highly regarded players in the world, Pavan has been involved in the Canadian National Program for the last four years. She was a member of the Canadian Youth and Junior National Teams since 2000, and made her debut with the Senior National Team at the 2003 World Grand Prix in Italy in July. Pavan became the youngest player to ever compete for the Canadian National Team at age 16. She starred for the Canadians at the NORCECA Zone Olympic Qualifying Tournament in December of 2003, leading Canada to the semifinals, highlighted by a 27-point performance against Puerto Rico. Pavan was dominant at the 2004 NORCECA Continental Championships in Winnipeg in August, finishing the tournament as the leading scorer with 100 points and 16 service aces in five matches to help Canada to a fourth-place finish. She won MVP honors at the 2002 NORCECA Championships, including a 24-kill performance against the U.S. Youth National Team.

Pavan also played on a highly successful prep team coached by her father, Paul Pavan, at Forest Heights Collegiate Institute. The team was the 2002, 2003 and 2004 provincial champions, the 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004 regional champions and Waterloo County champions. Pavan was named the 2003 and 2004 Waterloo County MVP. She played club volleyball for the Waterloo Tigers, which were also coached by her father. The Tigers won five straight Ontario Volleyball Association championships and won the 2004 Canadian Open 20 & Under National Championships in May, as Pavan took home tournament MVP honors.

Pavan also played basketball, where she was a two-time Waterloo County All-Star and earned first-team honors as a senior. She also played badminton at Forest Heights Collegiate Institute. An excellent student-athlete, she was named to the honor roll four straight years, boasting a 93 percent grade average.

A Volleyball Magazine Feb 50 recruit, Pavan was recruited by many Division I schools before narrowing her list to Nebraska, Stanford, Minnesota, Ohio State and Penn State. While her father is a long-time high school coach, Sarah's mother, Cindy, played on the Canadian National Team in 1978 and 1979.

EMILY SCHROEDER

2004: Outlook

After a year redshirting in the Husker program, outside hitter Emily Schroeder (SCHROE-der) will contend for playing time in 2004.

A walk-on, Schroeder made the transition from middle blocker to outside hitter last year, and will try to break into a deep and talented rotation at the position. Coach John Cook raves about Schroeder's work ethic, and Schroeder's athleticism will aid her continued development in the Husker program.

Schroeder is one of five Nebraska natives on the 2004 Husker roster, including three outside hitters, joining sophomores Christina Houghtelling and Dani Mancuso.

2003: Freshman Season

Schroeder redshirted during the 2003 season.

High School

Schroeder led Laurel-Concord to runner-up finishes in 2000 and 2002 in Class C-2 at the Nebraska state volleyball tournament. As a senior, Schroeder produced 286 kills, 79 blocks and 27 service aces to lead her team to a 25-2 record. She was named the honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star Class C-2 all-state squad. Schroeder was recognized on the Class C-2 second team as a junior. Schroeder finished her career with 698 kills, 192 blocks and 57 service aces.

In basketball, Schroeder averaged 14.8 points per game and 10.1 rebounds per game her senior season to lead Laurel-Concord to a 24-2 record and the Class C-2 semifinals at the Nebraska girls basketball state tournament. Schroeder was recognized by the Lincoln Journal Star on its Class C-2 second-team all-state squad for the 2002-03 season.

In track, Schroeder competed in the high jump, the 400 meters and the 1,600-meter relay, qualifying for the state meet all four seasons.

Off the court, Schroeder was the Laurel-Concord Student Council president her senior year and was a member of the National Honor Society. In addition, her older brother, Matt, is wide receiver on the Husker football team.

MEGHAN SMITH

2004: Outlook

Meghan Smith is one of two incoming middle blockers who could contribute in 2004. The 6-1 freshman from Sidney, Neb., comes to the program after a decorated high school career that included Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50 recognition in 2004. Coach John Cook said Smith may be one of the fastest middle blockers to enter the program in recent years. NU middle blockers have captured five All-America awards over the last four years. Cook said Smith's athleticism and competitiveness will help her make the transition to the collegiate game.

High School

Smith was a three-sport standout at Sidney High School and was chosen as the High School Athlete of the Year by the Scottsbluff Star Herald for her exploits.

In volleyball, she was a three-time All-Western Conference selection and a two-time All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha World-Herald, earning first-team honors as a senior after garnering second-team recognition in 2002. As a senior, she led Class B in kills (6.15 per game), blocks (2.54 per game) and aces (0.80 per game), while ranking among the state leaders with a .445 hitting percentage. Sidney finished with a 21-11 record and a state tourney berth in 2003. Smith paced all high school players in the state in total blocks as a junior (202) and senior (191), setting an all-class record with 604 career blocks. A four-year starter for Coach Jack Thorpe, she was selected to Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50, recognizing the top players in the nation. Smith played club volleyball with the Panhandle Volleyball Club before joining the Nebraska Juniors in 2003, playing alongside current Huskers Dani Mancuso, Dani Busboom and Christina Houghtelling.

Smith also starred in basketball and track during her high school career. She was a four-time state qualifier, running in the 100- and 200-meters and on relays. She was an all-conference selection in 2004, helping Sidney's 1,600- and 400-meter relays to second- and third-place finishes, respectively, at the state meet. In basketball, she was a first-team all-conference selection in 2004, and earned honorable-mention all-state honors from the Omaha World-Herald as a junior and senior.

A dedicated student-athlete, Smith was on the honor roll at Sidney throughout her high school career, finishing with a 3.70 GPA.

TRACY STALLS

6-3 | Freshman | Middle Blocker | Arvada, Colo. (Lakewood)

2004: Outlook

Freshman Tracy Stalls brings a wealth of national and international-level experience to the Husker program. The 6-foot-3 middle blocker had been a member of the U.S. National Developmental Program since 2002, and has represented the United States in several international tournaments. She was also in contention for a spot on the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team roster earlier this year.

Coach John Cook believes Stalls' experience gives her a head start compared to typical freshmen. He also said her all-around skills could make her an instant contributor, teaming with returning All-American Melissa Elmer to provide a formidable block up front.

"Tracy is going to give us a chance to have a very creative offense," Cook said.

National Developmental Program

Stalls spent nearly two years in the USA Volleyball National Developmental Program after being the first participant in the program in May of 2002. Stalls, who was in competition for a spot on the 2004 U.S. Olympic team until earlier this year, joined the U.S. National Team roster for several competitions, including the 2003 Centennial Cup in Mexicali, Mexico, the 2003 Pan American Games in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and the 2004 Yeltsin Cup in Russia. In the fall of 2002, Stalls spent two and a half months training with the Nagasaki International University Volleyball Team in Sasebo City, Japan.

Before joining the National Developmental Program, Stalls competed on the USA Youth National Team at the 2000 NORCECA Zonal Championship. She was also a member of the USA Junior National Team and competed at the 2001 World Championships and the 2002 NORCECA Zonal Championships.

High School

Stalls played for the Front Range Volleyball Club for Coach Jim Miret. She served as a co-captain in 2001 and 2002 and led the team to a title in the 18 Open division at the 2002 USA Junior Olympic Volleyball Championships, where she earned All-America honors. Stalls also received the Spirit of Excellence award.

Stalls also played three seasons of high school volleyball for Coach Liz Armbrustmacher at Lakewood High School. She graduated from Lakewood as the valedictorian of her class, and took college courses at the University of Colorado-Colorado Springs while training with the National Developmental Program.

Stalls comes from an athletic background. Her father, Dave, played eight seasons in the NFL, and was a member of three Super Bowl teams, including the Super Bowl XVIII champion Los Angeles Raiders.

2003 IN REVIEW

28-5 Overall | 17-3 Big 12 | NCAA Regional Semifinalist

Senior co-captain Jenae Dowling averaged 3.41 digs per game in 2003.

Senior co-captain Anna Schrad was third on the squad with 358 kills in 2003.

The Huskers began 2003 searching for an identity. For the first time in three years, Nebraska entered a season without an All-American, without a veteran go-to player, and without the automatic confidence that goes along with a roster full of players who own national championship rings.

Nebraska did have two new setters, three new starters, and five freshmen expecting to play significant roles.

With so much young talent, NU head coach John Cook opted to run a 6-2 (two-setter) offense to utilize as many players as possible. Freshman Dani Busboom and sophomore Michelle Lynch took over the setting duties, and seven Huskers who were first-year starters contributed on a regular basis, including outside hitters Dani Mancuso, Ally Rebholz and Kelsey Fautsch, middle blockers Sara Westling and Christina Houghtelling and liberos Jenae Dowling and Amanda McCormick.

Three returning starters — middle blocker Melissa Elmer and outside hitters Anna Schrad and Jennifer Saleaumua — provided the young group with a steady presence.

The mix proved a successful one for the Huskers, who finished the season with a 28-5 record, an 11-4 mark against NCAA Tournament teams, and an appearance in their 10th straight Sweet 16. And by the end of the season, the Huskers found their identity. They were one of the top 10 teams in the country.

Early Season Success

Nebraska opened the season with two tournament titles. The Huskers took the Illinois State/Barker GMC Classic Aug. 29-30 with sweeps of Clemson and Illinois and a four-game win over Illinois State. New starters Rebholz, Busboom and Fautsch were all impressive at times during the opening weekend. Rebholz produced 11 blocks against Illinois and ranked second on the team with 2.20 blocks per game. Busboom kept opponents off-balance with her serve, as she recorded six aces. Fautsch recorded 2.20 kills per game on a team-best .381 hitting percentage.

Elmer was named the MVP of the tournament after averaging 3.00 kills per game and 2.40 blocks per game. Elmer was also one of the Huskers' toughest servers, recording a team-best eight service aces.

NU followed the performance by winning the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic Sept. 5-6 in New Orleans. The tournament was highlighted by another impressive performance by a new Husker and a historic win for Cook. In the first start of her young career, Mancuso pounded a match-high 16 kills on a sizzling .429 hitting percentage to lead fifth-ranked Nebraska to a 30-17, 30-16, 30-17 win over New Orleans Sept. 5.

And as Nebraska improved to 4-0 on the season, Cook picked up his 100th win as the Husker head coach to improve to 100-4 (.962) in four seasons at NU.

After defeating six unranked teams on the road, the Huskers returned to Lincoln to play host to three ranked opponents in the Sept. 12-14 US Bank/Arby's Classic, the first home tournament of the season. NU opened the weekend with a four-game win over Santa Clara, as Elmer pounded 15 kills and had nine blocks in the effort. Nebraska followed with a sweep of No. 17 Michigan State. NU dominated offensively, swinging for a then-season-best .331 hitting percentage.

However, the Huskers couldn't carry their momentum into the finale Sept. 14 and fell to an experienced Georgia Tech team in five games. The loss to the 10th-ranked Yellowjackets was Nebraska's first regular-season defeat at home since Kansas State upset the Huskers Sept. 22, 1999. It was also Coach John Cook's first regular-season home loss in his four years at Nebraska.

However, NU had several bright spots against Georgia Tech. Schrad and Elmer were both named to the all-tournament team. Schrad had 20 kills in the championship match, and Elmer averaged 3.17 kills per game for the weekend. Houghtelling came off the bench and posted nine kills against Georgia Tech in her first extensive action of the season.

Nebraska couldn't dwell on the loss for long, as Texas A&M was scheduled to come to town for the teams' Big 12 Conference opener Sept. 17. In a tough five-game match, Saleaumua came through for the Huskers with 17 kills and 20 digs, and NU improved to 6-1 in Big 12 openers.

The Huskers went on to pick up six more wins before mid-October.

Growing Pains

The Huskers took a 15-1 record into their Big 12 showdown with Kansas State on Oct. 11. NU came back from a two-game deficit against No. 12 KSU, but faltered in the fifth game and suffered a 30-22, 30-26, 19-30, 23-30, 15-8 loss to the Wildcats at the NU Coliseum.

Nebraska struggled offensively all night, committing 41 hitting errors and swinging for a then-season-low .137 hitting percentage. With the score tied 8-8 in game five, Kansas State scored five of its final seven points on four Nebraska attack errors and a service error.

The loss was Nebraska's first to a Big 12 team since 1999 and snapped a 78-match conference winning streak. The loss also ended the Huskers' 42-match Big 12 home winning streak and was Cook's first league defeat in 68 matches.

Things didn't get much better in NU's Oct. 15 date with Missouri four days later at the NU Coliseum. Missouri came back from a 2-0 deficit to defeat Nebraska, 30-28, 30-24, 25-30, 29-31, 15-9, snapping the Tigers' 44-match losing streak against the Huskers. The loss marked the first time since 1997 that Nebraska had lost two straight conference matches. It also marked the first time that NU had lost back-to-back matches since the 1999 season.

Nebraska surpassed Missouri in every statistical category except blocks, but the Huskers committed a season-high 44 hitting errors and swung for a .131 percentage. Elmer led NU with 17 kills on a .297 hitting percentage. McCormick started at libero in place of the injured Jenae Dowling and led Nebraska with a career-high 31 digs. McCormick's total was the third-highest in school history and the most digs by an NU player since 1995. McCormick would remain NU's starting libero for the remainder of the season.

The Huskers received a break in the schedule and concluded October with three straight wins over three Big 12 teams in the bottom half of the league -- Baylor, Iowa State and Texas Tech.

November to Remember

After a rocky October, the Huskers rebounded with an impressive run in November. NU went 8-1 during the month, including a 3-1 mark against ranks teams. Nebraska swept No. 12 Northern Iowa, No. 21 Texas A&M and No. 25 Missouri, taking the Aggies and Tigers down on their home courts. On the strength of the strong month, NU jumped two spots in the rankings from 11th to ninth.

The Huskers' improvements were sparked by the most significant change in the lineup all season. Cook, responding to Mancuso's continuous progress in practice, moved the Omaha Gross graduate into the lineup as Nebraska's second left side hitter and switched Schrad to the right side, a position she had never played at NU. Rebholz and Fautsch continued to switch off at the other right side spot.

Nebraska unveiled the lineup against Oklahoma Nov. 1 and won easily. Northern Iowa provided the Huskers with their first true test the following day, and NU passed with flying colors. The Huskers hit .304 against the Panthers in the sweep. Saleaumua was dominant in the win, as she drilled 18 kills on .500 hitting while adding 11 digs.

NU continued its offensive momentum at A&M, where the Huskers swung for a .315 mark in their first three-game win over the Aggies in Big 12 play. Schrad had great success in both matches, hitting .312 and .350, respectively.

By the time their Nov. 15 date at Kansas State rolled around, the Huskers had won eight straight matches, tying their longest streak of the season. Nebraska received strong performances from Elmer (13 kills, .333 pct., 10 blocks) and Saleaumua (11 kills, 20 digs), but eventually fell in four games at Ahearn

Field House to the Big 12 champions.

Elmer and Saleaumua had emerged as All-America candidates by the end of the challenging month. After the Huskers closed November with wins over Kansas, Baylor and Colorado, the sophomores recognized with first-team All-Big 12 honors. In conference matches, Elmer led the league in hitting percentage (.379) and blocks per game (1.64) while averaging 3.10 kills per game. Saleaumua ranked second in the Big 12 with 3.99 digs per game and paced the Huskers with 3.38 kills per game on .265 hitting. The two also went on to earn AVCA All-District honors.

NCAA Tournament

After ending the regular season with a 26-4 record and a No. 9 national ranking, the Huskers gathered to watch the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Tournament selection show on Nov. 30. Nebraska was seeded ninth overall in the tournament, but NU was one of just two top 16 seeds in the 2003 NCAA Tournament that was not selected to host the first and second rounds of the tournament.

Traveling didn't prove to be a factor for the Huskers, who knew that two wins would guarantee a weekend in Lincoln for the NCAA regionals, as the Coliseum was one of four pre-determined host sites. NU, which was sent to Michigan State, swept Valparaiso Dec. 5 and Dayton Dec. 6 in the first and second rounds to advance to regionals for the 10th straight year.

Sophomore middle blocker Melissa Elmer earned second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2003, as she averaged 3.09 kills and 1.59 blocks per game. Elmer, a first-team All-Big 12 selection, was chosen as the MVP of the Illinois State/Barker GMC Classic and the Nokia Sugar Bowl Classic.

The Huskers returned home to play host to perhaps the toughest regional in the tournament. The field included top-seeded and defending national champion USC,

However, the Bruins bounced back in game two and squeaked by with a 30-27 win. The momentum never swung back to the Huskers' side. UCLA won games three and four by scores of 30-21 and 30-23, ending Nebraska's season at 28-5.

Career Wrapup

Jenae Dowling played an instrumental role in helping Nebraska to three Big 12 titles and the 2000 NCAA title during her four-year Husker career. Dowling, who walked on to the program as a freshman, appeared in 93 matches during her collegiate career. After being a defensive and serving specialist for the first three years of her career, Dowling saw her most extensive action during the 2003 season. A co-captain, she split time with Amanda McCormick at the libero position and ranked among the team leaders with 218 digs. A standout performer in the classroom, Dowling was a three-time first-team All-Big 12 performer and a six-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Career Wrapup

Anna Schrad wrapped up her four-year career with a solid senior campaign in 2003. A three-year starter at outside hitter and a team co-captain as a senior, she averaged a career-high 3.09 kills per game in 2003. Schrad totaled 358 kills and was one of three Huskers with at least 350 kills on the season, joining All-Americans Melissa Elmer and Jennifer Saleaumua. A versatile player who played on both the left and the right side during her career, she was chosen to three all-tournament teams as a senior. Schrad posted double-figure kills in 17 matches in 2003, including a career-high 22 kills in a win at Illinois State. She finished her career with 986 kills, 866 digs and 274 total blocks in 131 matches. Schrad was also honored for her work in the classroom, as she was presented with a postgraduate scholarship from the Big 12. Schrad, a three-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree, earned second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 2003.

Honors and Awards

- 2003, 2002 First-Team Academic All-Big 12
- 2001 Second-Team Academic All-Big 12
- Seven-Time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll

Career Wrapup

After serving as a backup to All-Americans Jenny Kropp and Amber Holmquist during her first two years at Nebraska, Sara Westling enjoyed a breakthrough 2003 season. Westling ranked among the league leaders in both blocks per game (1.11, sixth) and hitting percentage (.301, 10th) helping the Huskers rank sixth nationally in blocking. She improved both numbers in conference action, as she was fifth in the league with a .317 hitting percentage and third with 1.26 blocks per game. The middle blocker split time with freshman Christina Houghtelling, seeing extensive time when Houghtelling missed more than a month with a knee injury. Overall, she averaged 1.82 kills per game in 2003 and was second to All-American Melissa Elmer in total blocks with 99. Westling began her collegiate career at Pacific, where she spent the 1999 season before returning to her home state. Westling garnered first-team academic All-Big 12 honors in 2003 and was a member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for seven straight semesters.

HISTORY OF SUCCESS

by Mike Babcock

A bulletin advertising an opening for the head volleyball coach's job at Nebraska had been discarded in a wastebasket in the coaches' office at Louisburg College. Paul Sanderford, the first-year head coach of the women's basketball team at the North Carolina junior college, retrieved the bulletin from the wastebasket and handed it to Terry Pettit, the school's head volleyball coach.

Without that assist from Sanderford, Pettit, an aspiring English teacher with a background in creative writing and poetry as well as coaching, would not have known about the opening. If he had not known about the opening, he would not have applied. And if he had not applied and been hired, the history of Husker volleyball would have been altered dramatically, because he and Husker volleyball became one and the same.

Pettit was the Nebraska volleyball coach from 1977 to 1999 — all but two years of the program's first 25 years of existence. Pat Sullivan, the Huskers' first volleyball coach, compiled an 83-21 record in two seasons of competition sanctioned by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

Before 1975, Nebraska didn't sponsor women's athletic teams. If women wanted to compete, they did so on loosely organized and unfunded club teams. It had been that way since the early 1900s, when a women's basketball team occasionally competed against teams from outside the University.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896, and as was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other.

Nebraska's first All-University women's team was organized in 1896 and included the best players regardless of class, according to the Nebraska State Journal. The team never lost, which should not be surprising, given how it was chosen and the quality of its intramural competition.

The first women's basketball game played before an audience was part of the University's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923," published in Nebraska History in the spring of 1975.

The first Husker volleyball team, coached by Pat Sullivan (far right, second row), set the tone for future teams, compiling a 34-8 record and advancing to the AIAW regional finals in 1975.

The 2000 Nebraska volleyball team (34-0) is the only team in school history, and just the second in NCAA history, to finish an undefeated season with a national title.

Louise Pound seems to have been the driving force in women's basketball at Nebraska, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was captain of the first team to play against an opponent from outside the University in March of 1898. Pound, who also was the first All-University tennis champion, scored 11 points in a 15-7 victory against a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Memorial Hall. Nebraska was represented by an A team and a B team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High School and Wahoo High School. Nebraska's A team won the two-day competition and a month later won a rematch with the Omaha YWCA in Omaha.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west," according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its more experienced — and to that point undefeated — opponent, losing 31-4.

The Nebraska women did not suffer their first defeat until 1904, when they lost to a team from the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out a team from the Lincoln YWCA. The Nebraska women avenged the Minnesota loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

The Nebraska women played games against the University of Minnesota, home-and-home two weeks apart, again in March of 1908, losing both, the second after a five-minute overtime.

Before the Minnesota games, Nebraska had defeated Nebraska Wesleyan to finish what was to be its final season with a 1-2 record against outside competition. University women were allowed to compete in basketball, as well as other sports, only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908.

In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the University board of regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. If not for the passing of Title IX by Congress in 1972, there probably would not be women's intercollegiate athletics now.

Initially, "there wasn't an embracing of women's athletics," Pettit said. "It's like any civil rights movement almost. It's tolerated, and you have to educate the public as to what it means. Today if you asked on a ballot if women should have the opportunity to compete in sports, there would be an overwhelming majority of people who would support it. But that wasn't the case in the 1970s.

"One of the things that allowed Nebraska to be successful was that we jumped in with both feet," Pettit said. "Nebraska decided: 'Well, if we're going to do this, let's do it well.' Whereas some schools were hesitant to get going, Nebraska was one of the first to offer scholarships. In any endeavor, if you're among the first, that gives you a tremendous advantage, and you continue to reap the benefits years later."

Under Pettit's direction, volleyball became to Husker women's athletics what football is to the Nebraska men's program. Pettit's teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament semifinals six times, and his 1995 team won the national championship, defeating Texas in the finals at Amherst, Mass.

The 1995 Huskers finished 32-1, with their only loss coming against Stanford in the second match of the season. Senior Allison Weston was the AVCA Co-Player of the Year and among three first-team All-Americans from Nebraska. The others were Christy Johnson and Lisa Reitsma.

Weston, a middle blocker, earned first-team All-America honors three times, the first Husker to do so. But Nebraska consistently has been represented on All-America teams since 1980, when Terri Kanouse became the Huskers' first volleyball All-American, as selected by the AIAW.

Three Huskers have earned first- or second-team All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association in the same season 10 times since 1984 — most recently in 2002, when Amber Holmquist and Greichaly Cepero earned first-team honors and Laura Pilakowski was named to the second team.

After the 1999 season, Pettit turned the program over to his long-time friend and former NU assistant coach, John Cook.

Cook arrived at Nebraska with impressive credentials after building the Wisconsin volleyball program into a national power, and he wasted no time making his mark at NU. In what was supposed to be a transition year, Cook led the Huskers to a perfect 34-0 record and the 2000 NCAA national title.

The following season, Cook again guided the Huskers to the NCAA semifinals, where they lost to eventual national champion Stanford. And in 2002 and 2003, Cook took the Huskers to the regional final match and the regional semifinal match, respectively. In four years, Cook has guided Nebraska to a 124-9 record, a national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and three Big 12 championships.

The tradition that Cook continues to build began in 1978, when Kanouse and Shandi Pettine were the first Nebraska volleyball players to be recruited with full scholarships. By 1981, Pettit could award 12 scholarships.

"We had a full complement," he said. "And that put us ahead of some schools."

Those first Nebraska teams included primarily in-state athletes. But Kanouse was from Indiana and Pettine was from Colorado, evidence not only of Pettit's interest in expanding the Huskers' recruiting base, but also of the respect his program was earning beyond the state's borders.

Fiona Nepo, one of only seven setters in NCAA history to earn All-America certificates three times came from Honolulu, Hawaii.

Karen Dahlgren, an All-American in 1985 and 1986, and Lynae Loseke, whose career was cut short by a knee injury, walked on, another element of the volleyball program's consistent success shared by the football program.

"We don't have 50 walk-ons, but if we can get one good one a year, it pays off," Pettit said.

The 1981 and 1982 recruits, which included Cathy Noth (from Iowa) and Mary Buysse (from Minnesota), gave the Huskers "two really good classes in a row," Pettit said. And, except for Dahlgren, who redshirted, they helped get Nebraska into the NCAA Tournament for the first time.

The Huskers had qualified for the AIAW National Tournament in 1978 at Tuscaloosa, Ala., but "there was no excitement because nobody here got to see the matches," Pettit said.

That changed in 1982, when Nebraska defeated a Penn State team coached by Russ Rose (Pettit's assistant in 1977) in the NCAA Tournament's first round before a large and enthusiastic crowd at the NU Coliseum.

"That was a dramatic step for the program," Pettit said. "It was the first time we really had an opportunity to market something. I don't think anything changes the perception of an athletic program like hosting an NCAA event. From then on, we were always playing, always hosting."

The Huskers have qualified for 19 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, which "may be our biggest achievement is the consistency. We're always very competitive," Pettit said.

Nebraska reached the NCAA finals for the first time in 1986, Dahlgren's senior season, defeating Stanford in the semifinals but losing to Pacific on its home court in Stockton, Calif.

Three seasons later, the persistent Huskers were back in the NCAA title match, losing to Long Beach State (after defeating UCLA) at Honolulu, Hawaii. Pettit realized then that his program had progressed to a point where winning the national championship was a realistic goal.

Several other factors contributed to the success of the Nebraska volleyball program, including the Coliseum, which was refurbished and reconfigured specifically as a volleyball facility in 1993.

The intimacy of the Coliseum is a significant factor in fan support, which has kept Nebraska among the nation's leaders in attendance. The Huskers set an NCAA regular-season attendance record in 2000, when 12,504 fans attended Nebraska's match against Colorado Nov. 4 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

The Coliseum, however, is Nebraska's home.

"I believe it is a major reason for interest," Pettit said. "People like the building. They like watching events here," Pettit said. "It's an intimate facility. It's a collegiate facility. You walk into the big fieldhouses, and you could be anywhere in the country."

Fans also know what to expect from the Husker teams that play there.

"They know what type of effort they're going to see," Pettit said. "The fans are only 10 or 15 feet removed from the playing court, so they can tell whether or not there's enthusiasm, whether or not people (the athletes) are communicating. That's what they really come to see. It certainly helps that Nebraska wins. The winning gets you there the first time. But you can't have a great enterprise, whether it be a business or an athletic team, unless you have an identity."

"People have that feeling about Nebraska volleyball. They know exactly what it is. They know what type of athlete is on the court. They know the style of play. They know the effort. They know the consistency. They know that she's a good student. And they know that she's a solid citizen when she goes on to her career after volleyball."

The attraction wasn't immediate. Though the program has been successful from the beginning, it experienced some lean times as far as interest and support.

"It's been a slow, consistent growth," Pettit said. "I think that fits Nebraskans. They aren't real impressed with flash or something that just happens in the short term. What they want to see is progress over the long run. 'Show me that you'll continue to get the job done.' If you do that, then they'll ride with you even when things aren't so good."

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the 2000 season with a No. 11 preseason ranking and an eagerness to prove the pollsters wrong. Competing with a new coach, a new setter and without two-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) didn't scare the Huskers. A trio of sophomore All-Americans, including AVCA Player-of-the-Year Greichaly Cepero, emerged to lead NU to a 34-0 record and the program's second national title. With a 3-2 win over Wisconsin Dec. 15 in the championship final, the Huskers became just the second team in NCAA history to finish a season undefeated. First-year Head Coach John Cook earned AVCA Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska relied on its greatest strength, its block, to stifle Hawaii at the net in a 3-1 victory. The Huskers out-blocked the Rainbow Wahine 23-7.5, as Jenny Kropp and Amber Holmquist each tallied 10 block assists. With the win, the Huskers broke the school record for consecutive victories in the modern era of five-game matches. NU produced 36 victories in 1976 when all matches were played as two-out-of-three contests.

Final

After falling behind 2-1, Nebraska breezed to a 15-2 win in the fourth game to force a rally-scoring fifth game for the national title. With senior Kim Behrends at the service line, Laura Pilakowski slammed her 23rd kill of the match to secure the championship. Pilakowski was joined on the NCAA All-Tournament team by classmates Greichaly Cepero and Amber Holmquist. Cepero added 52 assists, eight digs, eight kills and seven blocks, while Holmquist added 16 kills on a .387 hitting efficiency with five blocks.

Highlighting the 2000 Season

- Nebraska claimed its 23rd Big Eight/Big 12 championship in 25 seasons. With a 20-0 run through the league, the Huskers improved their all-time mark against Big 12 schools to 375-32-1, an amazing .920 winning percentage.

- Nebraska, ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Coaches poll for 14 straight weeks, swept 26 of its 34 opponents and 17 of its 20 conference opponents, losing just five games in Big 12 play. Only three teams took NU to five games.

- Amber Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. Holmquist also broke the Big 12 record for total blocks in a single game with 16 at Texas on Oct. 22.

- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 12,504 fans cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Nov. 4, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"If there are 10 teams better than us, I think it's going to be a heck of a year in college volleyball, because believe me, we're going to be pretty good."

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the season with one goal in mind, win the national championship. Led by a talented trio of seniors, the Huskers capped their championship run by hammering Texas 3-1 in the title match. After three previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Huskers' incredible drive and focus fueled them to their first national title.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska countered a 10-15 loss in game one, by winning the second and third games, 15-8. Michigan State responded to NU's challenge, winning the fourth game, 15-9. In the fifth and decisive game, with the score deadlocked at 7-7, NU scored four-straight points, forging to an 11-7 lead. The Spartans added one more point, but the Huskers prevailed, 15-8. Allison Weston led the Husker charge, recording a team-high 30 kills.

Final

In the finals, Texas jumped to an early 12-4 lead in game one, but the Huskers rallied to make it close, losing 10-15. Although they lost the first game, the Huskers gained momentum, playing solidly at the end of the game. NU cruised to wins in games two and three, thumping the Longhorns, 15-2 and 15-7. Game four swayed back and forth, but the Huskers persevered, sealing NU's first national title with a 16-14 victory. Billie Winsett and Kate Crnich led the way, posting 25 kills each. Crnich's 25 kills were a career high, hitting .500 for the match.

Highlighting the 1995 Season

- After losing its second match of the season to then-No. 1 Stanford, NU reeled off 31 consecutive matches to claim the NCAA title. An amazing 28 of Nebraska's 32 victories were 3-0 wins.

- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever national championship, the Huskers posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Nebraska finished with a 32-1 (.970) record, bettering the .969 percentage it posted in 1994 (31-1). NU also matched the then-school record for wins, equalling the 1990 squad's record total of 32.

- Allison Weston shattered Eileen Shannon's Husker school record for career kills (1,521), finishing her career with 1,778.

- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 11,529 cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Oct. 21, at the Devaney Center. NU set the previous record of 11,032, Sept. 14, 1991, also at the Devaney Center. The mark would stand until the 2000 season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We certainly should be strong. We have great senior leadership in Allison Weston, Billie Winsett and Christy Johnson. We were 31-1 last season (1994) and I think we're going to be better this year."

1989 NCAA Finalist | 29-4, (12-0 Big Eight) | Honolulu, Hawaii

A Second Time

After a two-year hiatus, Nebraska, led by seniors Virginia Stahr and Carla Baker, made its second appearance at the NCAA Championships. In 1986, the Huskers had advanced to the championship match before losing to Pacific. In 1989, NU was hoping for better luck in Honolulu, Hawaii. But fate was not on Nebraska's side. The Husker hitters made quick work of UCLA, before losing, 3-0, to Long Beach State.

Semifinals

A balanced Husker attack and solid defensive play propelled Nebraska past a UCLA team that had lost just two matches all season. Cris Hall led NU with 19 kills, while Janet Kruse had 12, Eileen Shannon had 11 and Virginia Stahr added 10. NU out-hit UCLA .265 to .160.

Final

Unfortunately, Nebraska's second championship match was much like its first in 1986. Nebraska battled hard in the first game, only to lose 15-12. From that point on, the Huskers could not regain their winning ways, as Long Beach State cruised, 15-0, 15-6 to win the match. The Huskers were runners up for the second time, while the 49ers won their first NCAA title. Shannon led Nebraska with 11 kills, and Hall added 10.

Highlighting the 1989 Season

- Nebraska lost just four matches on the year, its lowest total since the 1985 (28-3) season.

- Virginia Stahr captured several awards in 1989 including Delta Scholar Athlete of the Year, Woody Hayes Female Athlete of the Year, Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Today's Top Six Award.

- Nebraska won its 14th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record. NU won the tournament crown with a 3-0 win over Oklahoma.

- The Huskers started the year with a season-high 14-match winning streak.

- Nebraska set team records in 1989 with 2,031 kills, 1,803 assists and a 17.07 kill average.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"I believe we will have one of the deeper teams we've ever had. As to whether or not we are in a position to challenge for the national championship will depend on if we stay healthy."

— Pettit before the 1989 season

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Breakthrough Season

After losing in the Mideast Regional final the previous two seasons, Nebraska broke through the field in 1986 and made its first-ever trip to the NCAA championship. Led by senior All-Americans Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise, the Big Eight champion Huskers traveled to Stockton, Calif., with an impressive 28-5 record. The Huskers defeated Stanford, 3-1, before falling to Pacific, 3-0.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska bounced back from a 15-7 loss in game one. Schonewise led the Husker attack with 15 kills, while Angie Millikin had 11 kills and a match-high 18 digs. Nebraska hit .258 (66-25-159) for the match and held the Cardinal to just .089 (54-38-180).

Finals

In the championship match, Nebraska met a Pacific team that had lost just one game during the entire NCAA Tournament. The Huskers hung tough in game one, coming back from a 14-9 deficit to cut the margin to two at 14-12. But the Tigers were too much, as they converted their third game point for the 15-12 win. The first game took too much out of the Huskers, as they fell in games two and three by scores of 15-4, 15-4.

Highlighting the 1986 Season

- Nebraska set four single-season team records, including most kills, attacks, hitting percentage and digs. Schonewise set individual season records for kills, kills per game and attacks.

- The Huskers set an NCAA record with a .331 hitting percentage, a mark that still ranks fifth all time.

- Nebraska won its 11th straight Big Eight championship in 1986 with a 10-0 record and defeated Oklahoma, 3-0, for the tournament trophy in Salina, Kan.

- Nebraska won a season-high nine matches in a row from Sept. 27 to Oct. 25. The Huskers never lost two matches in a row all season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We have never graduated three people that were as exceptional players at their positions as Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise. They were among the top two or three players at their positions in the country."

— Pettit after the 1986 season

2001 NCAA Semifinalist | 31-2 (20-0 Big 12) | San Diego, Calif.

Nebraska falls to Stanford

Nebraska fell two wins shy in its bid to repeat as national champions, as U.S. National Team member Logan Tom pounded 22 kills to lead Stanford to a 3-0 win over NU in the NCAA semifinals. The loss capped an otherwise successful season for the Huskers, who were 31-2 overall and 20-0 in the Big 12 Conference, dropping just three games in conference play. NU Coach John Cook was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the Big 12 Player of the Year.

Return to the Championships

The Huskers' eighth semifinal bid did not come easily. After breezing to wins in games one and two, Nebraska lost the competitive third game and then dropped game four to Florida. NU, which had not played a five-game match all year, trailed 12-10 when Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) responded with back-to-back kills to even the score. After a Florida service error, Metcalf (Meendering) pounded another kill to bring Nebraska within a point of the win. AVCA All-American Aury Cruz held NU off with a kill, but Metcalf (Meendering) answered on the next rally with her 25th kill of the match for the 15-13, NU victory.

Regional Semifinals

Sophomore outside hitter Anna Schrad produced a career-best 17 kills and a team-high 13 digs to lead the second-seeded Nebraska volleyball team to a 29-31, 30-21, 30-26, 36-34, victory over No. 15 seed Colorado State in the NCAA Tournament regional semifinal match at the NU Coliseum. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Laura Pilakowski each added 13 kills for the Huskers, and Jenny Kropp tallied a match-high 10 blocks, as the Huskers out-blocked CSU 18-11 while holding the Rams to a .168 hitting percentage in the nailbiter.

Highlighting the 2001 Season

- The Huskers earned their eighth NCAA semifinal bid – including their fourth in the past six years – and made their 20th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

- NU played host to an NCAA regional for the 12th time in school history.

- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 12th time in program history and the second straight season, posting an amazing 65-2 mark during the 2000-01 seasons.

- Nebraska broke the school record for opponent attack percentage, holding teams to a .106 combined mark. The previous record of .109 was set by the 1995 national championship team.

- NU set a school record with four All-Americans in the same season, including first-team selections Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Amber Holmquist and second-team honorees Jenny Kropp and Greichaly Cepero.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"I envision it all the time. It's where I was born, where I started coaching, where I went to school for graduate and undergraduate degrees. It's kind of a dream to go back where I started coaching. It should be really neat."

– Cook before traveling to San Diego, his hometown, for the 2001 NCAA semifinals

Nebraska Falls to Penn State

Nebraska's senior-laden team of Fiona Nepo, Megan Korver and Jaime Krondak guided the Huskers to one of the best seasons in NU history. While Nepo and Krondak couldn't grab the second national championship of their careers, the Big 12 champions made their third trip to the NCAA semifinals. Nebraska finished the season with a perfect 18-0 record at home to extend its Coliseum win streak to 65 matches.

Return to the Championships

Nebraska's victory over Wisconsin in the regional championship in Lincoln was a memorable one, as the longest match in school history spanned nearly three hours. Nebraska avoided a two-game deficit by withstanding 14 game points to win game two, 18-16. Wisconsin won game three, 15-9, but Nebraska came right back to claim game four, 15-10. In the rally-scoring fifth game, NU recovered from a 9-7 hole to blitz to a 15-10 win. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the tournament MVP after posting 27 kills and breaking a 12-year Coliseum record for attacks with 78.

NCAA Semifinals

The match between the Huskers (32-1) and the Penn State Nittany Lions (34-0) featured three AVCA All-Americans on each side of the net and the top offense (PSU) and top blocking attack (NU) in the country. The third-ranked Huskers rallied from a two-game deficit by winning game three and led midway through game four, 6-2. But Lauren Cacciamani recorded seven kills in nine swings to lead Penn State to the victory. NU finished with 20 blocks.

Highlighting the 1998 Season

- Nebraska opened the season with a perfect 25-0 record to extend its regular-season streak to 35 straight wins.

- Nebraska claimed its second Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league record and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the third time in four seasons. Nebraska also led the nation with 3.93 blocks per game.

- Fiona Nepo shattered Nikki Stricker's career assist record by becoming Nebraska's all-time assist leader. She finished her career as one of only six setters in NCAA history to earn three AVCA All-America certificates.

- Fiona Nepo, Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Megan Korver were named AVCA All-Americans, marking the seventh time NU had three AVCA All-Americans in one season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"I don't know that I've ever had this strong of conflicted feelings. I was happy as I could be and as sad as I could be for Wisconsin. Certainly you can celebrate, but I'm just more in awe of the match, more than I am wanting to celebrate."

— Terry Pettit after Nebraska's 3-2, come-from-behind victory over Wisconsin in the NCAA Pacific Regional

Near Repeat

Despite the loss of three standout seniors who guided Nebraska to its first national title in 1995, and injuries to three key players, the Huskers nearly became the first team to repeat as NCAA champions since UCLA turned the trick in 1990 and 1991. NU fell only two matches shy of back-to-back national championships, dropping a hard-fought decision to eventual champion Stanford in the semifinals.

Fifth NCAA Semifinal Berth

Nebraska's thrilling come-from-behind victory over Penn State in the East Regional final propelled the Huskers to their second consecutive NCAA semifinal berth and fifth in program history. In the East Regional final, the Huskers claimed the first and third games, while the Nittany Lions won the second and fourth games. In the fifth game, PSU quickly forged ahead, moving to an 11-5 advantage, before a furious Husker rally. Each team fought off four match points before the Huskers prevailed 20-18, as Megan Korver slammed three straight kills to secure the win.

NCAA Semifinal

The 30-3 Huskers faced top-seeded Stanford (29-2), which featured four AVCA All-Americans. Nebraska won the first game, 15-9, but the Cardinal amassed large leads in each of the next three games, securing a 3-1 win. Two days later, the Cardinal swept Hawaii for the national title. Reitsma led the Huskers, as she had all season, with a match-high 22 kills. Kate Crnich smacked 16 kills and added a match-high 15 digs.

Highlighting the 1996 Season

- Nebraska opened the season by recording its then-school record 32nd-straight victory, a 3-1 triumph over host Illinois State in the second annual State Farm/NACWAA Classic.

- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league ledger, the Huskers claimed the NCAA East Regional crown, advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the second consecutive season. Nebraska's 30-4 record marked the third straight season the Huskers tallied 30 or more wins. The Huskers were 17-0 at home.

- Lisa Reitsma shattered Kathi DeBoer's single-season kill total (529 in 1987) with 611. In addition, Reitsma established a new kills per game mark (5.05), bettering Allison Weston's 1994 figure of 4.99 kills per game.

- In her first season as NU's starting setter, sophomore Fiona Nepo posted a school-record 1,653 set assists, eclipsing the 1989 standard of 1,608, set by Val Novak.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"It was like two terriers pulling on a rag, back and forth, and neither would let go."

Back-to-Back

For the second consecutive season, Nebraska returned to the NCAA Championships, only to be ousted one match short of the finals. Once again, as it did in 1986, Pacific sent the Huskers home with a 3-1 loss. It was the Tigers' second victory of the season against Nebraska, as the Tigers defeated the Huskers 3-1 in an early season tournament.

NCAA Semifinals

A close match throughout, Nebraska and Pacific's intense game one set the tone. Nebraska led 13-11, but saw the Tigers score four unanswered points and claim the crucial first game. The Huskers rebounded for a 15-11 win in game two, scoring the game's final three points. Games three and four were equally competitive, but the Tigers had the stamina to thwart Nebraska's attack, winning 15-9 and 15-12. Cris Hall led NU with 18 kills, while Val Novak had 46 assists and a match-high 17 digs. Krissy Fifer led the Pacific attack with 21 kills.

Highlighting the 1990 Season

- In terms of winning percentage, Nebraska finished with its then-best season ever at 32-3 (.914). Before losing to Pacific in the semifinals, Nebraska had won 16 straight contests.

- Nebraska set team records in block assists (558) and opponent hitting percentage (.135).

- Nebraska won its 15th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record and the tournament crown with a win over Colorado.

- The 1990 season was the last at the Nebraska Coliseum until it reopened for volleyball in 1992. In 1990 the Huskers were a perfect 18-0 and drew an average of 2,816 fans. At the Devaney Center in 1991, Nebraska set the then-national attendance record with 11,032 fans in a match against UCLA.

Nebraska All-America Facts

- Nebraska has had 23 athletes earn a total of 46 AVCA All-America certificates (NCAA play only), the highest total of any Division I institution.

- Allison Weston and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) are the only Nebraska players to win three first-team All-America honors.

- Nebraska (46), Texas (17), Texas A&M (7), Kansas State (2), Missouri (1) and Texas Tech (1) are the six Big 12 Conference schools to have produced an All-American.

- Nebraska (28), Texas (9), Texas A&M (2) and Kansas State (1) are the four Big 12 Conference schools to have produced a first-team All-American, while Nebraska's 28 certificates ranks second nationally to Stanford, which has 29.

- Ten of the 23 Huskers who have earned All-America honors were Nebraska natives, while all but Aloha State native Fiona Nepo and Puerto Rico native Greichaly Cepero were originally from the Midwest.

- The Huskers placed a school-record four players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2001, as Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Amber Holmquist earned first-team honors, and Jenny Kropp and Greichaly Cepero were named to the second team.

ALL-AMERICAN BIOS

Melissa Elmer, 2003
Middle Blocker, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Melissa Elmer earned second-team AVCA All-America honors as a sophomore in 2003 after emerging as one of the top players in the Big 12 Conference. Elmer led the Big 12 in blocks per game (1.64) and hitting percentage (.379) in league matches. Elmer also ranked sixth nationally in blocks per game. Elmer's 169 block assists were the third-highest single-season total ever at NU. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native broke the NU postseason single-match hitting percentage mark, posting 15 kills on a .737 clip against Dayton in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

Greichaly Cepero, 2000, 2001, 2002
Setter, Dorado, Puerto Rico

Greichaly Cepero virtually redefined the setter position with her all-around skills and blocking ability during her highly decorated career at Nebraska. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. She also earned Big 12

Player-of-the-Year honors in 2000 and shared the award with teammates Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski in 2002. A CoSIDA Academic All-American, Cepero was also the 2000 Honda Award winner for volleyball. The best blocking setter in NU history, Cepero ended her senior season tied for fourth on the all-time charts with 84 career solo blocks, and ranks seventh all-time in total blocks (507) and third in set assists (3,987). In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU never hit less than .304 and ranked among the top 10 nationally in that category each of the three seasons.

Middle Blocker, Houston, Texas

Amber Holmquist will be remembered as the best middle blocker in school history. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2001 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2000, Holmquist owns or shares 17 school records and eight Big 12 Conference records. Not even halfway through her senior season, Holmquist broke the NU career total blocks (728) and career block assists (646) records set by three-time All-American Stephanie Thater in 1992. Holmquist also concluded her career ranked second on the all-time charts with a .396 hitting percentage and 11th on the all-time kills chart with 1,122. As a sophomore in 2000, Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. A 2002 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, Holmquist also set Big 12 Conference records for single-season hitting percentage, total blocks and blocks per game, as well as single-match records for block assists and total blocks. Holmquist finished her career as the only player in school history to lead NU in hitting percentage and blocks per game in four consecutive seasons.

Outside Hitter, Columbus, Neb.

Laura Pilakowski earned first-team AVCA All-America honors in her first season as a starter in 2000, and second team honors in her final season with NU in 2002. One of the most dynamic and powerful outside hitters in Husker history, Pilakowski will also be remembered as one of the most efficient.

The 2001 Husker Power Female Athlete of the Year, Pilakowski finished her career ranked ninth all-time with 1,183 kills and eighth with a .318 career hitting percentage, the best mark in school history by an outside hitter. The Huskers' go-to offensive player during the 2000 national title run, Pilakowski led the Huskers with 4.30 kills per game and a .336 hitting percentage as a sophomore. She pounded 23 kills to lead NU in the 2000 national championship match. Pilakowski is just the third three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in school history.

Jenny Kropp, 2001
Middle Blocker, Grand Island, Neb.

Jenny Kropp was named an AVCA Second-Team All-American after dominating opponents at the net in 2001 with 1.73 blocks per game and 180 total blocks. Offensively, Kropp hit .371 with 2.45 kills per game as a senior. She finished her career with 816 kills and a .331 career hitting percentage. Kropp still ranks fifth all-time in total blocks (544), third in block assists (484) and is tied for 10th in solo blocks (60).

Right Side Hitter, Hull, Iowa

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) will be remembered as one of the best players in Nebraska volleyball history. Metcalf was just the second three-time AVCA First-Team All-American at Nebraska. She was also honored as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year, a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, the 2001 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, a two-time NCAA Regional MVP and a three-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree. Metcalf finished her career with 1,603 kills and 412 blocks, joining U.S. National Team captain Allison Weston as the only two players in program history to rank among the NU top 11 in career kills and career blocks. The Hull, Iowa, native is the only Husker to record six 30-kill matches in a career. She owns or shares 13 school records, including kills in a single match with 39 against Kansas State. As a junior, she broke the single-season school record for kills per game, averaging 5.09 in 1999.

Megan Korver, 1998
Middle Blocker, Panama, Neb.

Megan Korver, a native of Panama, Neb., emerged as one of the dominant middle blockers in the country during her senior season to earn second-team AVCA All-America honors. Korver led the nation in hitting percentage through the first half of the season and finished with an impressive .358. She broke a school record and became just the 11th player in NCAA history to hit 1,000 in a match by recording 10 kills on 10 swings against Iowa State. Korver ranks ninth on the school charts with 517 total blocks despite playing just two seasons at NU.

Fiona Nepo, 1996, 1997, 1998
Setter, Honolulu, Hawaii

Fiona Nepo had one of the most decorated careers of any player in Nebraska volleyball history. The 1998 Big 12 Player of the Year, Nepo finished her career as the all-time assist leader at NU with 4,824, and she also owns the NU single-season assists record, which she set in 1996 with 1,653. Nepo was one of only six setters in NCAA Division I history to earn three All-America certificates, earning first-team honors her sophomore and senior seasons. With Nepo in the starting lineup, Nebraska compiled an 88-13 overall record, including a 54-6 Big 12 mark, won two Big 12 championships and made two NCAA semifinal appearances. The three-time team captain was also a tremendous jump server, notching 94 service aces during her career.

ALL-AMERICANS

Right Side Hitter, Sanborn, Iowa

Lisa Reitsma earned first-team All-America honors as a sophomore and junior and a second-team award as a senior. Reitsma was a three-time first-team all-conference selection, including the 1996 Big 12 Player of the Year. She burst on the scene as a sophomore and was a key ingredient as the Huskers won their first national title. Reitsma left her mark on the Husker record books, as she ranks in the top 10 in kills (1,633, second), attacks (3,766, second) and hitting percentage (.302, ninth). She had more than 25 kills in a match nine times, the second-most by any Husker in school history.

Christy Johnson, 1994, 1995
Setter, Omaha, Neb.

Christy Johnson guided the Huskers to their first national championship in 1995 and earned first-team All-America honors her junior and senior seasons. She holds the second-best winning percentage of any starting setter in school history, leading Nebraska to a near-perfect 63-2 record, including 24-0 in Big Eight play, over her final two seasons. She still holds the top two season marks for assists-per-game in school history and ranks fifth in career assists with 3,183. She was also a 1995 CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Outside Hitter, Papillion, Neb.

Allison Weston, a native of Papillion, Neb., is arguably one of the best collegiate players in NCAA history. Nebraska's first three-time, first-team AVCA All-American, Weston capped an impressive career by winning the 1995 national title and sharing AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors with Cary Wendell of Stanford. The former captain of the U.S. National Team, Weston still holds school records for kills in a four-game match (37) and career kills (1,778). She also ranks in the career top 10 in attacks (fourth, 3,659), service aces (sixth, 119), solo blocks (tied for fourth, 84), block assists (eighth, 422), total blocks (eighth, 506), and hitting percentage (sixth, .353). Weston holds three of the top-10 single-match kill performances. A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, Weston was also a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year.

Kelly Aspegren, 1994
Outside Hitter, Callaway, Neb.

Kelly Aspegren, a two-year starter for the Huskers, had 332 kills as a senior and hit .344 to lead Nebraska, including .410 in Big Eight play. Aspegren was a first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior and was tabbed honorable mention as a junior. She was also a two-time academic All-Big Eight selection. During her two years as a starter, Nebraska compiled a 56-7 overall mark and a 22-2 Big Eight ledger. She finished her career with 557 kills on 1,329 attacks for a .280 career hitting percentage and an average of 2.29 kills per game. She also recorded 657 digs and 152 blocks for career averages of 2.70 and 0.64 per game.

Middle Blocker, Union, Mo.

Stephanie Thater was the second three-time All-American in Husker volleyball history and is still regarded as one of the best middle blockers to come through the Nebraska program. She led her team to the NCAA semifinals as a sophomore and compiled an 81-14 record in her three years as a starter. Her teams went 48-0 in regular-season conference play, winning four Big Eight titles and three conference tournament championships. Thater was a three-time first-team All-Big Eight selection, including the 1991 and 1992 conference player of the year. She holds school records for block assists in a five-game match with 14. Her season records for block assists (165), total blocks (197) and blocks per game (1.92) stood for seven years before Amber Holmquist topped them in 2000, and her career records for block assists (502) and total blocks (591) stood for 10 years before Holmquist surpassed them in 2002.

Cris Hall, 1991
Outside Hitter, Chanute, Kan.

Cris Hall is one of only five athletes and the only female in Nebraska history to earn All-America honors in two different sports. Hall was a second-team All-American as an outside hitter in 1991, and earned four All-America track certificates from 1991 to 1993 (three high jump, one heptathlon). Hall still holds the NU all-time outdoor track records in the high jump (6-2 1/4) and heptathlon (5,936 points). Her career-high 30 kills against Ohio State still rank among Nebraska's top-20 performances. Her 1,251 career kills rank eighth in school history.

Outside Hitter, Fort Calhoun, Neb.

Janet Kruse is one of the finest student-athletes to ever play for the Huskers. A native of Fort Calhoun, Neb., Kruse was Nebraska's first three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in 1989 and 1990 and second-team honors in 1991. She was also named the NCAA Woman of the Year and garnered an NCAA Today Top Eight award in 1992 after twice earning GTE Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1990 and 1991. She also earned third-team academic All-America honors in 1989. During her career, the Huskers made two NCAA semifinal appearances, including a title appearance in 1989. Her 33 kills in a five-game win over Kentucky is tied for seventh on the all-time single-match charts. Kruse also ranks seventh on Nebraska's career kill charts with 1,269 kills.

Val Novak, 1989, 1990
Setter, Oak Lawn, Ill.

A native of Oak Lawn, Ill., Val Novak earned first-team All-America certificates after leading the Huskers to NCAA semifinal appearances in 1989 and 1990, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Novak, who converted to setter after playing outside hitter her first two seasons, ended her career by earning the Big Eight Player-of-the-Year award in 1990. She finished with 778 career kills, holds the school record for career service aces (161), and ranks fourth in digs (1,068) and fourth in set assists (3,305). She led the nation in assists per game and guided Nebraska to the nation's top hitting percentage in 1989. NU never finished lower than fifth in the national rankings during her career.

ALL-AMERICANS

23 All-America Athletes | 46 All-America Certificates

Virginia Stahr, 1988, 1989
Middle Blocker, Waco, Neb.

Virginia Stahr set the standard for excellence in the Nebraska volleyball program as a standout athlete and student. Stahr was tabbed a two-time All-American and capped her career by leading the Huskers to a national runner-up finish in 1989. She earned the NCAA Today Top Eight award after earning Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1988 and 1989. Her teams won four Big Eight regular-season titles and three conference tournament titles, and she was named the 1989 Big Eight Player of the Year. She still shares the school record for service aces in a five-game match (7), while her 31 kills vs. Texas rank 15th on the all-time single-match charts. She holds two of the top three single-season hitting percentage marks. She also ranks second in school history in career service aces (159) and solo blocks (106), and she is third in total blocks (555). Stahr is fifth all-time in block assists.

Lori Endicott, 1987, 1988
Setter, Springfield, Mo.

Lori Endicott is the most decorated setter in Nebraska's long line of All-America setters. Endicott earned first-team honors as a senior and was a second-team selection as a junior after playing right side her first two seasons. Endicott continued her playing career as a member of the U.S. National Team from 1988 to 1996. She was America's starting setter at the 1992 and 1996 Olympic Games and was named the best setter at the Barcelona Games after leading the United States to a bronze medal. A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year, Endicott led Nebraska to four Big Eight regular-season titles during her career. She was also named a 1988 CoSIDA Academic All-American. Several of Endicott's marks may stand untouched for years, including her school-record 109 assists vs. Texas, which still stands as the NCAA single-match record.

Tisha Delaney, 1986
Setter, Festus, Mo.

Tisha Delaney is responsible for leading Nebraska to its first NCAA semifinal appearance in 1986, where the Huskers defeated Stanford before losing to Pacific in the title match. An AVCA Second-Team All-American as a senior, Delaney set school records as a senior for assists in four-game (63) and five-game matches (88), both of which Lori Endicott surpassed in 1988. Delaney still ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in service aces (49), and assists (1,433) as well as career assists (2,605).

Enid Schonewise, 1986
Outside Hitter, Beatrice, Neb.

Enid Schonewise earned second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big Eight honors in 1986. Schonewise established one of the program's oldest school records by slamming 38 kills against Arizona State, which stood until 1999. She also ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in kills (493) and total attacks (1,076), as well as career hitting percentage (.304).

Karen Dahlgren, 1985, 1986
Middle Blocker, Bertrand, Neb.

Karen Dahlgren played a key roll in Nebraska's 1986 national runner-up finish. A two-time All-American, Dahlgren was honored as a Honda-Broderick Award winner in 1987 after being named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team three straight years. One of the best blockers in school history, Dahlgren holds school records for solo blocks in three- and four-game matches. She also holds the top two single-season solo block marks as well as NU's career solo block record. She ranks fourth on the all-time total blocks chart with 550. The Bertrand native is also third in school history with a career hitting percentage of .386. She is one of only two players to lead the Huskers in a statistical category (blocks) all four years. She also led the team in hitting percentage for three seasons.

Annie Adamczak, 1985
Middle Blocker, Moose Lake, Minn.

Annie Adamczak was a three-year starter in the Nebraska volleyball program and capped her career by earning first-team Collegiate Volleyball Coaches Association All-America honors as a senior after leading the Huskers with 354 digs. She is one of three Nebraska volleyball players to be named the conference Female Athlete of the Year, joining Virginia Stahr in 1989 and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) in 2001. A two-time All-Big Eight selection, Adamczak holds the three-game school record with 28 digs against Montana. Her 932 career digs rank 11th all-time in NU school history. During Adamczak's career, Nebraska won all four regular-season and tournament conference titles and twice advanced to the NCAA Mideast Regional Championship.

Setter, Bettendorf, Iowa

Cathy Noth moved from outside hitter to setter her junior season and earned AVCA All-America honors in 1983 and 1984. Noth guided NU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1982 and helped Nebraska compile a four-year-record of 112-24, winning four Big Eight regular-season titles and four Big Eight Tournament crowns. She set a then-Big Eight and school record with a .398 hitting percentage in 1984. Noth's career hitting percentage of .366 still ranks fourth in school history. Noth was also Nebraska's first three-time All-Big Eight selection and the only volleyball player in the history of the conference to earn three Big Eight Tournament MVP awards. Noth served as an assistant coach under Terry Pettit from 1988 to 1998.

Terri Kanouse, 1980 (AIAW)
Middle Blocker, St. Paul, Ind.

Terri Kanouse helped put Nebraska on the volleyball map by earning AIAW All-America honors in 1980, the program's first national honor. A two-time first-team all-district selection, Kanouse was also named first-team All-Big Eight her final three seasons. Kanouse was also a two-year team captain for the Huskers.

ABOUT NEBRASKA

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL

N Winning Tradition

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL

Nebraska has set the standard for excellence in college volleyball, winning 25 Big Eight/Big 12 championships in 28 seasons. Nebraska has also won eight NCAA regional crowns, advancing to the NCAA semifinals in 1986, 1989, 1990, 1995, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2001. No other program has produced more volleyball All-Americans than Nebraska, which has seen 23 athletes earn 46 AVCA All-America certificates.

The Huskers are one of only two teams to be ranked in the USA Today/CSTV top 25 rankings for all 303 weeks, 269 of which have been in the top 10. Nebraska has been ranked No. 1 for a total of 38 weeks in school history, including the final 14 weeks of the 2000 season.

As they enter the NU Coliseum, fans are greeted by a bronze statue entitled "The Players." Symbolic of Nebraska volleyball, the statue was created in 1992 by nationally renowned artist George Lundeen. Former coach Terry Pettit (left) had this to say when it was unveiled on Sept. 1, 1992.

"I believe that as you enter the Coliseum for the first time and look upon the three players, each intense, focused and committed to the task, it will occur to you, as it occurs to me, that something important happens here. Something beyond individual honors or accomplishments. Something more important than the individuals themselves. This statue says, 'This is where women come to compete.'"

Lori Endicott (left), a two-time All-American at Nebraska, spent eight seasons as the starting setter for the U.S. National Team. In 1996, she competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta. Former Husker Stephanie Thater (right) played on the National Team in 1995 and 1996. Former assistant coach Cathy Noth was a member of the team from 1985 to 1988, and Val Novak also spent some time with the team in 1991. The 1996 AVCA Co-National Player of the Year, Allison Weston served as the captain of the 2000 Olympic team in Sydney, Australia. Former three-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) has been competing on the U.S. National Team for the past three years and was chosen for the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team.

"I think that is why there is a love affair with our fans and our team. They're great kids and they're good students, and they've grown up wanting to be Nebraska volleyball players."

No volleyball program attracts more media attention than Nebraska. Husker volleyball matches are broadcast on a 16-station radio network that is carried throughout the state. In addition, CSTV and NETV broadcast key matches during the season. The John Cook Nebraska Volleyball Show will air weekly during the season, further enhancing Nebraska's regional coverage. In 2004, Nebraska will stream every regular-season match (both audio and video) live on the Internet on Huskers.com.

N Magical Experience

HUSKER GAME DAY

At the Nebraska Coliseum, volleyball is not just a game, it's an event. Some of the things you'll see at an NU volleyball match include: Fans chanting "Husker Power" at deafening levels, Lil' Red entertaining children, the Husker drum line whipping the crowd into a frenzy before introductions and autograph seekers swarming the Huskers after each match.

Composed of some of the most dedicated fans in the nation, The Match Club is the official booster club of the Nebraska volleyball team. Following the team to all parts of the country, The Match Club sells a variety of Husker volleyball merchandise at each match, including chairbacks, T-shirts, posters, etc. For more information on The Match Club, call (402) 441-9826 or visit their website at thematchclub.org.

Among the national leaders in attendance every season, Nebraska boasts dedicated and loyal fans. In 2003, the Huskers finished third in the nation in attendance, drawing 63,587 fans in 15 matches for an average of 4,239 per contest.

Fans are known to line up as much as three to four hours in advance for a chance to see their beloved Husker volleyball team in action.

The Nebraska Coliseum has been home for the Huskers since the program began in 1975. The Huskers will carry a streak of 41 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum into the 2004 season, and the Huskers annually rank among the national leaders in attendance.

An school-record crowd of 12,504 attended Nebraska's match against Colorado in the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Nov. 4, 2000 (above). Nebraska holds two of the three largest regular-season crowds in NCAA history at the Devaney Center.

"I get goosebumps every night on the bench before the match starts. It's an awesome environment. You won't find anything like it anywhere else."

► Craig Skinner Assistant Coach

1995 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After losing to Stanford in its second match of the season, the 1995 Nebraska volleyball team reeled off 31 consecutive wins, including a 3-1 win over Texas to claim the program's first national title. An amazing 28 of the Huskers' 32 victories were 3-0 wins. Nebraska posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Three NU players were named AVCA All-Americans, including AVCA Co-National Player-of-the-Year Allison Weston (right).

Nebraska beat Texas, 3-1, with the help of 25 kills each from Billie Winsett (right) and Kate Crnich.

N The Perfect Season

2000 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 2000 Nebraska volleyball team produced one of the most successful seasons in NCAA history en route to winning the program's second national championship with a 3-2 victory over Wisconsin. Ranked sixth and 11th in the preseason polls, the young Huskers surprised everyone but themselves, finishing the season with a 34-0 record and becoming just the second team in NCAA history to go undefeated and win a national title. First-year Coach John Cook was named the AVCA Coach of the Year, and first-year setter Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors.

Nebraska beat Wisconsin, 3-2, and took the national title when Laura Pilakowski pounded her 23rd kill of the match.

Partial Speech from President Bush - May 31, 2001

"This has been an unbelievably strong team, made up of some unique individuals, starting with the Player of the Year, Greichaly Cepero. It is a huge honor to be the player of the year. And Greichaly, congratulations to you, and Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski. But it's more than just being great players, it's important to be good people, too. And that's the thing that I have been most impressed with by this club. Not only are the girls up here champs on the court, but they've been champs in the classroom. And it's important for young men and women who look at the Nebraska champs to understand that quality of life is more than just blocking shots. Good quality of life means excelling in the classroom and also in the neighborhoods across America ... And finally, I can't go without saying how impressed I am by the Nebraska fan base. Whether it be for women's volleyball or maybe football. But there's nothing like the Big Red."

N Coaching Excellence

COOK/SKINNER/TAGALOA

Since taking over for legendary coach Terry Pettit on Dec. 15, 1999, John Cook has led Nebraska to the 2000 national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and three Big 12 Conference titles. Cook has guided NU to a 124-9 overall record and a 77-3 league mark. With Cook at the helm, NU has produced one U.S. Olympian, one AVCA Division I National Player of the Year, one NCAA Top Eight award winner, one Honda Award winner, 11 AVCA All-Americans, one CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year and six CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Craig Skinner trains the Nebraska middle blockers and coordinates the Huskers' defense. NU has led the nation in blocks per game the past three seasons. The Huskers averaged a school-record 4.18 blocks per game in 2000. Under Skinner's direction, Nebraska's middle blockers have earned five All-America awards in the past four years.

Charlene Tagaloa is in her second year with the Husker staff and coaches the setters. Tagaloa brings extensive international experience to Nebraska. A member of the U.S. National Team from 1997 to 2001, she was the starting setter for the squad from January of 1999 to August of 2000.

N Giving Back

HUSKER OUTREACH

Nebraska players participate in clinics and camps, working with youth from across the state. Huskers have also participated in the "I've Got Heart Card Series," Lincoln Children's Museum Big Red Day, and Meals on Wheels.

The Nebraska volleyball team gives back to the community in many ways. Husker players mentor youths in local schools, visit children in hospitals and make appearances at events like the "School is Cool" Jam, which reaches children across the state with a positive message. The Huskers also help celebrate amateur athletics in Nebraska through the Cornhusker State Games.

N Setter University

ALL-AMERICA HISTORY

Nebraska has always had a reputation as one of the most prestigious volleyball programs in the country. But it is Nebraska's reputation of developing student-athletes into the world's best volleyball players that has made it a haven for the game's premier setters. NU has produced 15 All-Americans in 20 seasons at the sport's toughest position.

As a sophomore in 2000, Greichaly Cepero became the first Nebraska setter to earn AVCA Division I Player-of-the-Year honors. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU compiled a 96-4 record and never hit less than .300 in a season to rank among the top 10 nationally each year.

The first in a long line of fine setters, Cathy Noth was a major contributor to the Husker volleyball program as a 10-year assistant. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1984 to 1988 and an alternate for the 1988 Olympic Team. Noth was also a two-time All-American, a three-time All-Big Eight selection and the Big Eight Tournament MVP a record three times.

* First-Team Honoree

The most decorated of all the NU setters, Lori Endicott joined the U.S. National Team in 1988 and was a mainstay at setter for eight years. She participated in the 1992 and the 1996 Olympic games, earning a bronze medal in the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. A two-time All-America and three-time All-Big Eight performer, Endicott was the Big Eight Player of the Year in 1987 and 1988 and was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1988.

"Our All-America setters all understood the game beyond themselves. They were willing to lead and serve their teammates. They were willing to do whatever it took to make the team a better team. It's an unusual person who is willing to do that over the long haul."

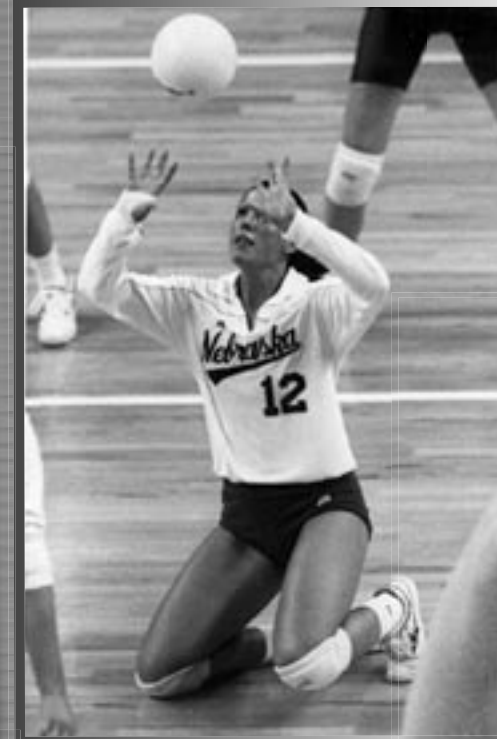

► Terry Pettit Former Husker Coach

Following in the footsteps of Cathy Noth, Tish Delaney earned second-team All-America honors in 1986. Delaney twice earned first-team All-Big Eight honors and was the 1986 Big Eight Tournament MVP.

One of the most well-rounded players in Husker history, Val Novak (above) earned AVCA All-America honors in 1989 and 1990 and played for the U.S. National Team in 1991. A three-time All-Big Eight honoree, Novak was the 1990 Big Eight Player of the Year.

One of the most athletic players in Nebraska volleyball history, Fiona Nepo (right) put the finishing touches on a standout career by leading the Huskers to an NCAA semifinal finish in 1998. The only three-time All-American setter in school history, Nepo is the school's career assist leader.

Nikki (Stricker) Best took over the starting setter position her sophomore season after playing middle blocker her first year. Stricker, a three-time All-Big Eight setter, was named the Big Eight Player of the Year in 1993. Not only does she rank second in career set assists at NU with 3,786, but she is seventh on the all-time block assists chart with 313.

One of two starting setters to win a national championship in a Nebraska uniform, Christy Johnson had an incredible two-year run in 1994 and 1995. She redshirted in 1993 then missed only one match, as NU compiled a 63-2 record the next two seasons. A two-time first-team AVCA All-American, Johnson was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1995 and was twice named a member of the All-Big Eight squad.

N Home of Champions

NU COLISEUM

The home of the Husker volleyball program, the 4,030-seat Nebraska Coliseum is one of the top venues in all of college athletics. Set in the center of the University of Nebraska campus, the Coliseum served as a home of Husker Athletics since the 1920s and has been the home of the Nebraska volleyball team since the program's inception. Nebraska annually ranks among the nation's attendance leaders and has sold out 41 straight matches dating back to the 2001 season.

The Nebraska Coliseum is a beautiful display of architecture highlighted by its powerful Roman columns. But while its beauty is appreciated by Husker players, coaches and fans, it is one of the most dreaded places for opponents to play.

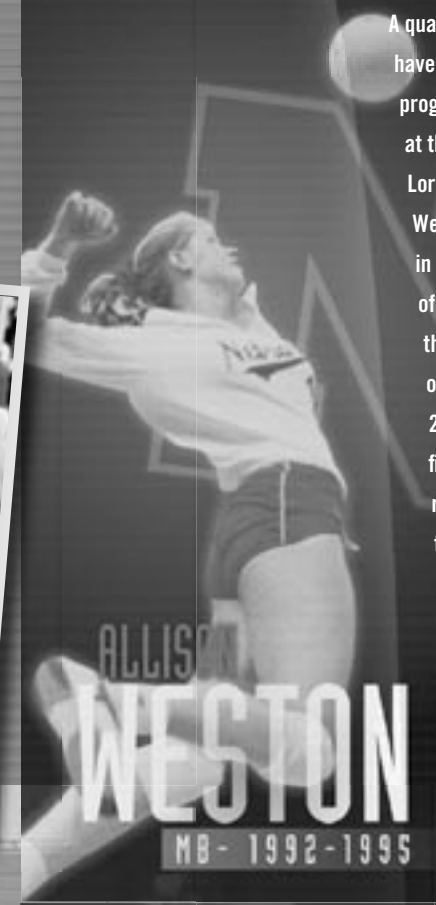

Nebraska has played at least one NCAA Tournament match in Lincoln for 22 consecutive seasons. The Huskers are 37-3 in the Nebraska Coliseum in NCAA Tournament play and have won eight regional championships on its historic floors. The Huskers hold two of the 10 longest home winning streaks in NCAA history.

N Retired Jerseys

WALL OF HONOR

A quartet former Husker volleyball players have received the highest honor the program can bestow, a retired jersey at the Coliseum. Karen Dahlgren, Lori Endicott, Cathy Noth and Allison Weston received a permanent place in the NU Coliseum in 2003, as a Wall of Honor was created to highlight the accomplishments of these outstanding student-athletes. In 2004, Janet Kruse will become the fifth Husker to have her jersey retired when her No. 17 is retired this fall.

N The Future

CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

During the summer of 2004, Nebraska embarked on the most ambitious building project since Memorial Stadium was built in 1923. The Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will be the new home for Nebraska football including locker rooms, training facilities, weight room and administrative offices. The Osborne Complex will be attached by a skybridge to a new indoor fieldhouse, which will feature a full-size football field and large meeting spaces. For more information on the building project, including live construction cameras, visit Huskers.com.

Indoor Fieldhouse

Coming Spring 2005

Connected to the athletic complex by a skywalk, the indoor fieldhouse will provide a second year-round training facility for Husker student-athletes. The indoor fieldhouse will also house the soccer offices, a soccer locker room and a visiting team locker room in addition to a spacious area for batting cages and coaching clinics.

N Home of Champions

ALL-SPORT FACILITIES

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the football program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best. With an athletic department budget of more than $50 million, Nebraska is dedicated to providing its athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport. The Huskers' first-class facilities allowed them to host postseason events in softball, volleyball and men's and women's basketball in 2003-04.

The Bob Devaney Sports Center Indoor Track and Field (above) was given a $2.7 million facelift in 2000, distinguishing it among the world's best. The facility features a hydraulic-banked track, one of three in the nation and only seven in the world.

Named after NU's longtime football coach and athletic director, the 13,595-seat Bob Devaney Sports Center is home to Husker basketball, gymnastics, swimming and diving, track and field and wrestling teams. The Devaney Center has hosted numerous NCAA postseason events since its opening in 1976, including the 2003 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships.

Completed in June of 2001, Hawks Field (left) and Bowlin Stadium are part of a $29.53 million baseball and softball complex that is among the best in the country.

Nebraska's Memorial Stadium is home to an NCAA-record 262 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962. Skyboxes and a new media facility were added in 1999 at a cost of $36.1 million.

Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex

Coming Fall 2006

The new home for Nebraska Athletics on the North side of Memorial Stadium will feature the most innovative facilities in the country. The Performance Center will have everything a student-athlete needs to obtain optimal performance - all on one level. The Performance Center includes strength and conditioning facilities for all student-athletes and an athletic medicine center that features water therapy pools.

N Strength of Nebraska

HUSKER POWER

Husker Power, the model strength and conditioning program in the nation, plays a large part in Nebraska's continued success. With eight full-time members and three interns and graduate assistants, Nebraska's Performance Team is one of the most intricate strength and performance organizations in the nation. The strength training facility is one of the largest in the nation and provides athletes with the latest in strength and conditioning equipment.

Volleyball strength coach and former Husker All-American Laura Pilakowski (right) works with Head Strength Coach Dave Kennedy (below) in developing a comprehensive strength training program specifically for volleyball student-athletes.

Nebraska's strength training facility has set the standard for weight rooms across America. Located under Memorial Stadium's west wing, the strength complex is one of the nation's finest. Several other universities have expanded their weight rooms, but Nebraska is still a step ahead. NU has three weight rooms in all, including two in the Devaney Center.

Anna Schrad (below) was named the Husker Power Lifter of the Year for volleyball in April of 2003. Former NU volleyball player Laura Pilakowski (left) still holds the all-time Husker Power Performance Index record for female athletes.

Three Reasons for Success

► Program - The Husker Power Strength and Conditioning Program is geared for maximum improvement of performance on the field. Each athlete receives their own individual computerized program.

► Supervision - The Athletic Performance Team has eight full-time strength and conditioning specialists. The Performance Team provides a wide range of services to help athletes prepare for a successful athletic career.

► Facilities - The NU Strength Complex is recognized as the finest in the country. The Wayne Meylan room is used for supplements and for body composition testing. The Husker Power facilities also include the Bob Devaney Sports Center weight room.

Melissa Elmer was named the Husker Power Lifter-of-the-Year for volleyball in April of 2004.

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

The success of Nebraska athletes is not limited to the athletic arenas.

More Husker student-athletes have been selected to CoSIDA Academic All-America teams than from any other school in the country, and more Huskers have earned academic all-conference honors than athletes from any other league school. NU has led the Big 12 in graduation rates in four of the conference's eight years.

Academic Facts

► Nebraska has the highest number of first-, second- and third-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in the nation with 217, 61 more than any other school. Nebraska has seen 109 of those earn first-team honors, including 58 since 1990.

► Husker student-athletes have earned 14 NCAA Today's Top Eight Awards, more than any other school. The football team has nine honorees, the most of any individual sport in the nation.

► In January 2004, Nebraska received the National Consortium for Academics and Sport Award of Excellence for highest combined total in community outreach and degree completion.

► Nebraska volleyball was recognized by the AVCA in 2004 as one of 46 schools with team grade-point averages of 3.40 or above for the previous year.

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the 2001 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for volleyball before earning an NCAA Top Eight Award. She is one of three Husker volleyball players to earn the NCAA Top Eight Award, one of the most prestigious honors an NCAA student-athlete can receive.

Three-time All-American Amber Holmquist graduated with a degree in communication studies from Nebraska in December of 2003.

"Academically, we have a great tradition of student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, Nebraska volleyball attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students."

The Nebraska Academic Experience

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal support, academic support and professional development to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers.

Step 1: Professional Development

► Career Exploration

Services are in place to help student-athletes explore academic majors and career options. Nebraska is considered a pioneer in all phases of career counseling. It is critical to declare a major and find a career path consistent with your skills, abilities and goals.

► Career Planning

Nebraska will prepare you better than any program in the country to be extremely competitive in the job market. Student-athletes have unique transferable athletic skills that provide a definite advantage throughout the job search process.

► Career and Graduate School Placement

Nebraska offers many opportunities for you to network and interact with prospective employers. The athletic department coordinates a student-athlete career fair and hosts an athlete helping athlete networking night. Furthermore, University Career Services coordinates numerous job and graduate fairs throughout the year that will help position you for full-time employment or graduate admissions.

Anna Schrad was a three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection and earned second-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 2003. Husker volleyball players have combined to earn 26 of Nebraska's nation-leading 217 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans awards.

N Academic Support

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen field. The athletic support team is comprised of 10 full-time staff members and tutorial staff addressing all subject areas.

Step 2: Academic Guidance

► Educational Assessments

Assessments are administered during new student-athlete orientation to help determine your strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and team.

► Tutorial Support

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful.

► Supplemental Instruction

A sub-component of the tutorial program, targeted group review sessions help ease the adjustment to college academics while building academic self-esteem.

► Academic Supervision

Ten professional academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback and monitor athletic eligibility.

► Computer Resources

Student-athletes enjoy a state-of-the-art computer lab with over 50 computers and professional supervision. Laptop computers are also available during team travel.

Nearly 250 student-athletes were honored at the 2004 Academic Awards Banquet, including the male student-athlete of the year, Judd Davies, and female student-athlete of the year, Ann Gaffigan.

Husker student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility in 2003-04 earned $54,000 in postgraduate scholarship money.

"The opportunity to be around other women who are striving to be successful and do as much as they can really shaped me. When you are surrounded by people who are striving for excellence, it raises your level of expectations as well."

► Karen Dahlgren Schonewise Academic All-American

In order to monitor the academic and graduation progress of Husker student-athletes, the counselors dedicate extensive time toward academic supervision.

Step 3: Personal Support Student-Athlete Orientation

The Hewit Center staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation which will help you adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete.

► Life Skills Program

Proactive life skills education is provided to teach skills necessary to succeed in college and beyond. National and campus presenters address topics focusing on responsible decision making in all aspects of life. Teams compete for the annual Life Skills Award of Excellence honoring the single team who was the most committed to all aspects of life skills education and programming initiatives.

► Personal Counseling

Student-athletes will find a very supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. Counseling referrals are also made if necessary to mental health professionals at the University Health Center.

► Multi-Cultural Support

Designed to enhance cultural awareness, staff members concentrate efforts on issues of transition, adjustment and retention for students of color, international students and women.

► Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

Leadership student group featuring representation from every Husker team which has continuous communication with athletic administrators, Big 12 Conference and NCAA staff.

► Husker Outreach Program

Involvement and leadership are priorities at Nebraska. Student-athletes can choose from more than 20 outreach programs ranging from hospital visits to motivational assemblies. Nebraska student-athletes reach over 100,000 youth statewide on an annual basis.

The Hewit and Boekel Academic Centers house Nebraska's academic counselors and refurbished 51-terminal computer lab. Nebraska is committed to being a national leader in advancements in learning and technology.

N A Healthy Diet

NUTRITION

Nebraska caters to the needs of athletes at home and on the road. NU's Coordinator of Sports Nutrition, James Harris, works with all 23 of Nebraska's sports by educating athletes on topics such as staying hydrated, taking advantage of off-season efforts to gain lean mass or lose body fat and utilizing Nebraska's three-step nutrition system when eating at the Performance Buffet.

Making solid nutritional choices not only helps an athlete become stronger, but also enhances game-day performance.

N Always On Call

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Volleyball Athletic Trainer Jolene Emricson (right) and the rest of the athletic medicine staff provide Husker athletes with highly trained medical care year round.

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska's Athletic Medicine department has one of the most highly trained and highly skilled staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers and Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber, the 2004-05 Nebraska Athletic Medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/trainers, five athletic trainers, six graduate assistant certified athletic trainers and 28 student assistant trainers. The orthopedic team is led by Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, a nationally respected orthopedic surgeon, who is in his 29th year of serving Husker athletics.

The medical facilities at Nebraska are among the best in the country. The Huskers' training facilities are located in South Stadium, the NU Coliseum, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, the Abbott Sports Complex and Haymarket Park.

N National Powers

HUSKER ATHLETICS

One of the nation's premier athletic programs, Nebraska is dedicated to and successful in all 23 of its varsity sports. Under the leadership of Athletic Director Steve Pederson, Nebraska continues to build on its tradition with each season. Nebraska has won 21 team national titles since 1970.

Athletic Notes

- Nebraska ranked among the top 25 in 13 of its 23 varsity sports in 2003-04. Individually, 35 Nebraska student-athletes captured 50 All-America awards in their respective sports.
- Nebraska played host to postseason events in volleyball, softball and men's and women's basketball.
- Nebraska's athletic teams took home conference titles in softball, men's indoor track and field and women's indoor and outdoor track and field.
- The Huskers earned nine CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in 2003-04 bringing their nation-leading total to 217.

The softball team came within one win of qualifying for the 2004 Women's College World Series. The Huskers claimed both the Big 12 Conference regular-season and tournament titles and placed a league-high seven players on All-Big 12 teams.

U.S. Amateur Champion Shannon Pluhowsky led the Husker bowlers to their third national championship since 1998. Pluhowsky went on to claim the Collegiate Singles title.

Thrower Becky Breisch claimed the 2004 outdoor discus title to become the first Husker to win discus and shot put national titles in a career. Breisch helped Nebraska to a third-place overall finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

Priscilla Lopes (above) claimed the NCAA Indoor championship in the 60-meter hurdles and was one of four current or former Husker track athletes competing in the 2004 Olympics.

The Husker football team finished 2003 with an Alamo Bowl victory over Michigan State to conclude a 10-3 season. Josh Bullocks recorded a Big 12 and school-record 10 interceptions en route to first-team All-America honors.

"I can't go without saying how impressed I am by the Nebraska fan base. Whether it be for women's volleyball or football, there's nothing like the Big Red."

► George W. Bush President of the United States

Sophomore Melissa Elmer helped lead a young NU volleyball team into its 10th straight Sweet 16 and a final record of 28-5 in 2003.

Libby Landgraf, a six-time All-American, guided the Huskers to its sixth straight NCAA Championship appearance in 2004.

HUSKER ATHLETICS

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, the Huskers have dominated the league in almost every sport. Nebraska has claimed the Big 12 Conference's All-Sports title in five of the league's eight years. In 2003-04 NU won four Big 12 titles. Nebraska has won six Big 12 titles in volleyball and has 25 Big Eight/Big 12 title over the last 28 years.

Peaches James guided the NU softball team to Big 12 regular-season and tournament titles in 2004.

The men's basketball team concluded its 2003-04 season in Hawaii in the second-round of the NIT tournament. The Huskers finished the season with an 18-13 mark.

Gitte Ostermann became the second NU tennis player to compete in NCAA postseason play in 2003-04.

The men's and women's track and field team swept the Big 12 Indoor titles in 2004 and the men added an outdoor title as well.

The Husker soccer team made its eighth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2003 before falling in the second round to Portland

Alex Gordon was a unanimous first-team All-America selection in 2004 and was named the Big 12 Player of the Year.

In Connie Yori's second year as head coach the Huskers posted one of the top 10 turnarounds in 2003-04 and advanced to the second round of the WNIT.

"We've never offered this many sports and had this much success and had as good of facilities and as good of support as we do now."

N Leading The Way

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

As one of the nation's premier public institutions, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln is committed to undergraduate learning and world-class research.

In early 2001, UNL was named to a national list of 16 schools that serve as a role model for other institutions by the Association of American Colleges and Universities.* Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's 147 undergraduate majors, which are spread through UNL's nine undergraduate colleges.

*2001, Association of American College and Universities

Nebraska's Teachers College school psychology, vocational education, elementary education and speech pathology programs were all ranked among the top 20 programs in the nation by U.S. News & World Report in 1999.

In addition to producing national champions on the football field and other athletic arenas, the University of Nebraska provides national championship-level instruction in the classroom. In April of 2003, junior journalism major Juanita Page (bottom) from Omaha claimed a national title at the 26th Annual American Forensics Association National Individual Events Tournament. Page finished first in the program of oral interpretation of literature.

The University of Nebraska campus is home to the nationally renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and the Lied Center for Performing Arts. The University of Nebraska State Museum boasts a world-class fossil collection. Love Library (right) underwent a $12.8 million renovation, which was completed in the Spring of 2002.

N All-America City

THE CITY OF LINCOLN

Featuring the advantages of an urban setting, the Star City is only minutes away from the scenic beauty and wide open spaces of America's Heartland.

Living in Lincoln enables one to enjoy the benefits of life in a city, while residing in a community that consistently lists one of the lowest crime rates in the nation among cities its size.

The American Institute of Architects declared Nebraska's State Capitol to be one of the modern architectural wonders of the world.

Nebraska's capital city, Lincoln has more than 6,000 acres of parks, including 10 lakes, 11 municipal swimming pools, more than 80 miles of biking and hiking trails and 12 public golf courses. Lincoln also features eight live stage theaters and 16 art museums and galleries. Shape Magazine ranked Lincoln the fourth most fit city in the nation in 2000.

Lincoln's population of 232,362 makes it the second-largest city in the Big 12 Conference. July Jamm (left) is one of many festivals annually in Lincoln. In addition, Lincoln is becoming a frequent stop for national and regional concerts and performances.

Nebraska's largest city is Omaha (right) with a population of 784,463, which is less than an hour's drive from Lincoln. Omaha is home to the AAA Omaha Royals, the NCAA College World Series (below), the world-renowned Henry Doorly Zoo and the Strategic Air Command Museum (below).

Relax, play or fish in the 23,000 miles of rivers and streams or the 250 public lakes and reservoirs that make up the state of Nebraska. Lake McConaughy (right) features 100 miles of Caribbean-like white beaches.

N The Good Life

THE STATE OF NEBRASKA

Nebraska residents truly live "The Good Life." The state features major metropolitan areas, including Lincoln and Omaha, which is the telecommunications capital of the nation, and plenty of history as well. The state also features a diverse landscape ideal for those who enjoy the great outdoors, whether it be hiking, biking, hunting or fishing. Located in the heart of the nation's heartland, Nebraska is centrally located and just a few hours from Chicago, Denver and Kansas City.
